

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:
WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1887

Tickets for the Wad-el-Ward lectures at Griffin & Reed's.

Good weather for haying, but bad for potatoes and root crops.

In the police court, last Monday, Geo. Zeigler was fined $40 for vagrancy.

Blackberries of uncertain flavor are in the market. The blackberry is a funny fruit, always red when it is green.

Very few fish are being taken; the few that come in are of exceptionally fine quality, running as high as sixty-six pounds in weight.

At eleven o'clock next Wednesday morning Ben. Worsley will sell at public auction the stock and fixtures of the Great Eastern saloon.

The fish commissioners and legislative committee visited several canneries through the city yesterday, and went to Ilwaco in the afternoon.

The present dearth of salmon in July on the Columbia, though unusual is not unprecedented. In 1877 the same condition of affairs existed.

There will be a children's sociable at Mrs. Sam'l Elmore's from two to five next Friday afternoon, under the auspices of the M. E. church Sunday school.

Like a man without a wife, like a ship without a sail, the oddest thing in life is a shirt without a proper length, or a newspaper without telegrams from the world's busy centers. The line is up again, and our specials from London, New York, etc., come through all right.

"Who can tell what a day may bring forth?" Accidents are liable to happen, and the best thing one can do is to have an accident policy. A. Balmanno is the agent of the Traveler's Insurance company, a reliable company, and one that promptly settles all claims.

PERSONAL.

Capt. J. A. Brown is in the city.

Mayor Trullinger is expected back from San Francisco next week.

Miss Alice Stockton has returned from visiting friends in Portland.

Miss Jane Weeden, a celebrated temperance lecturer, is sojourning here for a season.

An Interesting Lecturer.

To-morrow night the renowned oratorical traveler, Wad-el-Ward, will begin a course of lectures at Liberty Hall. Yesterday's News, speaking of him, says: "The success of the course now being given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was apparent last night in the large audience that gathered in the tabernacle to hear Wad-el-Ward on 'A Trip to Mecca with the Mohammedans.' The fluent, easy manner of the lecturer pleases all. His descriptions of scenery and events are clear, natural and conveyed in plain language, are readily followed and retained. Just enough of the ludicrous was given, keeping the audience in good humor from first to last. The lecturer abounds with descriptive, narrative personal adventure, instructive incident, and explanation of the customs of the eastern world. The lecture was novel and interesting, holding the closest attention of the audience for one hour and three-quarters, not one person leaving during that time."

A San Francisco report notes recent sales at $1.17 1/2 to $1.25 of 60,000 Karluk, 10,000 Wadhams Fraser river, 10,000 Hawthorn, 10,000 Cowan, Shaw & Co., 3,000 Caledonia, 10,000 Tomahawk, 5,000 Carquinez, 15,000 Archie, 15,000 Gardiner, 5,000 Cape Fox, 5,000 Florence, 15,000 Sacramento to fall pack.

In Brief, And to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cooking, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Now, This Should Not Be Forgotten.

How foolish it is to make fun of the home-made bustle! There is not a girl who makes her own bustle but is backed by some of the most influential papers of the times.—St. Paul Herald.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A small bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

An Inexplicable Mystery.

Nobody doubts the intelligence and sagacity of the teachers of the public schools, of course, but just now everybody is trying to reconcile this admitted fact with the midsummer meeting of the state institute at Salem. With Yaquina's cool breezes coaxing from the southward, the brooding air of Astoria and Clatsop wooing from the north, and the transportation companies vying with each other to make travel cheap and easy, the selection of Salem, or any other valley town as a place for the annual meeting of the institute is inexplicable.—Telegram, 9.
