The Crimes Bill Passed Parliament.

LONDON, July 8.—In the commons last night Wm. O'Brien praised Gladstone's brave opposition to the bill. Gladstone, he said, was the greatest conqueror of Ireland. He conquered by mere generosity of soul.

After Major Sanderson, attorney general Webster replied on behalf of the government. The debate was adjourned.

LONDON, July 8.—Lord Hartington, in the commons this afternoon, continuing the debate on the Irish crimes bill, said he recognized that every portion of the majority supporting the measure must bear its full onus of responsibility for what has been done. So long as the liberal unionists were supported by the thinking and cultured classes of England, they would continue with confidence in their course. "For," added he, "surely the masses cannot have a better knowledge than the educated classes of the differences between England and Ireland."

John Dillon said he was prepared loyally to acknowledge the duty of Irishmen to the empire, but he held that their first duty was to the welfare of the Irish people. His party represented a vast and overwhelming majority of the people whose fortunes the bill affected. The head and front of the Irish members' offending was that for seven years they had devoted themselves to a struggle to induce their countrymen to abandon violence and trust to agitation in parliament, yet they were stigmatized as associates of assassins. The opinion of no civilized country in the world was of more value to intelligent Englishmen than that of America. It was absurd to assert that nine-tenths of the educated people of America were not on the side of Ireland. The whole American press is on our side. He maintained that O'Brien's visit had been a conspicuous success, both in the United States and Canada.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt criticised the bill at length. In conclusion, he said every town and village in the kingdom should be made to understand that the government refused Irish tenants that protection from an old, oppressive law against combinations which they granted trades unions. Goshen then spoke, whereupon the Parnellites left the house in a body. Goshen said: The government's contention was not that the bill was justified because others as drastic had been passed, but it was necessary. Goshen denied that the literature of the civilized world condemned the government's policy. The Americans, in their struggle for maintenance of the Union, were not influenced by the opinions of English statesmen, and if American opinion was against continuance of the union of England and Ireland, which he did not believe, the unionists would not be influenced by that opinion in their defense of so great a cause.

Redmond concluded the debate amid signs of impatience. LONDON, July 8.—The crimes bill passed the third reading, 349 to 262. The announcement of the vote was received with cheers and counter-cheers.

Breaking Down and Building Up.
When a man breaks down in the matter of physical strength, the question of its recovery depends in great measure upon the length of time he allows to elapse before adopting medicinal means to recuperate it. A tonic, which gives a speedy and powerful impulse to the processes of digestion and assimilation, is the best auxiliary he can employ, and he should resort to it promptly. The most reliable dependence of the feeble, the aged and the nervous, has ever proved to be Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an invigorant of national reputation and proven worth, commended by medical men of distinction, not only for building up a broken-down system, but as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, fever and ague, and kidney trouble. While not claimed to be a panacea, it is a most useful and comprehensive household remedy. It is, moreover, eminently safe as well as effective.

Strike on the O. R. & N.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., July 8.—A general strike of section bosses and men on this division of the O. R. & N. road prevails. The cause is the lowering of wages and cutting down of time one-half. Many of the men have just arrived in Walla Walla to-day on their way to Portland and other points. The strike emanated from a dispatch from the general road master to the assistant on this division—Mr. Nelson, with orders to put all section bosses and men on half time. Consequently every man, as stated, quit this morning by mutual agreement. Many of the bosses requested Mr. Nelson to telegraph and ask for a lay-off for sixty days. Others quit outright. It is stated that not a man is left on this division at the present time. In conversation with railroad men it was learned that two carloads of strikers departed for Portland to-day, who have been working on the mountain division east of Pendleton. It is also rumored among the strikers that ten carloads of men are now on the road from the east to take positions along the line at a low rate of wages, sent out by Jay Gould.

A Game of Freeze Out.

Yesterday at Empire City, the property of the Southern Oregon Improvement company, located there, was sold under the hammer. It consists of the largest saw mill in the state, 90,000 acres of lumber land, and town property at Empire City and Marshfield. The indebtedness under which the vast estate is, is between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000, held by New York and Boston bankers and some of the Oregon Improvement company. By the sale the property practically remains in the same hands and under the same management. About the only change was the freezing out of a number of small stock holders. For a year past the mill has been shut down owing to mortgages.—Coos Bay News.

"My wife and myself were in bad health for some fifteen years. I chanced to be looking over one of Simmons' Liver Regulator Almanacs and saw A. H. Stevens' and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. FAULTLESS FAMILY MEDICINE

"I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only Family Medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system, and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness. I often recommend it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."

SPECIAL.
Men's and Boy's White Shirts.
I desire to call your attention to one of the best fitting, most improved, and best value in Men's and Boy's undried White Shirts ever offered to the trade, they are made with pure linen bosoms and cuff bands, reinforced (double cloth) from the bosoms to the side seams, and are made with the patent continuous strip in the back enabling the wearer to put on a shirt without the possibility of tearing it down the back, also protecting the garment in the process of laundering. The sales of this make of Shirts was unprecedentedly great from the period of their introduction, and the fact that these improvements do not add to the selling price, so much increased the demand that the Manufacturers were compelled to double the size and capacity of their factory.
These undried white shirts I am now offering are as follows:

Men's (Sizes 14 1-2 to 17) 75 cents each.
Boys' (Sizes 11 1-2 to 14) 50 cents each.
