

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1887

The Alaska salmon pack is now set down at 200,000 cases.

Astoria has a torchlight procession every night, some nights.

Astor Lodge No. 6, K. of P., floats a fine new flag just received from the east.

A gold badge, with the letters "A. O. F. B." on it, awaits owner at this office.

The Occident Packing Co. will hold its annual meeting on the 4th of next month.

A beer saloon keeper in Boston has the very appropriate name of Philip A. Gahn. They all do it.

A large assortment of gold and silver-handled silk umbrellas just received at C. H. Cooper's.

The Astoria railroad subsidy appears to be three times as large as the Portland hotel subsidy, so far.

Springer Bros.' cloaks for ladies, misses and children have arrived and are on exhibition at C. H. Cooper's.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Cook took place from Capt. Whitcomb's residence at two o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Favorite was on the beach yesterday at Arndt & Ferchen's, and is on the route again, tighter and trimmer than ever.

"Bats" and "chestnut" are susceptible. If a man now tells you an ancient joke, tell him it is a church bell. It has been tolled before.

The remains of the unfortunate ensign Mosely, who was drowned near Oysterville last Sunday, go to California on the Columbia to-day.

The Scandinavian Benevolent Society is financially prosperous. The next contemplated move is to buy a lot and erect a suitable building.

Carl Adlar is clearing out his stock and packing some of it in boxes for his new store in Baker City, to which place he intends removing next month.

The seal of the Columbia Waterway association is a plain circlet, with the date 1885, and the legend in the center, "For an open river." So say we all of us.

The Gen. Canby came up from Ilwaco at 8:30 last evening with the families of Messrs. Markham and Wheeler, who are going east, and 186 sacks oysters.

The hall of Temple Lodge, No. 7, F. and A. M., has received considerable renovation inside and out, the lodge room, especially, being handsomely refurnished and decorated.

Winnie Osborne, who was born in this city March 11th, 1871, died of consumption at the residence of S. P. Farrens, six miles east of Salem, on the 11th inst., and was buried next day.

The railroad subsidy list of subscriptions foots up $94,000, and there is enough promised to make it an even $100,000 by the close of the week. Now for the other $50,000 to send it up to high water mark!

Two notables are in New York, heading for Astoria. One is a gentleman from India, named Sir Javajjee Jimjamjee Sembidjee Thakore; the other is the lady that wrote "Curfew shall not ring to-night."

The new steamer Tonquin came in from Tillamook last Wednesday evening, with 600 cases salmon for Elmore, Sanborn & Co. She leaves this morning with a load of cans. She is in every way satisfactory to her owners.

Senator Stanford, Col. Fred Crocker and Supt. A. N. Towne will be given a reception by the Portland board of trade to-morrow evening. On Sunday they leave, overland, for San Francisco. C. P. Huntington will be up here in November.

Pile driving for foundations for brick buildings goes on. Three brick buildings are now in process of construction, with plans drafted for two more. Besides this, a number of frame structures, mostly private residences, have been built this summer.

The infant son of Chas. H. and Mary Bohr died last evening, aged twenty days. On the 9th the mother died, and in this double calamity the bereaved husband and father has the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

According to law, when the receipts of a postoffice exceed $10,000 a year the people who obtain their mail at that office are entitled to free delivery of their letters and papers. With the natural growth of the place Astoria may expect to be soon entitled to such convenience.

Reports from the stranded Queen of the Bay, at the mouth of the Nehalem are to the effect that she has broken in two and is a total loss. Captain Grounolds is still there saving the rigging and as much of the timbers and iron work as is possible. It is a severe loss to the captain as, it is understood that the vessel was uninsured.

N. W. Ayer & Son's American newspaper annual for '87 is received. It is an encyclopaedia of newspaper information, giving the name, politics, circulation, age, etc., of every newspaper in North America, the population of all cities, towns, villages, states and an immense condensation of valuable statistics. It costs $3 and is worth ten times that amount.

