

The Daily Astorian.
ASTORIA, OREGON:
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1887.
Special council meeting to-night.

FROM EUROPE AND THE EAST.
Specials to Readers of "The Astorian."
LONDON, Oct. 28.—The News this morning says that unless Lord Salisbury wishes the fisheries negotiations between England and the United States to be hopelessly doomed from the outset he must cancel the appointment of Sir Joseph Chamberlain and select another commissioner. DENIES THE ALLEGATION.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Cornelius Vanderbilt authorizes a denial of the statement that he has or ever had any interest whatever in Mitkiewicz's Chinese National bank scheme, and any use of his name in that connection has been without his knowledge or authority.

THE EMPERORS TO MEET.
LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Telegraph's correspondent says he has learned on indisputable authority that the czar will return from Copenhagen to St. Petersburg via Berlin, where he will have a private interview with emperor William. A dispatch to the Times makes the same statement.
AUSTIN, TEX., Oct. 28.—J. E. Smith, the express messenger who recently killed two train robbers near El Paso, was paid $2,000 yesterday by order of governor Ross, as a reward for his act.

RIGHTLY REWARDED.
AUSTIN, TEX., Oct. 28.—J. E. Smith, the express messenger who recently killed two train robbers near El Paso, was paid $2,000 yesterday by order of governor Ross, as a reward for his act.
THE POPE DISSATISFIED.
ROME, Oct. 28.—The pope is disappointed at the failure of Mgr. Persico's mission to Ireland. Mgr. Persico obtained only a vague declaration, which will be useless in furthering the pope's desire to pave the way for a renewal of diplomatic relations with England.

OF BANGUISARY HUE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—U. S. district attorney Carey to-day received a telegram from the sheriff of Mendocino county informing him that he was gathering a posse to capture Capt. Shaw whom Gen. Howard has sent in command of U. S. troops to eject sheep herders and others from the round valley Indian reservation in this state. The telegram states that the state court had issued a writ of injunction ordering Capt. Shaw to desist from removing trespassers from the reservation. District attorney Carey advised Gen. Howard to order Capt. Shaw to surrender to the sheriff which Gen. Howard declined to do without an order from the president or secretary of war, whereupon Carey sent a dispatch to the attorney general at Washington in which he received the above facts and added "if the sheriff persists and Gen. Howard continues to refuse following my advice it will probably result in bloodshed."

PORTLAND NOTES.
PORTLAND, Oct. 28.—This morning the jury in the case of Jas. Poole vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., in which plaintiff sued for twenty-five hundred dollars for being ejected from one of the defendants trains bearing a sealed verdict into Judge Shattuck's court giving plaintiff $225 damages.
This morning C. H. Richards, late bookkeeper with H. P. Gregory & Co., was indicted for embezzlement of $450 and brought into department No. 2 of the circuit court, and plead J. M. Gearin, Esq., appeared for accused and asked till Monday for his client to plead, stating that some arrangement to settle the matter might be arrived at before that time.

A Mixed Case.
In the justice court yesterday and the day before was a case wherein one Malstrom, a resident of Kliekikat sued J. Stevenson. It appears that last July the plaintiff sold the defendant a dapple-gray mare for $100. The mare was a superior animal: fleet as a bird and joyous as the dawn; but on arriving at Kliekikat Malstrom sent Stevenson a horse, gray in color, but not the kind of steed Stevenson expected. The point at issue is did Stevenson accept the horse? This is what Justice Cleveland will decide at ten o'clock this morning.
Will Inaugurate a Boom.
Hay of the best quality is selling in the Nehalem valley, within forty miles of Portland, for about ten dollars per ton. In Portland it is worth from twenty to twenty-two dollars. A railroad through that country would be a great benefit to producers and consumers. If the Forest Grove and Astoria road is ever built it will inaugurate a boom in the Nehalem valley which will engulf the wildest dream of the oldest inhabitant. —Mist.

Worthy of Thought.
Certain persons of narrow judgment profess to believe that the Oregonian, in opposing the prohibition amendment, has reversed the record it has made as an advocate of morality. On the contrary the Oregonian has never throughout its whole career made a fight more clearly and entirely in the interests of morality than on this occasion. Its contention is against a policy that would introduce corruption into our political and social life; would create a swarm of spies, informers, sneaks and hypocrites; would weaken personal independence and responsibility by proclaiming the doctrine that man is to depend on the law for guidance of his personal conduct and not upon his own judgment; would familiarize men with law-breaking and lead them to condone it; would put our local officials and perhaps our higher officers in the pay of the liquor seller; would give corrupt and unscrupulous politicians innumerable advantages for combination with an interest in having money enough to pay for protection and powerful enough to render a political equivalent for it. If there could be a deeper immorality than these results of such a policy it is not conceivable; if there could be a higher morality than opposition to such a policy, no one has yet defined it. —Oregonian.

Is Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was downy with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."
Jesse Middleway, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at W. E. Dement & Co.'s Drug Store.

The Light Running "Domestic" It Stands at the Head—It Leads! Others Follow!

The first and only Sewing Machine furnished with perfect and practical attachments. Its great merits and increasing popularity has induced imitations, and in its wake its competitors, and some new ones, are trying to follow—their eyes fixed on the Light Running "Domestic," the bright star that leads them all! Though imitated in appearance, it is by no means equal in merit, and, as ever, still "Stands at the Head." Twenty years of most anxious competition has proven the Light Running "Domestic" Sewing Machine to be far superior to any other. The Light Running "Domestic" satisfies the most critical. It is the standard of excellence and has no equal.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.
A Scaly, Itching Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.
If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago I would have saved me $2000 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a coin. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand doctors would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but too rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was a hopeless, scarring, irremediable, etc. I took and... Sarsaparilla over one year and a half, but no cure. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of it was three boxes of CUTICURA, and three bottles of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (Itching and Scaly Skin Diseases), "How to Cure Skin Diseases", but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my face and neck several times a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer. DEMENT'S DOWNING. Waterbury, Vt. Jan. 20th, 1887.

Catarrhal Dangers.
To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise, refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase innocently from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.
SANTO'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple local cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never failing.

A Menace to Peace and Dignity.
To abandon the mouth of the Columbia river, one of the most important rivers in the United States, where such fine natural opportunities for fortifications are at hand, is in the light of public policy, a menace to peace and dignity, and the greatest of follies, and it does not seem possible that any one could be guilty of such a stupid blunder. —Pacific Journal.
