A FATAL DELUSION.
The Fancied Security and Appalling Perils of People Revealed.

The eminent scientist and author, Dr. Joseph F. Edwards of Philadelphia, relates the following wonderful experience:

"During my term as resident physician in the medical wards of the Philadelphia Hospital, it was a common occurrence for an ambulance call to be received from one of the down town station houses. Upon reaching the place designated, we would be shown a man or woman who has been found unconscious on the street and supposed to be intoxicated. He would be removed to the hospital, where he would linger unconscious for twenty-four or twenty-six hours, and then die. In a majority of these cases a post-mortem examination would reveal a most horrible state of affairs which I will explain hereafter."

"A lady in apparently good health, who rarely complained, and then only occasionally, of some slight and transient ill-feeling, as nearly every one does at some time or other, took a long walk with her husband, and upon returning home, feeling particularly well, went to her room to remove her bonnet, and while standing in front of the mirror, fell to the floor in a convulsion, followed by twenty-four hours of unconsciousness and death without a return to consciousness. A post-mortem examination revealed the true cause in a most horrible form."

"A young married man for years suffered from dyspepsia, for which he consulted many physicians. After suffering in this way, and having no other symptoms of disease, he awoke one morning to find a very slight swelling, scarcely more than a puffiness under one eye. In less than a month he was dead."

Now the real and terrible cause of all these deaths was Bright's disease of the kidneys, and they might all have been avoided had the unfortunate victims known what a horrible malady was fastened upon them. But Bright's disease has no symptoms of its own. It steals into the system like a thief, and deceives its victim by showing the symptoms of nearly every other disease.

But what can be done?

Take it in time.

If you feel unaccountably tired; if you have peculiar pressing pains; if your appetite is uncertain; if your head aches occasionally; if your sleep is irregular; if the fluids passed are profuse or scanty; do not delay, but use the best known means for escaping agony and death before it is too late. For this purpose there is a remedy, and the only one that has ever proven absolutely certain. Hunt's Kidney has never been equaled, and it is the only safe and reliable remedy known to the medical profession. There are thousands of men and women to-day who enjoy perfect health who would be in their graves had it not been for this wonderful remedy, and there are thousands of others who require it without an hour's delay. This is no idle statement, but truth drawn from cases which are beyond question.

WALK CHALK'S TWO POSTOFFICES

KITTANNING, Pa., Aug. 18.—Walk Chalk is the name of a post-office in Armstrong county. P. P. Burford, a Republican, had been postmaster there for several years, but was removed eighteen months ago and a Democrat named David Bowser was appointed in his place. A few days ago postoffice inspector Garroway was on his way to the village of Worthington and had to pass through Walk Chalk. He saw the sign "Postoffice" on a building, and passing on a short distance was surprised to see another postoffice sign on another building. He was not aware that there were two postoffices in Walk Chalk and he got out of his wagon to seek information. He went in to the building bearing the second sign. It was Burford's store.

"Is this the postoffice?" the inspector asked of a man in the store who was Burford, the proprietor.

"This is the Republican postoffice," replied Burford.

"Well, I am the postoffice inspector," said Garroway.

"Then you had better go down to the other postoffice. That is the Democratic one," replied Burford.

The inspector then told the postmaster that in keeping the sign up announcing that the postoffice was in his store he was violating the postal law, and making himself liable to punishment. Burford was advised to remove the sign and save himself trouble.

"Well, Mr. Inspector," he said, "this is my sign, and I intend to leave it where it is. Bowser will only be postmaster two years longer any how, and I'll only have to put the sign up again if I take it down. I guess we'll leave it where it is."

The inspector went on his way. In returning a couple of days later he found that Burford still had the postoffice sign up. He still refused to remove it, and said that he was taking all the letters he could get to spoil Bowser's business, and carried them to Kittanning and mailed them. The postmaster was arrested and brought before United States commissioner Coulter, who held him under bail to appear in the United States court to answer. The penalty for maintaining the false sign is $500, and for the confessed violation of law in receiving letters and carrying them it is much heavier. The sign on Burford's "Republican postoffice" at Walk Chalk was still up at last accounts.

There was a total of 5,178,000 feet of lumber shipped from Gray's Harbor during July, and of this amount Aberdeen shipped 2,147,000.

FROM THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF WESTCHESTER CO., NEW YORK

WHITE PLAINS N. Y.,
April 10, 1886.

I have received many letters in reference to my testimonial, lately published, commending ALLCOCK'S PAIN EXPELLER.

I cannot spare the time to answer them in writing, therefore would again say through the press, that I have found ALLCOCK'S PAIN EXPELLER invaluable as chest protector and shields against coughs and colds. Furthermore, I have found ALLCOCK'S PAIN EXPELLER unequalled for pains in side, back and chest.

Two sea lions were caught recently in the trap of R. S. Van Tuyle, near Ilwaco, the largest of which measured 14 feet 9 inches length, and would weigh about 2,000 pounds.

Sore Throat

Is particularly favorable to the contraction of Diphtheria. Heed the warning and use Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It at once allays the inflammation of the throat, subdues the pain and gives permanent relief. It promptly and effectually destroys all contagion and diphtheritic germs. It is a safeguard against Diphtheria, and should be used on the first symptoms of sore throat as a gargle.

TURKISH WOMEN.

Turkish women are utterly irresponsible beings in their husbands' eyes, and they are treated in most ways like little children—provided for comfortably, fed, clothed and amused, but not educated. While naturally docile and intelligent, they become shrewish through the ignorance in which they are kept. They are generous with that unthinking generosity that causes a child to give away the most expensive toy, not knowing the cost. A Turkish woman will, at any time, if the caprice seizes her, give away her fine jewels. Their hospitality is too well known to require mention. They always have coffee and sweetmeats served for any and all guests, and when they feel that the visit has lasted long enough they clap hands and the coffee brings a second cup of coffee, and that is the signal. No guest can stay longer than to drink this. Sometimes the time between drinks is decidedly short.

The women and the children do not address at night, but add a wadded night robe to the clothes they already have on and sleep thus, summer and winter. They close all the doors and windows, and sleep several in one room, and doubtless would suffer dreadfully from the confined air were it not that Turkish carpenters have never heard of the plumb line, and so windows and doors all have crevices, which supply ventilation. The tales of oriental magnificence fail to impress one who has visited the best harems, for they are one and all pictures of dirt and wanton extravagance. The only great display is the amount of rugs and jewelry. On the floors of the general room for the women, or the private suites, it is all the same—cigarette ends, candies, nutshells, necklaces, gold-embroidered slippers and sashes, and, in short, all kinds of disorder and dirt. And the women are always eating, smoking, or lolling about on the divans.—Brooklyn Magazine.

TAKE SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1838. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.

Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