Says a New York dispatch of the 21st: "Canned salmon continues firm. There is very little Columbia river fish here; and, indeed, it is hard to get it at any price. Alaska fish are coming in freely, but nearly all receipts are shipped east, having been sold weeks ago. There is no spot stock of salmon worth talking about, though there is a little Sacramento fish, but it is held at extreme figures."

By the terms of the new insurance law it is required that all foreign insurance companies doing business in the state shall obtain a certificate to transact such business from the secretary of state. While a greater part of the companies have complied with the law, a few yet remain who have not applied for certificates. It is expected they will do so before October 1, or they will be subject to heavy penalty or incapacitated from doing business.

PERSONAL MENTION.

F. H. Suprenant is acting coroner. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, is in the city.

Mrs. D. Morgan, Jr. returned yesterday from Portland.

W. B. Ross is the district deputy for Seaside Lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W. Mm. Spedden returned yesterday after an extended absence at Pataha, W. T.

Geo. McLean and family, and J. C. Ross and family, go on the Columbia to-day to Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Burchard, president of the Boston & Albany railroad, is in the city, visiting his brother.

Councilman Bergman returned on the Telephone yesterday. While up the river he bought a large band of cattle.

Judge Matthew P. Deady came up from a pleasant sojourn at the Seaside yesterday, and returns to Portland this morning.

Mrs. A. C. Kinney, Mrs. L. Kinney, J. C. Ross and wife, A. J. Megler, Jno. Wood, A. E. King, S. P. Marsh, H. Delaney, were among the passengers on the Telephone yesterday.

Capt. Geo. Hunter, author of that interesting work, "Reminiscences of an Old Timer," is in the city on his return from a successful business tour through eastern Oregon and Washington.

They Felt Satisfied.

"How is your railroad project coming on?" asked Judge Truitt, yesterday afternoon, of the writer. "Will soon have $100,000, and anticipate little difficulty in getting the remaining $50,000," was the answer. "The terms are very fair," said the judge. "Up in Polk county, where we raised the subsidy, we had to give our individual notes, payable in gold, and accepted at the bank." "Well," we asked him, "did you feel satisfied when the railroad did come?" "Yes," was the ready answer, "we did, and one and all felt that we were repaid for our contributions ten times over." Judge Truitt, who leaves for home this morning, evinces his interest in the matter by putting his name on the list.

Profitable Business for Astoria. Good authority states that the volume of business directly tributary to Astoria in connection with the fall pack, is about half that represented by the spring and summer pack: Astoria is the headquarters of the salmon business as far as supplies are concerned, and when there is a salmon exchange here in which all the business connected with the manufacture and sale is transacted, even more of the money will remain to aid in building up the city.

Specials to Readers of "The Astorian."

PORTLAND, Sept. 22.—C. P. Huntington, the California railway magnate, has written to parties in this city that he intends visiting Portland as soon as the junction of the two roads in southern Oregon is completed. This, he expects, will be an accomplished fact sometime during the month of November.

A DYNAMITE BOMB. CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—A policeman found a gas pipe bomb at the Cottage Grove avenue car barn at one o'clock this morning. It was ten inches long and inclosed in an ordinary sized starch box and had a clock work attachment for exploding. No clue can be learned as to who left the bomb in the barn.

A STEAMSHIP DISASTER. LONDON, Sept. 22.—The British steamer Romeo, Capt. Williams, from New Orleans August 30th for Bone, grounded at Villegruier and capsized. The vessel is submerged at high tide and is dangerous to navigation. An engineer and firemen were drowned and five of her crew and passengers are missing.

A SHORT PRIVATE VISIT. LONDON, Sept. 22.—Michael Davitt sailed from Queenstown to-day for New York. He said his visit to America is of a private nature and will be short.

THE GROUNDS FOR APPEAL. NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Gen. Prier, counsel for the condemned anarchist, says the appeal to be made to the United States supreme court will attack the constitutionality of the Illinois law regarding the construction of the jury. The Illinois conspiracy statutes will not enter into the question.

PURCHASE OF BONDS. WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The acting secretary of the treasury to-day bought bonds amounting to $674,700, of which $480,000 were four per cents, and $194,700, four and a half per cents.

