Commodore Vanderbilt's Superintendent.

One of the greatest railroad executives in this country of great men in that department of human industry is C. M. Bissell, superintendent of the Harlem railroad. He rose from the rear rank, as it were, having begun in the most menial station.

It was thought when he became a full-fledged passenger con-ductor that the highest peak of ambition had been scaled, but there was no keeping him in a subordinate place. One night Vanderbilt, Commodore owned the road, came down from Saratoga, and conductor Bissell had him in charge from Albany to New York. The distance is 150 miles. Bissell kept a sharp eye on his duty, and the despotic commodore sat silent. Not a word did he address to that trainmaster during their journey. Just as the special train hauled into New York the old man asked:

"How long have you been on this road?" "About twelve years," was the

"Come to my office to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock."

Bissell didn't know what he had done to offend his employer, but being a plucky man he whistled away his apprehensions and at the appointed hour ap-peared in the dread presence.

"Ha! humph?" grunted the commodore, "you're here, hey? Come out in the yard." Bisself followed the ogre, quite unable to guess what was in the wind. "How much does that rail weigh?" abruptly inquired the commodore. Bissell (who was one of the best informed employes in the service) made satisfactory answer to that and other questions re lating to the minutiae of railroad construction.

Still without the slightest relaxation of his stern features the old man blurted out: "How would you like to be superintendent of the Harlem rail-

"First rate," said Bissell. "Well, by-! you are super-intendent," was the commodore's vigorous and characteristic termination of the interview. The reason Why Ack Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

J. W. Conn.

The man who claims to be the tallest person in America keeps a saloon in Buffalo. His name is Henry Alexander Cooper. He was born on the English coast between York and Scarborough in 1860, and is 8 feet 2 inches in STOVES, TINWARE ILVACO Steam Navigation height. His hand is 13 inches and his foot 17 inches long. He is

Don't Trifle with any Throat or Lung Disease. If you have a Cough or Cold, or the children are threatened with Croup or Whoop-ing Cough, use Acker's English Rem-edy and prevent further trouble. It is a positive cure, and we guarantee it. Price 10 and 50 cents. J. W. Conn.

Here is an item found in the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun: George Washington sent Martha Washington to Jeuneyman's brewery for a pail of beer last night. When she reached Fourth street, near E, she met Abraham Lincoln, and in a quarrel between them Lincoln fractured her skull with a brick. The police carried Mrs. Washington to the hospital.

Old And reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all Impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofu-lous, Syphilitic or Mercurial Diseases it is invaluable. For Rheumatism. has no equal.
