They Kissed and Made Up.

Week before last, says the World, David Shannon, of Beaver creek, Clackamas county, died, and the lady editor of the Oregon City Courier buried his brother, John Shannon. On Monday John went to the Courier office and ordered his copy of the paper discontinued. When asked why, he said that he was dead, and referred to the article in the Courier. The lady editor explained matters and gently laid the blame on a new compositor who was not acquainted with names and dates. The dead man and the lady editor kissed and made up and the paper is still going. There is nothing like covering grave matters.

The fishermen are making immense hauls now-a-days, single boats getting as high as 2,500 pounds of fish per pay. The canneries pay four cents per pound.—Mist.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling what S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stouter than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial.
