

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1887.

Alert H. & L., No. One, need a new truck. The Yaquina Mail, and the Corvallis Gazette have suspended.

The three canneries on the Siuslaw have packed 2,500 cases to date. The deep sea fishing sloop Venture arrived in yesterday with a large load of fish.

O. R. & N. managers are talking of sending the Olympian and Alaskan to the Sound. With commendable enterprise The Dalles Times-Mountaineer is issuing a daily edition.

C. W. Watts, of Albany, has the contract for printing 500,000 tickets for the November election. The Manzanita sailed yesterday noon with lighthouse supplies for Shoalwater bay and the Sound.

Mrs. W. J. Barry's fine stock of millinery has arrived and will be open for inspection to-morrow. Ex-Gov. St. John, of Kansas, the celebrated prohibition leader, is expected in this state next month.

H. Bundy & Son's steam saw mill near Harrisburg burned to the ground last Friday morning; loss, $12,000; insured for $6,000. The grand jury inspected St. Mary's hospital and the county building yesterday, and adjourned their deliberations till to-morrow.

In the Baptist church the subject of the morning sermon will be, "Laying up treasures in heaven;" in the evening, "Religion a business." The young ladies W. C. T. U. social at Rescue Hall last Friday evening was a very pleasant gathering. The receipts of the evening were $23.

In Portland the Oregon dairy commissioner has arrested A. Ferrara, Wm. Dunbar and Wadhams & Elliott, charged with selling adulterated butter. The first fall foreign clearance was made at the custom house yesterday afternoon—the British bark River Indus, for Dublin, with 17,275 bbls. flour, worth $62,190.

The three-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Marsh died last Friday night. The funeral will be at the parents' residence at half-past one o'clock this afternoon. A Vancouver speculator who contracted with the government to deliver 300 tons of hay at $14.25 a ton is getting it from eastern Oregon at a cost of $18.50 a ton. And yet he is not happy.

Venison, pumpkins, shad, squash, shrimps, clams, oysters, grouse, ducks and other good things to eat, not forgetting the crawfish, are dropping in as cantaloups, watermelons and berries drop out. The largest comet that has appeared in many years is said to be visible in the northern sky. Its outline is somewhat dim, but it is perfectly plain to the naked eye, if there are no clouds in the way.

At the Methodist church to-day, at 11 A. M., subject, "Government;" at 7:30 P. M., subject, "The question stated." This is the first of a series of Sunday evening talks on the question of "Future Punishment." Col. Jno. Hunter is meeting with extraordinary though deserved success in disposing of his book. He intends leaving for the east about the 15th of next month, on a lecturing tour and is a whole immigration society in himself. Those who have not yet read his graphic account of old-time days should not fail to see a copy of his work.

The wedding cards of Mr. and Mrs. William Butler Adair have been received at this office. The marriage took place on Tuesday, the 20th inst., at St. Andrew's church, Victoria, B. C., Rev. Mr. Frazer officiating. The bride is Mary Louise, oldest daughter of Henri Jorand, Esq., of Rolle, Switzerland. Mr. Adair is the youngest son of Gen. Jno. Adair, of this city. THE ASTORIAN extends its heartiest congratulations.

On account of the departure of Mr. Adair for Portland in answer to a telegram of importance, there will be no auction sale at the Crystal Palace on Monday. On Tuesday will continue at 2 o'clock. Mr. Worsley will continue the slaughter. Solid gold and silver watches and a thousand other useful articles must be given away or sold.

FROM EUROPE AND THE EAST.

Specials to Readers of "The Astorian." PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 24.—Solemn and impressive ceremonies were held to-day over the remains of the late J. C. S. Richardson, by the Knights of Pythias. The body started east to-day on the train bound for Washington.

It is understood that the name of the unfortunate man who fell from the train yesterday near The Dalles while en route to this city and was instantly killed, was David Coop. The deceased was aged 25 years, and was a laborer. Senator Leland Stanford and party were tendered a reception to-night in this city under the auspices of the Portland board of trade. Donald Macleay was president, and Hon. Geo. H. Williams delivered the address of welcome. The reception was largely attended.

A DETERMINED WOMAN. CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Parsons, the wife of the condemned anarchist, Parsons, was arraigned before justice Lyon this morning for refusing to comply with the police officers' warning to desist from violating the city ordinance against distributing incendiary circulars on the streets. The policeman testified that even on the way to the station she continued the obnoxious work. In the court Mrs. Parsons assumed the air of a martyr. She claimed that the ordinance was a dead letter. "I hope," she said, pleading to the justice, "that you will remember where my husband is, and deal with me as you would like your own wife to be dealt with under similar circumstances."

THE QUARANTINED STEAMER. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—J. T. Kille, the general agent of the Italian steamship line, said this morning that he had given orders last night for three days' provisions to be sent to Hoffman and Swinburn Islands, where the passengers of the Alessia, which brought cholera to this country, are being kept. He was of the opinion that the passengers would have to be quarantined for eight or ten days, and that after that time there need be no fear of further infection. He said the passengers' baggage would have to be very thoroughly fumigated as considerable danger would have to be feared from that source.

AN ARIZONA BOW. PRESCOTT, A. T., Sept. 24.—Under sheriff Waddell has received word from the Tonto Basin that a fight occurred there on the 18th, in which Thomas Graham, Joseph Ellingwood and a man named Middleton were killed, on Graham's side; and George Newton and James Tewksberry, on the Tewksberry side. The Graham party was ambushed near Tewksberry's house and found Tewksberry on guard. When the Graham party was discovered both parties commenced firing. John Tewksberry, who was ambushed and killed was found ten days later. Sheriff Mulvenon, three days after the fight, reported that Lewis Parker, of the Graham party, was missing.

GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F. DENVER, Colo., 24.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., concluded their work this morning and at 12 o'clock adjourned sine die. Grand sire White and Lieut. Gen. Underwood, with a party of friends, will this evening start for a pleasure trip through California, a number of others will go on an excursion through Colorado, while others will return direct to their homes.

AND STILL IT ACCUMULATES. THE ASTORIAN'S published list of the subscribers to the railroad subsidy fund, aggregating $102,850, was a pleasant surprise to many yesterday morning. In addition to the amount, those who have the lists report partially as to yesterday's subscriptions as follows:

Sam'l Elmore 1,000 A A Cleveland 50 John Hobson 1,000 P A Stokes 50 C N Wright 500 N Griffin 25 A F Fisher 200 Sherman & Ward 50 W G Ross 250 E C Jeffers 50 W H Wren 250 W L Larson 25 Drs Fulton 250 W A Sherman 25 H Speltmeier 150 L G Haaven 25 Mrs W W Berry 125 B W Ward 25 A L Fulton 100 S B Crow 25 C G Fulton 100 H A Smith 20 J E Higgins 100 O Hellborn 10 Warren Est. 10 Peter Jordan 5 B S Worsley 100

Here we have $4,670 more, making the total as far as procurable to date, $107,520. Keep it going. There are many to hear from yet.

A Delicate Insinuation.—The fees used to be $15 for sending an insane person to the asylum. Now the fees amount to but $5 and the number sent from this county grows beautifully less.—Portland News, 24.

How to Weigh Yourself.—"The perfectly healthy and active man," says John E. Burton, and Wisconsin iron capitalist, "should weigh 24 1/2 pounds to every inch of his height. This rule will test a man 99 times in every 100."

ITEMS FROM ILWACO. ILWACO, Sept. 24, 1887. In regard to the Gray's harbor trap cutting business, it is learned that sixteen indictments for arrest have been issued and eleven men locked up. One man was shot in the mouth, the ball passing out at the back of the neck; he will probably recover and be arrested as soon as he is able to be about. The other four will soon be arrested. Chehalis county is determined to prosecute to the full extent of the law. Nearly all the trappers whose nets were cut belong here, are married and good, upright American citizens and taxpayers.

It is reported that the O. R. & N. Co. have purchased the Farmers' wharf here and will extend it to deeper water. That twenty-six cottages will be built on the weather beach by July 1st, 1888. Building lots to the total value of $5,000 were sold there this season; the purchasers were mostly Oregonians.

The Ilwaco hotel has closed for the season. Mose Freeland of the Central hotel continues to fatten the traveling public and will fight it out in his line all winter.

The knight of the ledger of the A. P. Co., is looking for a mother-in-law. Nobody appeared to take much interest in the election announced for the 8-mile tax for the benefit of our school district, therefore no votes were cast.

CORRESPONDENT. Card of Thanks.—To the kind ladies and others who tended to my motherless boy and did all possible under the circumstances I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks and can assure them that their kindness will never be forgotten. CHAS. H. ROHR.

Three Favorites.—Have the following to say of Wisdom's Robertine, the great beautifier and preserver of the complexion: PORTLAND, Or., June 4, 1887. To Mr. W. M. Wisdom—Dear Sir—I have tried your Robertine. It is excellent, and I shall be pleased to recommend it to all my lady friends. Believe me, yours truly, REKA.

Dear Mr. Wisdom—I have tried your "Robertine," and it gives me much pleasure to say that it is excellent for the complexion, being one of the best articles of the kind I have ever used. Believe me, yours sincerely, Z. TERRELL.

Ten cents for a cup of Fabre's nice coffee. Try Fabre's celebrated pan roast. He Consulted His Pocket.—You smoke good cigars, Billy; where do you get them? At D. L. Beck & Sons', of course. Why of course? Because my pocket advises me to. Do they sell cheap? Yes; the cheapest place in town. What kind of an assortment have they? All kinds, from the cheapest to the best, both of domestic and imported, and much the largest stock in town. Do they keep Tansill's Punch? L. Beck & Sons'.

ONE ELEMENT OF SUCCESS.

The Importance of Making Collections Promptly.

The chief part of success in business lies in the collection of bills, and while there are men who are born collectors, as men are born orators, writers, etc., yet a very few rules, religiously observed, will, in my judgment, place the matter of collections on a proper basis for any business. First, have your bills out on time. No matter what may interfere, if it is your practice to collect monthly, have your bills out and ready to distribute the first, and not the second or third, but the first, and not only on that date, but early in the morning. Make your calls, do not be importunate nor "hanging on," but walk in, hand out your bill as a matter of course, and as if it were a matter of course it would be promptly paid. Make no apology, the bill is due, the goods delivered or the work done, and the amount due is justly and fairly yours. If any of the items are disputed and there is any reasonable doubt, make your memorandum and note to see that the bill is right, and I having satisfied yourself of that, return and make your explanations. When a man says, "I will look it up," ask when you shall call again, and if he sets a day mark that down, and be certain to be there on that day. If Thursday, don't go Friday, but Thursday. Be polite, and never get angry. By being on time with your bill, by calling on the day set, by being mildly but firmly persistent, the question of collections becomes one that can be readily handled, and that is the main feature of a successful business.—Stroller.

Give Them a Chance! That is to say, your lungs. Also your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from the lungs. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them, that is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

A Policy of Aggravation.—The English treatment of the Irish question suggests the conduct of a man who has a slight ache in a tooth and tries to cure it with a toothpick. In a short time he is looking for a dentist.—Mail and Express.
