

SOME VALUABLE HINTS.

The members of a San Francisco minister's association have spared time from their multifarious duties to instruct editors in the best methods of running newspapers.

We are sorry that the members of the club are unable to approve of the press in general, but we can hardly blame them. The Rev. Mr. Smith said that the number of good newspapers from San Francisco to Boston could be counted on the hand.

Among those of the editorial fraternity who met in Yaquina to form a much needed state press association recently were the editors of the Albany Democrat and the Yaquina Post.

The song, "John Brown's body lies a moldering in the grave," is just now receiving considerable attention. The much disputed authorship appears to be a matter more of inquiry than knowledge on the part of most of the writers, from the Century down.

The Verdict Unanimous. W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bijoux, Ind. testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case."

What! Do You Think Jeff of the U. S. gives you a meal for nothing and a glass of something to drink? Not much; but he gives the best meal and more of it than any other restaurant in town. 25 cents.

Hot Cakes. The season for them is at hand; and we have just received a large consignment of New Orleans Molasses, which we will sell by the case or can at very low figures.

Telephone Lodging House. Best Beds in town. Rooms per night 50 and 25 cts., per week $1.50. New and clean. Private entrance.

Gambrian Beer. And Free Lunch at the Telephone Saloon, 5 cents.

Upper Astoria Stage Line. Orders left at Edgar's cigar store or Foard & Stokes' for the Upper Astoria stage line will receive prompt attention.

Private Rooms. At Frank Fabre's for suppers, parties, etc. The best cooked to order.

A Sunny Room. With the comforts of a home, library, etc. Apply at Holden House.

JEFF'S. United States Restaurant is the best and cheapest in Astoria.

Gotojefforoyaters. The finest and nicest steak to be had in town at Fabre's.

back to the place whence they started.

The discovery was a startling one, when it suggested that there were forces at work upon us deeper than our own will and consciousness. In some, it ministered to superstition; in some to fatalism; and some saw in it the leading of divine Providence.

One thing is certain: no man can live through the ordinary life of a generation without opportunity to see the coming in of things he thought had gone out forever. If he be hopeful, he will grasp at the lost roses swept within his reach again by the tide.
