LOST PUBLIC MEN.

What the Death of so Many Great Men Means—Are We as a Nation in Danger?

"America is losing its prominent men very fast," was the remark of a well known Englishman who is now visiting this country, and he was right. Sumner, Wilson, Phillips, Washburn, Carpenter, and a host of others have departed, and John A. Logan has just passed away. But has it never occurred to the reader that the cause of the deaths of these public men was in every case the same? And has it occurred to you that Manning, Butler, Blaine, and a host of others are treading the same road? The great American scourge, to-day, is kidney disease, and it is by no means confined to public men. Thousands of men whom we see every day are afflicted with it at this moment, and think it is simply "weakness." Little children whose kidneys have been injured by scarlet fever are suffering from it, usually unknown to their parents. Its symptoms are a tired feeling and a desire to sleep; a pale complexion; uncertain appetite; faintness at the pit of the stomach; shifting pains, sometimes in the back, sometimes in the limbs, and again in the head; plentiful or scanty urine, with the scum on top or a sediment and brickdust in the bottom; a burning sensation in passing and skin hot at times and clammy at others. Any one of these things indicate disordered kidneys, which are the first stage of Bright's disease. They must be checked.

Captain Greenwood, of the steamer Kanawha, had these troubles in an aggravated form; he used Hunt's Remedy and is in perfect health to-day. Rev. Charles Pike, of Waterbury, Conn., was greatly reduced in the same manner and was "suffering severely." He used Hunt's Remedy and was cured. Mrs. Alexander L. Nichols, of Philadelphia, Pa., after passing through all CAPT. GREENWOOD, the suffering which any woman is ever called upon to endure, was cured by Hunt's Remedy. The son of Cornelius B. Smith of the State Department at Albany, N. Y., was given up to die by no less than four physicians, but was cured by Hunt's Remedy. These instances could be prolonged indefinitely.

Two things are certain: First—Kidney troubles, which always end in Bright's disease, unless checked, are fearfully prevalent. Second—They can be cured by using the remedy above named. With these truths in view, why men and women will be so heedless and allow symptoms to run along until they end in agony or death we cannot understand. We certainly advise all to think carefully on this subject, and act without delay.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

DENVER, Aug. 30.—Republican's Santa Fe special: Two years ago Albert A. Mead came from Iowa and located mines at Good Hope, near Tres Piedras, N. M. A short time after locating the claims Mead, in company with Fred and Harvey Mead, his kinsmen, from Aledo, Ill., and Frank Reede and G. Smith, of Chicago, incorporated the property under the name of the Las Luces Milling and Mining company. A mill was erected, and the mines worked until a few months ago, when Albert Mead became dissatisfied, claiming the company was attempting to swindle him out of his share of the property. He brought suit to regain possession of the property, and went to Santa Fe to live.

On Wednesday he left Santa Fe for Meadville camp, for the purpose of securing papers he had left in the company's bunk house, and which were needed in his suit. Mead first made known his presence to Fred Mead and M. Hands, who were in Tres Piedras on Friday morning, and were returning to camp. When their team was within about fifty yards of the company's cabin, Albert stepped out from behind some brush, Winchester in hand, and ordered a halt. Albert then called Hands, and ordered him to call Harvey Mead and Joe Downing out of the cabin, saying he desired them to keep out of the cabin until he (Albert) could search for some papers and money which he had concealed therein. About this time Harvey Mead and Downing heard the commotion, and both came out of the cabin. As they appeared, Albert fired and Downing fell dead. A second shot from his Winchester killed Harvey Mead. Turning toward the wagon, Albert then opened fire on the occupants thereof, his third shot fatally wounding Hands. By this time Fred Mead had secured a six-shooter which Hands had, and attempted to fire at Albert Mead, but the weapon snapped and could not be discharged. Albert fired at Fred five times in rapid succession, and while he was thus engaged Fred Mead was running toward him. Finally the two desperadoes clinched, and a struggle ensued for the weapon of death. At last Fred Mead got the Winchester from Albert, and with it shot him through the heart.

Hands died five hours later. Albert A. Mead's body was buried face downward, and the remains of the other three were interred at Tres Piedras, the coroner's investigation resulting in the acquittal of Fred Mead.

