The First Sign

Of failing health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., D. D. S., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians, and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored.—Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 383 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Notes From Tillamook.

GARIBALDI, Tillamook Co., Oct. 7.
S. Elmore, who has been at Astoria for the past two weeks, returned to-day via Portland.

The steamer Garfield makes daily trips between Tillamook and here, weather permitting.

It has come to pass. We are the terminus of the Yamhill route and get the mail three times a week. The people are jubilant.

We have been expecting two steam schooners from San Francisco for lumber, but they failed to put in an appearance. The cargoes are ready for them.

James Squires who was arrested for shooting a fisherman on his tide land, waived examination and was released on $1,000 bail, to appear at the next July term of court.

We were favored to-day with a call from congressman Binger Hermann. He was enthusiastically received by the citizens of Garibaldi. He visited Nehalem for the purpose of looking at the harbor, as well as Tillamook harbor, and seemed favorably impressed with both.

The weather has been stormy here the past few days, shipping is quiet, and salmon are plenty. The run has increased wonderfully the last four or five days. The boats on Tillamook bay are averaging 40 to the boat, and on the Nehalem they are discounting us.—Oregonian, 11.

FISHING MATTERS.

Yaquna Post, Oct. 8.
The run at Nestucca is said to be splendid—never better.

Parker & Co.'s cannery secured 600 salmon Sunday night.

The Silets is full of salmon and the Indians are having a high old time.

Mr. Smith caught over 100 salmon in his net at one haul Tuesday night.

Fishermen get 1 1/2 cents per pound for all the salmon they catch, at the canneries.

The traps are not doing much. In fact, we hear that they have shut down for the present.

Since the visit of the fish commissioners and the rainfall, salmon have been running quite lively.

The best reports come from Alsea bay, and the canneries are full handed as far as fish were concerned.

Since the rain set in salmon have been plentiful, and hundreds have been caught nightly, and the canneries are booming.

Terrible Are the Ravages
Upon the system inflicted by diseases of the kidneys and bladder. They wreck the constitution (more speedily in some cases than consumption and other maladies of that fatal pulmonary type. As you value your life, arrest a tendency to debility, and consequent inactivity of the renal organs, should you experience any such. Infuse vigor and activity into the vitally important secretive action of the kidneys with that salutary diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The proper degree of stimulation is imparted by it to the bladder also, when that organ is sluggish. With this timely check, Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh of the bladder, and other kindred disorders, may be prevented. Liver complaint, constipation, nervous ailments and rheumatism, are likewise curable with this sovereign household remedy. Against the effects of exposure in damp or otherwise insalubrious weather, it is a benign safeguard, and revives strength after undue fatigue.

Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty golden minutes. No reward is offered, for they are gone forever.—Horace Mann.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, when she was a Child she cried for Castoria, when she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, when she had Children, she gave them Castoria

Many a man thinks it's virtue that keeps him from turning rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful and not mistake potatoes for principles.

Do not allow the accumulation of Scurf or Dandruff, when it can be easily prevented by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

A word of praise never hurts a manly man or womanly woman.—Michigan Christian Advocate.

When your blood is impoverished the remedy is at hand. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Brother Gardner on Prohibition.

Brother Gardner waited a long minute to allow Givadam Jones, to get over the effects of swallowing a horn button to ease his liver complaint, and for Elder Toots to get through upsetting the water pail into the shoes of several leading orators, and then began:

"It has been axed if dis Lime-Kiln club proposes to support de new prohibishun party, an' if we am gwine to jine de citizens' movement formed to put down de liquor traffic. Gem'len, de pollyticks of dis club will be divided between de strict pollytical parties. Prohibishun, for or agin' will not enter into our discussuns, I should just as soon think of jinin' a party to compel all men to become Methodists as one which proposes to compel all men to become temperate. I hate de sight of whisky. I keep 'lar of saloons. A drunken man is an object of disgust. A sartin per cent. of our populashun am bound to have strong drink, an' dey will have it at any cost of money or principle. Dis am a kentry in which all incouragement am held out for men to lib sober, honest lives. It's agin law, self-interest and common decency to be a drunkard. De man who persists in gettin' drunk knows all dis, an' de fact dat he persists in it am evidence 'nuff dat he am't wuth de powder to save him. De man who has manhood in him needs no savin'. He saves hisself.

"Heaps o' tears am bein' shed ober dis or dat unfortunate, as folks calls 'em an' dey am bein' coaxed, advised, flattered an' eben bribed into leadin' sober lives. Don't you suppose dat every man who drinks knows what whisky lead to? If it am weakness on his part, he will stay sober only as long as somebody holds him up. If it am because he has no moral standard, den de sooner he drinks hisself into de grave de better for de rest of us.

"If sartin citizens want to band together to fight de saloon bizness, let 'em band. No man who likes beer or whisky will drink one drop de less, while some may drink de more. Dar am not a boy in our city to day, ten years of age, who can lib fully realize de evils of drink. He knows dat it will rob a man of his character—dat it brings poverty and degradation—dat it ma'es sickness, rage, a graver in a potter's field. On de oder hand he realizes just as forcibly dat sobriety means happiness, respectability, friendship, an' more or less wealth. Let him choose. If he prefers de gutter, dat's his own lookout, an' I am perfectly willin' to let him go his way.

"I tell you, my frien's, de man who can lib plumb up an' down becase dat am de lawful and moral way—who can't lib a moral life without a law to force him—who can't be a good naylor an' a square citizen out of his natural moral natur', can't die too soon. I have no tears to shed over him: I have no words to wase on him. He rolls into de gutter becase dat is his level. He goes dar uv his own choice. When anybody tries to make believe dat it am my duty to interfere wid him, he states a case I can't accept. Let us now proceed."—Detroit Free Press.

Small-Pox.
"A member of my family was taken down with the Small-pox. I immediately commenced to use Darbys Proprietary Fluid. It kept the atmosphere of de room pure and fresh. The patient was greatly relieved, and never for a moment delirious; was not pitted, and was about de house again in three weeks, and no others had it."—JAMES PARKINSON, Ed. "The Caterer," Philadelphia.

TAKE SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.

Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, it will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. L. M. HINTON, M. D., Washington, Ark.
