

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1887

Hon. Sol Hirsch is in the city.

The Mistletoe club will have a party next Friday evening.

The British bark Trinidad cleared for Valparaiso yesterday with 479 M feet lumber, worth $5,500.

Patrick Moore was yesterday adjudged insane by a commission in lunacy, and goes to Salem this morning in charge of Frank Surprenant.

Francis Criman, a deserter from the United States army, was arrested here last Monday and taken to Vancouver for trial. He has eluded pursuit since his desertion last March.

Col. Jno. Adair, Jr. brought over a farm wagon from Clatsop via his ferry yesterday, being the first vehicle of the kind ever brought to the city from Clatsop with the horses hitched thereto.

The Scandinavian Benevolent association is making every preparation for a pleasant excursion on the 31st inst. The Western Amateur Brass Band will discourse sweet music on the boat and at Knappa.

Salmon were reported a little more abundant yesterday, but a little less in size. Nothing now but a special act of Providence or of the legislature can prevent a short pack of salmon up to August 1st on the Columbia this year.

A fire alarm at ten o'clock last night was occasioned by a slight fire near the boiler in Kinney's cannery which was promptly extinguished. The department got there in good time, but, fortunately their services were not needed.

Regarding the proposed foot race between Grant and Ren, in six weeks time, the backers of the latter say that they are going to the Coquille to pack salmon on the first, and as far as they're concerned it would be an impossibility, unless the race was run in Coos county, a very unlikely event.

A very remarkable criminal case was ended at Portland last Monday, wherein one Edward Fay, an alleged accomplice in the Allen & Lewis "burglary," who pleaded guilty in court to a charge of larceny, which larceny as a matter of fact he never committed, was sent to the penitentiary for six months.

A San Francisco dispatch says the steward of the fishing schooner Courtney Ford was recently washed overboard in Alaskan waters. His body was recovered and a bank book showing deposits to the amount of $18,000 was found on his person. The mate of the C. C. Funk also shared the same fate about the same place.

A mist rolled in from the sea yesterday evening and overcoats and warm clothing felt comfortable. The cool weather throughout the season has been unusually prolonged. It is noticeable in this connection that there has been an almost steady northwester blowing outside, and some think that to this wind is due the continued cool weather.

As the season advances the lumber business is, if anything, even brisker. The demand from southern California parts is something unprecedented, and every class of vessels is pressed into the service, and even passenger steamers like the Willington, now taking lumber from Gray's Harbor, are in use. On the Columbia the logging and lumber business was never brisker, and all the mills have orders ahead.

At Ross' Opera House To-night.

Daniel Sully's new play, Daddy Nolan, was produced at the opera house last night, says the Milwaukee Sentinel, where it was very warmly received. The play is a sequel to The Corner Grocery, and is built upon the same model, telling in an unpretentious way the story of Daddy Nolan's reduction from affluence to poverty, through the forgery of his name by his son, his trials and sorrows as a poor junkman, and the subsequent happiness of all by the son's return in time to save his father from prison and replace him in his former position of independence. The comedy is bright and full of rollicking fun. It makes pretensions to nothing in the way of exalted literary merit, but it has a vein of broad humor, which never descends to coarseness, and a great deal of homely pathos, which one would scarcely expect to find in a play of this class. The precocious youth is there with his ingenious devilry, full of mischief and a disposition to make things hot for every body with whom he comes in contact. Daddy Nolan is unchanged by time, a little less boisterous, perhaps, and toned down by grief, but in other ways he is the jolly, good hearted old Irishman, whose clever work in the old play kept his audiences roaring with the heartiest kind of laughter. Mr. Sully is one of the few Irish comedians who can act naturally. His Nolan is a distinctly drawn and neatly executed bit of character work, full of light and shade and some very pathetic touches. It ranks far above the farcical attempts at comedy made by many of our prominent actors and is really artistic. Reserved seats at the New York Novelty Store.

Turk Again the Winner.

The Whitehall boat race between Jas. Turk and Jas. Williams last Monday afternoon resulted in a challenge which was immediately accepted, to sail another race over the same course, which was done yesterday afternoon, the only difference being that Williams took Brown and McCab's boat, the Harry Bingham, Turk having his boat Young Turk, sailed by Baker as before. The race was for $100 a side; the start was at 3:05, P. M.; Baker turned the upper buoy at 3:17½, Williams at 3:18½; at the lower buoy Williams tacked around at 4:02, Baker at 4:02½. Williams stood over toward the north, and came in second, Baker passing the judges' boat at 4:30½, and winning the race; time of race one hour, twenty-five and one-half minutes.

In Brief, And to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy. Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

School Meeting Last Evening.

There was a school meeting in the school house of district No. 1 last evening, the object being to levy a tax to support the school for the ensuing year, to pay interest on the indebtedness, and incidental expenses. The call for the meeting was read by J. G. Hustler, the school clerk, and after some discussion it was decided that an eight mill tax be levied; 2½ mills for the salary of the teachers, 2½ mills for interest on the indebtedness, 1½ mills for the reduction of the debt and 1½ mills for incidental expenses, and the meeting adjourned.

SEIZURES IN ALASKAN WATERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—By the Alaska steamer Dora, which came in to-day from Ounalaska, information is received of the seizure of two vessels for sailing within the limits prescribed by the United States government. They are the American schooner Challenge, thirty tons, from Seattle, and the British steam schooner Annie Beck, hailing from Victoria. Both seizures were made by the United States revenue cutter Richard Eason, and the vessels and crews were sent on to Sitka. The Challenge was taken July 1, in Eksten harbor, on Eksten Island. When overhauled by the Rush no seals were to be seen, but there was blood on the deck and other evidences that the crew had been engaged in sealing. The Rush took charge of her, in spite of the protests of the captain, who urged that every skin he had was obtained in open waters of the Pacific.

