

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1887.

A traveling ice cream stand is the latest summer game.

The ladies of Grace Episcopal church will give a picnic to Klaskanine on Friday, August 5th.

Cloudy weather and sultriness has been the prevailing characteristics of the weather during the week.

What's the matter with Co. "H" having an army of its own? It would be cheaper in the long run, or the short run.

Clatsop Lodge No. 113, United Order of Honor, will meet at No. One's engine house at nine o'clock this evening for the transaction of business.

The sale of seats for the "Devil's Auction" is now in progress at the New York Novelty Store. The sale closes at 6:45 to-morrow evening; first come first served.

An eight-year-old boy sustained a terrible fall from the roadway near Kearney Bros. place yesterday afternoon, striking on the rocks below and severely cutting his head and face. His injuries, though serious, are not fatal.

At Kimball's logging camp near Cathlamet last Wednesday Fred Linden, employed there, while going down the mountain side from work slipped on a rock from which he had stepped and fell thirty feet on a pile of stones, severely cutting his head. He was brought to the hospital and made as easy as possible under the circumstances.

Sometime ago Tatum & Bowen's San Francisco printing establishment burned, then H. S. Crocker & Co.'s big house was consumed, and right after that A. L. Bancroft & Co.'s great establishment was burned, and now Palmer & Key have had a terrible scorching. It does seem as though the lurid leveller ought to let up on San Francisco printers.

M. C. Crosby returned yesterday afternoon from an extended visit to Tillamook. Mr. Crosby was very favorably impressed with the natural resources of that region. On the day of his departure the last of the bodies of the four unfortunate men who were drowned from Biggs' boat off Hobsonville, was recovered. It had drifted out over the bar and was thrown up on the sand spit.

Fishing for Bluebacks.

While fishermen on the lower river have been having poor luck all the season some parties farther up have been making very good wages catching the little bluebacks and sending them to the canneries. Mr. Culper, who has been fishing a short distance below the mouth of the Willamette, has had very good success. The bluebacks are tied in bunches of six, and each bunch counts as one Chinook salmon and sells for 30 cents. In one day Mr. Culper caught 210 bluebacks—equal to thirty-five Chinooks, and worth $31.50. He also caught some small Chinooks, and on one occasion a forty-pounder, who, not being able to get its head into the mesh, rolled itself up in the net. While bunching bluebacks one day, Mr. Culper pricked his finger with the teeth of one and has been unable to do anything for a month, and his hand is still badly swollen.—Oregonian, 28.

FUNDS FOR THE STATE MILITIA.

Up to the 1st of the present month Co. "H" has been drawing $50 every month county money for its maintenance and support, in accordance with sec. 19, chap. XXXVI of the general laws of Oregon.

At the last session of the state legislature a bill was passed regarding the state militia which provides—sec. 33, article X—that to raise revenue to defray the current expense of the state militia an annual tax of one-fifth of one mill shall be levied on all state property subject to taxation.

A difference of opinion arises: it is claimed that this does away with the $50 a month heretofore appropriated, and takes the place of it as a means of support of the several companies: it is claimed that the Sumner's law does not repeal the old law on the subject, and that whatever resultant revenue there is from the one-fifth of one mill tax goes to the support of the company in addition to the monthly $50 which must continue to be paid.

Article VI of the Sumner's law says that the state shall pay the sum of $25 a month for the running expenses of each company.

The interpretation of the law will probably be something for the courts to decide: it is at present a matter of opinion. As a matter of fact, however, neither Co. "H," nor any other company in the state can get along on less than fifty dollars a month. It takes close figuring to get along on that. It is at least $50 a month—or disband.

There may be a test case of the matter. As a compromise THE ASTORIAN suggests that should the new law prove to supersede the old law, the county give $25 a month in addition to the $25 a month provided by the state, which would virtually be the same thing as at present, and would enable the company to continue in existence. It is a deservedly successful organization: it is in part honorary; can only be kept up by hard work voluntarily given by its members and those who take some interest in these matters, and it is the least the county can do to moderately assist in an effort to keep up an organization which is manifestly for common good.

The Devil's Auction.

(Baltimore Daily News.)

"The Devil's Auction," a very beautiful fairy-spectacular comedy, with a sort of Arabian-Night plot, was produced at the Holiday street theater last night, before an unusually large attendance. The production can scarcely be termed a repetition of "The Devil's Auction" seen here last season, for it has undergone changes that amount to a thorough reconstruction. Every feature of the performance is marked by a change, and the alterations constitute an immense improvement. The premiers and ballets met with great favor, and were simply grand. The contortionist is very fine. The acrobats marvellous, and the costumes gorgeous. The spectacular portion of "The Devil's Auction" is grand and is the best on the road. The play will continue at the Holiday street theater during the week, and the engagement will undoubtedly be a big success. Reserved seats at the New York Novelty Store.

A Gift for All.

Dement & Co.'s Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle Free, Large Bottles $1.

In Brief, And to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Sailors Scared at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Nine wheat-laden ships are waiting for crews. The scarcity of deep-water sailors interferes with their departure and unless an over due fleet of vessels arrives shortly, they are likely to be at anchor for a considerable length of time.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain."