Three million more bonds were purchased after 3 o'clock.

THE SHOT OF WAR. LONDON, Sept. 22.—A troop of Hussars, a detachment of artillery and a large force of police have arrived at Mitchellstown. Magistrate Eaton has issued a proclamation prohibiting the holding of any public meeting during the sitting of the police court and stating that any meeting held in violation of this prohibition will be forcibly dispersed. Copies of this proclamation have been served on John Dillon, M. P., and Thos. P. Condon, M. P., both of whom are now in Mitchellstown. Dillon has declared his willingness to address a public meeting and to repeat O'Brien's conduct in spite of the government. A public meeting is being arranged to bear addresses from Dillon and Condon. A conflict is feared if the nationalists persist in carrying out their intentions.

AN UNTIMELY DEATH. PORTLAND, Sept. 22.—Intelligence has been received that J. C. S. Richardson, a well known young lawyer, who distinguished himself last year during the session of the grand jury of the Knights of Pythias as an orator, is lying very sick, at Prineville, of typhoid fever. A private dispatch received this afternoon says that Richardson is dead. His untimely death is greatly regretted. The remains will, no doubt, be brought to this city. Deceased was scarcely 30 years of age, and was a native of Washington city, where his parents now reside.

Have the following to say of Wisdom's Robotine, the great beautifier and preserver of the complexion: To Mr. W. M. Wisdom—Dear Sir—I have tried your Robotine. It is excellent, and I shall be pleased to recommend it to all my lady friends. Believe me, yours truly, RHEA.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1885. To Mr. W. M. Wisdom—"The Robotine you so kindly sent me is excellent. It is the finest preparation I have ever used, and is a decided acquisition to every lady's toilet. Yours truly, JEANIE WINSTON.

PORTLAND, Or., April 6, 1887. Dear Mr. Wisdom—I have tried your "Robotine," and it gives me much pleasure to say that it is excellent for the complexion, being one of the best articles of the kind I have ever used. Believe me, yours sincerely, Z. THERRELL.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

TAYLOR, F. J., J. September 22.

Wallski Railway Co. vs. B. Van Dusen, et al.: demurrer overruled; until Saturday to file an answer.

A. W. Gates and W. L. McCabe excused for term.

N. S. Swansen vs. A. Van Dusen & Co. Ordered that a special venire issue for nine additional jurors to appear forthwith.

Grand jury came into court: reported two not true bills.

State vs. Andrew Green and Irem Burk: ordered discharged: bonds exonerated.

The case of Swansen vs. Van Dusen occupied the attention of the court after dinner, the only incident occurring to enliven the tedium of a dull afternoon being the refusal of Mrs. Larsen, one of the witnesses, to answer a question. Continued refusal resulted in an order committing Mrs. Larsen to jail for such refusal. When partly on her way witness indicated a willingness to answer and was permitted to do so. Case went to the jury at 4 p. m. Verdict for defendant.

Adjourned till 9:30 A. M. to-day.

Some People Call It Fate.

It is strange how man's destiny is sometimes affected by circumstances. Take, for instance, the case of senator Stanford, the millionaire of California, who is to be given a reception at Portland to-morrow night, and who could buy the county of Multnomah at its valuation of $20,000,000, and not feel it. Many years ago he wanted to start a paper at Ft. Washington, in the state of New York. He had the newspaper fever as badly as possible, but at that time could not buy an outfit west of Philadelphia, and finally gave up the idea, went to the land of gold and grew up with the country. Had he been able to get the material readily without paying so much freight, he might now be one of the pioneer editors of the state (if he could have stood it so long), and go around with the boys every year when they have their excursions.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

If Your Watch Gets Wet. A watchmaker, to whom a watch that had been dropped overboard on a fishing excursion was taken, found that some of the works were so badly rusted that they were useless. "If," said he, "you had dropped your watch in oil as soon as you took it out of the water, or better yet, had dropped it into alcohol or any kind of strong liquor, it would have cost you nothing but the cleaning."

A Sound Legal Opinion. E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex. says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malaria Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stand unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at W. E. Dement & Co's.
