

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1887.

To-night Wad-el-Ward At Liberty Hall Tickets at Griffin & Reed's.

The Rosie Olsen is in from Tillamook.

Milk is fifteen cents a gallon—in Seattle.

The Gen. Miles goes to Gray's harbor to-morrow.

The Oregon is due from San Francisco this morning.

The West Side Telephone thinks it would be a good idea to build a railroad from McMinnville to Astoria. Betcherlife.

The sale of reserved seats for the coming concert of the New York Philharmonic club, begins at Carl Adler's this morning.

Early morning showers yesterday wet down streets and roofs, put the quietus on sundry threatening brush fires on the hill and freshened up gardens and lawns.

Looking at the long list of marriages in June, makes the Walla Walla Union wonder why so many people marry during the season of hot weather and short nights.

New pipe has been put in by J. W. Welch, superintendent Columbia River Water company, from Point Adams cannery to Fisher's saloon, a distance of about 700 feet.

"A donkey ride from Dan to Beer-sheba." at Liberty Hall to-night, a unique and interesting lecture, by Dr. James Rosedale, LL. D., a native of Jerusalem, and oriental traveler.

The Scandinavian Benevolent society have chartered the S. G. Reed, and on Sunday, the 31st inst., will give a grand excursion and picnic to Knappa. All who go can count on having a good time. The committee of arrangements are Aug. Danielson, M. Olsen, Frank Ecklund, Eric Johnson, Jno. M. Olsen.

People on street corners and sidewalks have some rights that drivers of vehicles should respect. There are half a dozen drivers of wagons and wagonettes who have a fashion of cutting closely around a corner, with one wheel on the edge of the sidewalk. It is impolite, dangerous to all hands, forbidden by all rules of courtesy and safety and should be stopped.

State senator L. T. Barin, chairman of the present legislative visiting committee, is a man of considerable experience, and has given close and long continued observation to salmon. He can readily distinguish the male and female, and gives it as his opinion that in the salmon entering the river the proportion as to sex is three males to one female, which, if so, would indicate that the salmon of the Columbia take little stock in the Mormon doctrine. The senator does not place implicit belief in the theory that all salmon entering the river to spawn, die and do not return, a skepticism which is shared by thousands of dwellers along the banks of the Columbia.

The city, as usual, is filled with peddlers, each with some little summer game. Astoria is continually drained of ready money by these folks. They are all right and not to be denied; but their business and it is legitimate, but the point is, for Astorians to buy of Astoria merchants. If you want clothing, shoes, groceries, books, apparel, etc., merchandise of any kind, you can find it on the shelves or in the showcases of Astoria business men. If you can't, a request will ninety-nine times out of a hundred secure it next time it is called for. It is poor business for Astorians to neglect Astoria merchants and send away good money that might as well be spent right here in town.

The 97-year-old man who cracks nuts with his teeth and chops wood Saturdays is slow in showing up this season. He was due in Douglas county on the 1st. The wild woman is on time. She has been heard from near Philomath. It is alleged that she "was seen at Wood school house, in Blodget's Valley, June 29th, picking up crumbs where the children had eaten dinner, and on the 30th she attempted to seize a little girl about twenty feet from the school house. The teacher, being called, ran to the window quickly, to get, if possible, a view of her face, but did not succeed, for she bounded away like a wild animal." The eastern Oregon hermit in a cave is due August 1st, and about the 15th prox. we ought to be hearing of the chickens in Prineville that had 87 cents worth of gold in their crops when they were killed. The sea serpent seems to be as hopelessly missing this year as the July salmon.

Notice.

The ladies of the Grace (Episcopal) church will give their basket picnic on Friday, July 15th, '87. The steamer Electric will leave Wilson & Fisher's dock with barge at 9 o'clock A. M. Tickets, 50 cents; children under 12 years, 25 cents.

LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The steamship Australia arrived here this morning from Honolulu, sailing from that point at noon July 5th and bringing Hawaiian intelligence down to that time; no further outbreaks or demonstrations of any character occurred after those described as having taken place on Friday and Saturday, July first and second, which resulted in overturning the Gibson ministry and the receipt of a written pledge from king Kalakaua that he would promote constitutional reform and submit to the will of the people. The military continues to remain on duty, but no further public assemblages have been held. The new ministry has assumed control and a new constitution was to have been laid before the king on the day the steamship sailed.