TRULY A HOUSEHOLD REMEDY.
240 BEDFORD AV., BROOKLYN, N. Y., MAR. 12, 1884.
I have used ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER for the last twenty years. They are truly a household remedy. If one of my children has a cold and wheezes, I put an ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER on the chest and one between the shoulder blades. If any of the children have croupy coughs, or coughs of any kind, I place the Plaster close up around the throat; the soothing effect is apparent almost always in two hours. If they have a disordered stomach, a Plaster placed just below the chest bones makes digestion perfect in half a day. If there is any looseness of the bowels, accompanied by coldness of the skin, two ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS applied over the stomach cure in from two to five hours. I notice particularly that these Plasters never abrade the skin or cause the slightest irritation. From my own experience I know they never fail for rheumatism, pains in the back or lumbago.
C. MIDDLEBROOK.

There is said to be a man in Leadville, Col., who can tell by the tingling sensation in his fingers when he walks over a body of ore. He is a living mineral detector. His powers are said to have been thoroughly tested, and he has earned large sums by his peculiar gifts, but his fondness for faro keeps him poor.

The Queerest Rebellion on Record.

An attempt to stretch the powers of government in any country, where the principles of liberty are understood, is always followed by queer results. The Canadian government has undertaken to give the Canadian Pacific a monopoly of the transcontinental traffic. This means that it will not allow any parallel or cross lines to be constructed that will interfere with it. Under this pledge to attempt to construct a railroad becomes an act of rebellion. It is in this condition that the people of Manitoba find themselves now. They want to build a cross line to the American frontier, which would give a second outlet, or more properly speaking, two American outlets for their products. But the Canadian authorities refuse to permit them to do so. There has been some talk of military force. It would be impossible to conceive a more ridiculous spectacle than the appearance on the scene of soldiers to kill people who may engage in building the modern highway, known as a railroad. It would be impossible to imagine a more utterly indefensible exercise of authority. The London papers were quick enough to see the absurd phase of the question, and threw cold water on the more irrepressible of the Canadian politicians. The indications are that legal finesse is all that remains for the coercion of the Manitobians, and that that will fail of its object.

Homestead Entries.
A general principle of long standing and considerable importance in the administration of public land matters is reaffirmed by acting-secretary Muldrow, in his ruling in the case of the James Young homestead entry, Salt Lake City. Its purport is that no amount of cultivating improvement, and no showing of good faith in other respects, can atone for lack of actual residence upon land sought to be secured, and that even actual residence does not give validity to a claim except so far as it shows an intention to make such residence permanent beyond the acquirement of title. Young had cultivated fifty acres of his claim, constructed irrigating ditches, and built a house in which he personally lived. His improvements were valued at from $1,000 to $1,200. His family remained on a place owned by him a half mile distant, and it was in evidence that he designed to abandon his claim as a place of residence as soon as he had made his title secure. Contest was made by one Van Nostrum, a professional contestant, who proposed gaining some preference rights and selling them out. The local officers and commissioners decided for Young, and against Van Nostrum, and the acting secretary orders a modification of this decision. He says while Van Nostrum cannot acquire any rights in the matter, the government is not stopped from action upon information it has gained, and he directs cancellation of Young's claim.

Sore or Inflamed Eyes Speedily Cured
By the use of Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It allays the inflammation and irritation and is peculiarly efficacious by reason of its power in cleansing and destroying all poisonous matter. Chafing, bruises, humors, eruptions, boils and sores, and those more serious and tenacious maladies, Scald Head, Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, are speedily cured by the Fluid.

One clear ringing thought given to the world is a nucleus around which similar thoughts must gather.

A Meteor In Spokane's Streets.

SPokane Falls, W. T., Aug. 30.—To-night about 10:30 o'clock, while the sky was overcast with heavy clouds and a light rain was falling, a meteor was seen by a number of persons to shoot from the heavens directly overhead. It struck the electric light wires on the south side of Main street, between Howard and Mill streets, in the very heart of the city, cutting one of the wires in two and bursting into a thousand fragments. Those who saw the strange phenomenon say that when it struck the ball of fire looked to be ten feet in diameter. An effort has been made to-night to find some of the pieces, but as the street is covered with mud and water the search has been fruitless.

Safer and Better than Calomel!
I have been subject to severe spells of Constipation of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel, which generally laid me up for three or four days.
