TILLAMOOK NOTES.

GARIBALDI, Sept. 6th.

Kinney has his cannery in operation on the Nehalem river, and is putting up fish, but not many. They are running light there as well as here.

We had some rain here three or four days ago, but not enough to bring any quantity of fish. Everybody seems to think that if we could have about three days of heavy rain salmon would come more plentiful.

The fishermen on Nehalem struck for the same as Tillamook bay fishermen were receiving and got it. They were receiving the same prices as here less transportation from Nehalem to the canneries here, which was nine cents per fish.

Salmon are running pretty slack yet. Some nights Elmore's boats yet. Some nights Elmore's boats average fifteen to eighteen fish HUNT'S REMED and some nights the average drops to eight or ten fish. The Elhave about as many on hand, now ready for shipment. The other cannery sent out by the Field last week, 1,000 cases and they have 600 or 700 cases on hand, ready for the next boat.

For scrofulous disorders, and mercurial diseases, the best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"I love with a deep and undying affection," he sighed. "Can I hope that that affection is returned?" "Why cert'n'y," responded the matter-of-fact- young lady, "I have no particular use for it."—Buffalo Courier.

Mr. Popinjay- Woman's curios ty amuses me. Mrs. Popinjay-Aha, by the way, what's that stain on your hand? Mr. Popinjay-Paint. I was coming Blobson's fence, and just touched my finger to it to see if it was dry .- Burlington Free Press.

"Will you please insert this obituary notice?" asked an old gentleman of an editor; "I make bold to ask it because the deceased had a great many friends about here who'd be glad to hear of his death." - Philadelphia Call.