CENTENNIAL EXERCISES. CLINTON, N. Y., July 13.—President Cleveland and party reached Clinton about ten o'clock. An immense crowd was at the station to greet them. They were escorted by Jacksonians to Mrs. C. F. Williams' residence where they were greeted by prominent members of the centennial commission and many venerable citizens. The exercises in the park did not commence until nearly two o'clock. Rev. Henry Darling, president of Hamilton college, offered the opening prayer. Rev. E. P. Powell made an address of welcome to which the president responded.

A PRESIDENTIAL RECEPTION. UTICA, N. Y., July 13.—President Cleveland, wife, sister and niece, came down from Holland Patent this morning they were met by the centennial committee from Clinton, a brief address of welcome made to which the president responded in a few words. The Utica Jacksonians with the Twelfth Infantry band, saluted the president and his wife as they stood upon the platform of the coach. Crowded trains have been running to Clinton all the morning. An immense crowd was at the railroad station. As the president's train moved out they cheered and waved their hats while he stood uncovered and bowed his acknowledgements.

HOT WEATHER. CHICAGO, July 13.—During the four weeks ending yesterday the highest daily temperature has averaged 81°, recording unprecedented temperature in the history of Chicago. Yesterday the temperature reached 96°, and to-day promises no prospect of relief.

TO BE SENTENCED TO- DAY. NEW YORK, July 13.—Passing sentence upon Jacob Sharpe has been postponed until to-morrow.

THERE MAY BE TROUBLE. PARIS, July 13.—German residents have been ordered to remain indoors to-morrow as it is feared they will be attacked if they appear on the streets during the celebration of the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille. Patriotic leaders have announced they will make demonstration to-morrow morning in the Place de la Concorde and another in the Bois de Boulogne in the afternoon. It is feared these meetings will give rise to disorder, and the police and military authorities are making preparations to maintain peace.

NO LACK OF ADVICE. CONSTANTINOPLE, July 13.—The sultan persists in his refusal to sign the covenant with England in reference to Egypt in its present form, notwithstanding he is urged to ratify the same by Germany and Italy.

The Philharmonic Club.

This company of musical artists will appear at Ross' opera house next Monday evening. Their reputation assures Astorians of a fine musical treat. Here is what the New York Herald says of them: "The club is composed of a sextet of musicians who have obtained special prominence as soloists in the best musical circles; and, as a result, their services afford a most delightful evening to those who can appreciate a high class of chamber music interpreted by these well known players. There was at no time the least variation of one common idea—there was no lack of consistency or want of delicacy in the phrasing in a single instrument; all seemed guided by but one mind, and from first to last it promised to be as it was, a triumphant conclusion to the programme. "The instrumental portion of the concert concluded by the Beethoven Sextet in E flat (opus 20), which was marvelously well played. The sentiment of the great master seemed to be infused into all the players, and the noble composition was given with an earnestness that lent a glow to the entire programme, and fittingly brought the club's delightful season to a most creditable conclusion."

AMERICAN SARDINES.

The New York Sun has been interviewing some of the leading wholesale grocers on the subject of American sardines, with the following result, that "there are very few imported sardines sold in the states, that nine-tenths of those put upon the market are packed in Maine and that not one customer in a thousand can tell the difference." It is difficult to reconcile this statement with the figures as to the exportation of sardines from Italy to this country given in the consular reports. Bordeaux alone sends us some 85,000 cases yearly. We quote the following history of the Maine business: "There are in Eastport alone over twenty places where they manufacture sardines and there are a dozen others in Jonesport, Lubec and other towns. The business began in 1876 and was started by some New Yorkers who went to Eastport and at first did quite a business in packing small herring in peculiar looking little wooden kegs in a pickle of spices. These herring were placed in the market as Russian herring, and I can remember when this cheap and fraudulent fish was on the bills of fare of the swell restaurants of New York as the highest priced relish they served. "These enterprising New Yorkers made money fast in their Maine venture, but they believed there was more still in modeling the herring upon French sardines, although some shrewd Yankees had experimented extensively and spent much money in trying to make the venture practical some years before. It had been found easy to cook the little fish, pack them in olive oil, in imitation sardine cans, and give them the appearance of genuine imported sardines. But when they came to be eaten the fraud was palpable. The rich spicy flavor of the French sardine was not there, but only the unmistakable taste of the native herring. The Yankees could not discover any means by which the herring taste could be eradicated and the sardine business was pronounced a failure, but our smart New Yorkers, after a few experiments, hit upon a mixture of oil and spices for a packing sauce, which made a sardine of a herring in a twinkling, and a gigantic industry has sprung from the simple discovery. Not only are sardines made from common herring now, but from sea trout, a fish called a moranee, and several other finny species, all herring of lesser or greater growth."

