THE WATERWAY CONVENTION.

The third session of the Columbia waterway convention will be held at Astoria on Wednesday, the 3d day of August, and it is expected to be a very important and interesting meeting. One of its general objects will be to voice the sentiment of the country upon the policy of river and harbor improvement, and in order that the expression may be as emphatic as possible it is important that there should be a large and general representation. Boards of trade, chambers of commerce, city and town councils, boards of county commissioners, in short, all constituted bodies, local or official, in the Columbia river basin or anywhere in the country, interested in the improvement of the Columbia river, are invited and urged to send delegates. The governors of Oregon and Washington, the Oregon senators, Oregon's representative in congress, the territorial delegate to congress, the United States engineers and other important personages have been especially invited to attend, and it is expected that the gathering will be large and notable and in the highest degree representative. The voice of such a convention upon a matter of public policy ought to have weight with congress.

It is believed that the chief purpose of the waterway convention could best be promoted by the organization of a permanent river improvement society, and the plan to this end, suggested at the last meeting at Vancouver, will be taken up as the first business of the meeting at Astoria. It ought to be possible to form a society of ten thousand, or perhaps twenty thousand members, whose sole object would be to urge the river work. Such a society could find many ways of useful effort. It could keep our representatives at Washington supplied with information, and by its zeal and continued interest, stimulate them to energetic work. It could impress every influential visitor to the country with our needs, and upon occasion send commissioners to Washington to urge our claims. It would at least be a standing illustration of public feeling here. By all means let the proposed organization be formed, and let it be made as general and popular as possible.

It has come at last to be generally understood that the benefits of the government work are for the future, and that if the country is to have immediate relief it is to come through private or public enterprise, independent of the government. "We cannot afford to wait on the slow method of the government," said president Smith, of the waterway convention, yesterday, "but must provide some kind of portage system for use between this time and the completion of the permanent works." This matter will come before the Astoria convention as one of the important subjects of consideration, and it is hoped that some practical plan for a portage system will be developed. This is the true solution of the transportation problem which now vexes the country.—Oregonian, 15.

The Great Rivers of the World.
The eight longest rivers in the world, according to the calculations of major general A. Von Tillo, are as follows: Missouri-Mississippi, 4,194 miles; Nile, 4,020; Yangtse-Kiang, 3,158; Amazon, 3,063; Yenesei-Scanga, 2,950; Congo, 2,883; Amur, 2,950; McKenzie, 2,868. The length of the Missouri-Mississippi is taken from the report of Messrs. Humphreys and Abbott. Klotzer estimates it at 3,658 miles. Gaskill's "Popular Family Atlas," published this year, gives the list in this order: Missouri-Mississippi, 4,382; Nile, 4,000; Amazon, 3,750; Congo, 3,500; Yenesei, 3,400; Yangtse-Kiang, 3,330; Niger, 3,000; Hoang-Ho and McKenzie, 2,800.

A Excellent Medicine.
"My wife and myself were in bad health for some fifteen years. I chanced to be looking over one of Simmons Liver Regulator Almanacs and saw A. H. Stevens and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. I then obtained some of the Regulator, and can heartily recommend the Liver Regulator to my friends as an excellent medicine."

What Senator Sherman Says.

There is much excitement at Columbus, Ohio, over the announcement that Sherman has, in his own handwriting, announced his position as a candidate for president of the United States. The announcement has made a sensation throughout Ohio, and many Republicans are taken by surprise by Sherman's declaration of his position. Sherman's own words, in a letter to Col. Mussey, are these: "I do not want to be held up to the people of the United States as a presidential candidate if there be any doubt about Ohio. I do not, as many think, seek for that high honor, nor do I want any one to aid me in securing the nomination. I am as passive about it as any man could be whose merits or demerits are discussed in that connection. I don't desire the nomination, nor shall I encourage any one to secure it for me until the Ohio Republicans, who have conferred upon me honors I have enjoyed, shall, with substantial unanimity, express their wish for my nomination."

Jos. McBride, John Riddell and several others at Bruceport have formed a company and are shipping their oysters to the California & Oregon Produce company, of San Francisco, from whom they say they are assured of a good market at from $2.80 to $3.40 a sack for 100 sacks a week. Two shipments have already been made.—Journal.

FAULTLESS FAMILY MEDICINE

"I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only Family Medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system, and if used in time is a great preservative of sickness. I often recommend it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."
"Rev. James M. Rollins,
"Pastor M. E. Church, So. Fairfield, Va."