Two days later the Annie Beck was seized near St. Georges, which is not far from Ounalaska. As in the case of the Challenge there was blood on her deck, and the crew appeared as if they had been hard at it. Her captain set up a protest and said he would demand satisfaction from the British government. He was likewise sent off to Sitka, where he, as well as the American captain, will be tried.

When the Dora departed for Ounalaska there was a fleet of twenty sealers hovering off Sanack, under espionage by the Rush. Others were reported at Unga, and the officers of the Rush were in need of assistance. The Bear has gone to Arctic waters.

Death of Archbishop Seghers.

The death of archbishop Seghers is a shock to many who knew and esteemed him. A native of Belgium, he was stationed as a Roman Catholic priest at Vancouver, where, in 1878, he was ordained bishop. Alaska was a part of his diocese and a long and tedious journey there manifested the interest he felt in that section. In 1879 he was made coadjutor to the venerable archbishop Blanchet, of this state and in 1881 succeeded that prelate. In 1884 he resigned his dignities that he might go to Alaska as a missionary, and in 1886 entered upon his new field. About a year ago he started from Victoria for an extended tour through Alaska. In his party was a companion and servant named Frank Fuller, a young man from Portland. This Fuller murdered the archbishop on the morning of November 28th, on the banks of the Yukon river, about a hundred miles from its mouth. The cause of the murder appears to have been jealousy on the part of the miserably man, who in the early morning, after having slept by the bishop's side all night, picked up a rifle and sent a bullet crashing through his forehead. The body was taken to St. Michael's, Fuller accompanying it, where he was arrested and will be taken to Sitka for trial.

A New Whitehall Boat.

Denny Curran was out yesterday afternoon in a new Whitehall boat, about twenty feet long, which Wm. Howe has built for the custom house service. She is to be called the Uncle Sam, and is a neat looking little craft. Her center board is a little further forward than is customary in Whitehall boats, and Denny Curran, who gave her an extended trial up and down stream yesterday afternoon, thinks it is considerable an improvement, holding her well in hand and enabling her to hold her own and a little more with any boat of similar build in the vicinity.

Famous Women. Madame Trebelli, the greatest of living contraltos who has traveled extensively, in fact visited every county and city of note in the world, has just departed from the slope of the Pacific, and often expressing the greatest admiration for the beauty and grandeur of our scenery and the delightful mildness of our climate, left the following written note as a living expression of her opinion in the hands of a Portland druggist, the original of which can be seen on demand.

PORTLAND, Or., April 6, 1887. Dear Mr. Wisdom:—I have tried your "Robertine," and it gives me much pleasure to say that it is excellent for the complexion, being one of the best articles of the kind I have ever used. Believe me, yours sincerely, Z. TREBELLI.

If any further proof of the excellency of this article is required call on Messrs. W. E. Dement & Co. of Astoria, Or., who, for the small sum of fifty cents, will produce evidence that will satisfy the most skeptical and fastidious and give you a beautiful picture card for the trouble of enquiring.

Catarrh to Consumption.

Catarrh in its destructive force stands next to and undoubtedly leads on to consumption. It is therefore singular that those afflicted with this fearful disease should not make it the object of their lives to rid themselves of it. Deceptive remedies concocted by ignorant pretenders to medical knowledge have weakened the confidence of the great majority of sufferers in all advertised remedies. They become resigned to a life of misery rather than torture themselves with doubtful palliatives.

But this will never do. Catarrh must be met on every stage and combated with all our might. In many cases the disease has assumed dangerous symptoms. The bones and cartilage of the nose, the organs of hearing, of seeing and of tasting so affected as to be useless, the uvula so elongated, the throat so inflamed and irritated as to produce a constant and distressing cough.

KIDNEY PAINS IN ONE MINUTE, that weary, lifeless, all-averse sensation ever present with those of inflamed kidneys, Weak Back and Loins, Aching Hips and Sides, Uterine Pains, Weakness, and Inflammation, is relieved and speedily cured by the CUTICURA Anti-Pain Plaster, a new, original, elegant and infallible antispasmodic to pain and inflammation. At all druggists, 25c; five for $1.00; or of Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Yearnings of Wm. Nye's Heart.

We have paved the way for the poor, oppressed foreigner, so that he could come to our shores and take liberties with our form of government. To be a foreigner here in America to day is one of the sweetest boons. If I could be just what I would like to be, I would be an oppressed foreigner, landing on our shores, free from the taxation and responsibility of government, with no social demands made on me, with nothing in my possession but a hearty Godspeed from both political parties, and a strong yearning for freedom. Oh, why was I not born an alien that both parties wouldn't dare to reproach; an alien that can come here and find a government established, with no flies on it; a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"Read me for my cause, and be patient that ye may read."—SHAKESPEARE.

The Greatest Study of Mankind is Man. The greatest study of mankind is man, and who ere his wondrous fame doth scan,

Ponder and devise to cure an ill, Whether by device, fruit or pill, An equal benefactor is he; and we haste,

The inventor of a cathartic of delicious taste, To do him honor.

Who remembers not how the distressed mother, Her child's entreaties tries to smother, That she insist not the horrid dose be taken,

The remembrance e'en now does nausea awaken, And fond father, To be witness of his child's torture, would rather pay high price,

If money could purchase Cathartic ease. We have it now! and great DE PRATI'S name, Appears on the scroll of Esculapian fame,

For after long study what would suit, Has hit upon DELICIOUS FRUIT To cure our ill.

Away at once with draughts and pills; For whether it be indigestion, liver complaint or constipation, Or any disease to which flesh is heir, He here with pride does boldly declare, And on the assertion will wager big, That it can be cured by a HAMBURG FIG.