Four Men Drowned at Tillamook.

From the Rosie Olsen, lying at Hume's wharf, is learned tidings of a dreadful accident at Tillamook last Sunday by which four men lost their lives. It appears that a man named Albert Briggs, who runs a sloop from Lincoln to Hobsonville and Garibaldi, started from the former place carrying five passengers. When off Hobsonville a flaw struck the boat and she capsized and sunk. The owner of the boat and a boy named Wood, ruff got on the flats and were saved from the cannery, the other four unfortunate men were drowned. Three of them were new arrivals from Pennsylvania and had only got there the day before. Their names couldn't be learned. The body of one was found next day; in his pockets were $3,350 in gold and notes. An inquest was held by a jury of which ex-governor Thayer was foreman, and a verdict returned of accidental drowning. The fourth man was from the Nestucca. Efforts were making when the Rosie Olsen left to find the other bodies.

The Latest and Greatest Discovery.

DR. J. DE PRATT'S HAMBURG FIGS.—A crystallized fruit cathartic. A discovery of the greatest interest to the Medical Profession. A boon to every household. A most delicious laxative or purgative prepared from fruits and vegetables. So perfectly harmless that they may be administered with entire safety to an infant. So efficacious to adults that a single dose will prove their value, and so elegant a preparation that it needs only to be presented to the public to become a necessity in every household throughout the land. For liver complaints, habitual constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and piles, they are a specific. To travelers by sea and land they will be found invaluable; they are positively unailing in their action, and this is the only medicine ever offered to the public that is acceptable to the taste, and so pleasant that children will eat the figs as eagerly as candy. For sale by every Druggist throughout the world. Price, 25 cents a box. J. J. Mack & Co., Prop's, 9 and 11 Front street, San Francisco, Cal.

The Committee of Observation.

Messrs. Barin, Maxwell and Pomeroy, of the legislative committee, and Reed, Thompson and Campbell, of the fish commission, returned on the Quicksstep from Ilwaco and vicinity yesterday afternoon. While there they visited the traps and saw their workings. This morning they go to the seining grounds and note operations there. This will close the tour for the present. Later in the season the legislative committee will visit Tillamook and farther south, and will report at the next session of the legislature. The report will be based largely upon the observations of the present visit, and will embody suggestions of changes in the present law and concurrent jurisdiction with our northern neighbor. The committee appear to favor the advisability and necessity of state aid to the important matter of propagation.

Drowned at Brookfield.

Gus Larsen, fishing for J. G. Megler, at Brookfield, was drowned there last Tuesday night. He was in his boat and was struck by the boom which knocked him overboard. The body was recovered at noon yesterday and brought here. The funeral will take place under the auspices of the Columbia river fishermen's protective union at three o'clock this afternoon.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

May We All Be There to See.

The Portland hose team, which a great many disinterested persons still claim won the race on the 4th, is now a permanent organization, and at the next tournament will make Astoria look to its laurels.—Welcome, 9.

Famous Women.

Madame Trebelli, the greatest of living contraltos who has traveled extensively, in fact visited every county and city of note in the world, has just departed from the slopes of the Pacific, and often expressing the greatest admiration for the beauty and grandeur of our scenery and the delightful mildness of our climate, left the following written note as a living expression of her opinion in the hands of a Portland druggist, the original of which can be seen on demand.

PORTLAND, Or., April 6, 1887.

Dear Mr. Wisdom.—I have tried your "Robertine," and it gives me much pleasure to say that it is excellent for the complexion, being one of the best articles of the kind I have ever used. Believe me, yours sincerely, L. TREBELL.

If any further proof of the excellency of this article is required call on Messrs. W. E. Dement & Co. of Astoria, Or., who, for the small sum of fifty cents, will produce evidence that will satisfy the most skeptical and fastidious and give you a beautiful picture card for the trouble of enquiring.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. F. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at W. E. Dement & Co.
