AYER'S PILLS Sugar-Coated Cathartic
If the Liver becomes torpid, if the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health.—W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else, to my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and do their work thoroughly. I have used them, with good effect, in cases of Rheumatism and Dyspepsia.—G. F. Miller, Attleborough, Mass.

Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not be without them.—Morris Gates, Downsville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor.—John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in The Bowels.
By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured.—Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored.—Theodore Esling, Richmond, Va. ††

BILL NYE ON "EQUAL RIGHTS."

The Spirit of the Declaration of Independence Not Understood.

It is wrong to consider the variety of equality contemplated by the Declaration of Independence as likely in any way to be mistaken for a kind of communism of brains. We can safely say that the time will never come when the men with vast aggregations of brains will have to divide up with those who simply have an opening for brains. That kind of communism would be a mighty good thing, however, for the people who claim that political equality is a chestnut.

If the man who dreads the day when equality is a settled fact could work it some way to have brains divided up equally and could be around when the division is made, he would be ahead.

But the equality referred to in the Declaration is not that kind. It is the kind that does not chisel out a poor man's vitals in the matter of wages and then compel him to buy everything he needs of his employer at a big price. It is the kind that protects the toiler who appeals to the law as promptly and efficiently as it does the swollen, stiff-necked imitation lord, with his hired brains and his bogus crest.

Equality in America ought to mean that the bravest, ablest and best men should rule the state and nation. Then the United States senate will not look like a mass meeting of plumcers.

When equality is better understood and becomes something besides an empty name, the term "political pull" will lose its significance, and the average voter will not even need a political pull to operate an election day cigar.

There has never been a better banner to fight under since the world began than that of freedom and equality before the law, and the banner that has this device written on it in a plain, running hand, will generally be found at the head of the procession.

The man who is born in America finds, as soon as he does so, that he has in his inside pocket a small package of inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. If he happens to be born into our set he uses these inalienable rights with perfect impunity, swapping about among some of his more unfortunate companions until he also has their inalienable rights. He then proceeds to make a nuisance of himself.

Universal equality before the law has not been asserting itself very much lately, but the man who treads on the tail of its coat is liable not to get home in time for lunch, and when he does get home the chances are that he will bring a lobe of his liver with him in his pocket handkerchief.

There is a little contemptible fear lurking about in the breast of a few one-horse Americans that some one may spring suddenly upon them and charge them some day with being the equal of somebody.

Their fear is entirely groundless. They can go to bed every night feeling perfectly secure in the comforting consciousness that they will wake up in the morning free from any such charge, and no man will ever go to them and insist on an equal division of brains with them unless he is a man whose brains are so abnormally large that they actually pain him.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

"To what do you attribute the curative properties of your springs?" asked a visitor at a health resort. "Well," answered the proprietor thoughtfully, "I guess the advertising I've done has had something to do with it."

Azalia vs. Cow Creek.

Shades of "Joe" Lane, "Joe" Meek, and all the other pioneers defend us! Here comes along an advertising pamphlet, issued by the Southern Pacific Railway Co., called "Shasta," and on one of its pages, representing a topographical map of Oregon, we find, winding through the canyons of Douglas county, the "Azalia river." Upon close inspection, we find this "river" with the æsthetic name to be none other than that stream the name of which is dear to all Oregonians: Cow creek.—World.

C. B. Wright, ex-president and now director of the Northern Pacific railroad, is the patron saint of Tacoma. Recently a Seattleite, on a visit to Tacoma, entered a saloon and called for drinks for the crowd. They were duly furnished and absorbed, and the new-comer slapped down on the bar the hardest specimen of a counterfeit in existence. Lead would have been a precious metal in comparison with its material, and the work of a Northern Indian on a totem pole skillful beside the die-stamp it bore. "Can't take that thing," said the bar-keeper; "a Columbia river salmon woutdn't bite at it." "Well, you ought to," replied the stranger; "I know they won't take it in Seattle, but I thought they would over here, See here," turning the coin over, "here's C. B. Wright's name stamped on it." And sure enough it was—with a chisel and mallet. The bar-keeper wilted and "set 'em up."

A Useful Precaution.
It is a useful precaution for the tourist, the commercial traveler, or the emigrant to the West, to take along Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Invalids who travel by steamboat or rail should provide themselves with it, in order to prevent or remedy the nausea which the jarring and vibration of vehicles in transitu often causes them. Vastly preferable is it for this simple, but needful purpose, to the heady unmedicated stimulants of commerce. On board ship it not only remedies seasickness, but neutralizes the pernicious effects of water slightly brackish, which, if unqualified, is apt to give rise to irregularities of the bowels, cramps in the abdominal region, and dyspepsia. To the aerial poison of malaria it is an efficient antidote. Sick headache, heartburn and wind upon the stomach are promptly banished by it. It healthfully stimulates the kidneys and bladder, and nullifies the early symptoms of rheumatism.

Thomas Van Pelt, of Chetco, has bought the Smith River fishery and canning establishment at Smith river.

Chronic Looseness of the Bowels.
Results from imperfect digestion. The cause lies in the torpidity of the liver. A regular habit of body can be secured by taking Simmons Liver Regulator to aid digestion, to stimulate the dull and sluggish liver, and rid the system of excessive and poisonous bile. The Regulator corrects acidity of the stomach, cures dyspepsia and insures regularity of the bowels alike free from laxity or costiveness.

The two Chicago boodlers who are in the county jail are getting poetic justice. They declare that there is sewer gas in their cells, but the warden says that if they had attended to their duties, instead of plundering Cook county, the jail would be in a proper condition, and refuse to remove them.

Can't Sleep Nights, is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at 10c., 50c.

"Lemmy, you're a pig!" said a father to his son, who was five years old. "Now, do you know what a pig is?" "Yes, sir. A pig is a hog's little boy."

Ayer's Pills are an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels. This medicine should be kept in every family.

The man who is always claiming that heaven is his home is always the last one to go home.

Salt-rheum is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.

How's Your Liver?
In the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.
NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

The How and Why of It.

Having been a number of years (prior to coming in the Astoria trade), in charge of the Departments, (in same lines I am now engaged), of two of the largest Retail Cash Businesses in California, (one doing a business at the time, of over $600,000 annually, the other having 5 houses in the state, for which I did the purchasing, which placed me in a position to obtain a first-class experience, and study the workings of a
STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS,
And see wherein it is as much interest to the Customer, as to the Merchant, when conducted upon honest principles, which I have done and shall continue to do in my business, as I have no fear of the consequences. I have made no accounts in my retail business, except in two or three instances, then where I was in debt to the parties for work done, or goods purchased at the time, and also intended to allow parties that I knew to take an article home on approbation, to see if it would fit, and when they had not the money with them, they to return the articles or the money; but, whereas, this was abused in two or three instances, (no charge being made, only memoranda), I was soon compelled (against my wishes in the matter), to make the same rules as were used in the firms before mentioned: No Goods to leave the House without being Paid for, or Collected when Delivered, the goods to be exchanged or money refunded if everything was not satisfactory; to which none have a right to take exception when there is no favor shown to anyone, and all for the interest of my customers as well as for myself. Therefore I will repeat my rules in this adv't, that is:

I sell all Goods in my Lines as Low as they can be Legitimately Sold, (notwithstanding what any other house may do).

In Retailing Goods I Sell every Article at One Price to everyone alike, and Strictly for Cash. And No Goods to Leave the House Without being Paid for, or C. O. D.

It is well to give this style of business a trial and you will find it is of big interest to you as many others have in this city, and frankly acknowledge the same, while purchasing their
