ARLINGTON, N. J., July 8.-Six of the nine one-story brick buildings covering the entire square occupied by the Collenite manufacturing company, were demolished by the explosion yesterday. Two persons were killed and several others wounded. The company makes collars, cuffs, knives and other articles from celluloid. The explosion was caused by the careless handling of the gun cotton used in the manufacture of the celluloid by one of the employes. His body was torn to pieces and thrown into another field. Miss A. T. Mutchmore, another victim, was pinned down by the debris in the demolished building, and burned to a crisp by the fire which followed the explosion. Probably a dozen other employes are more or less seriously injured, but not fatally. The works are in the middle village, and there is scarcely a whole pane of glass within a quarter of a mile and many houses are otherwise damaged. The loss is $60,000.

MORE SCARED THAN HURT. Uniontown, Pa, July 8 .- At 5 o'clock the report reched the sheriff from the West Leiersing works that a riot had occurred and that four of the strikers had been killed and others badly injured. The news was given out, and the excited Hungarians were at once wild, there being no wires to West Leiersing works. It was necessary to send a special messenger, and when he returned with the truth that no trouble had occurred it was too late to send word to the outside Hungarians, who were here ready to take the war path, and it was feared trouble would result. Last night they were particularly incensed at a posse of Pinkerton men. and they say they will fight to the death before being evicted from their homes at Matthews.
