The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—G. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING
three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. H.

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

WHAT BECAME OF PATAGONIA.

There used to be a place called Patagonia. It appears on our geographical maps now as "a drear and uninhabitable waste, upon which herds of wild horses and cattle graze, that are hunted for their flesh by a few bands of savage Indians of immense stature." I am quoting from a school book published in 1886, and in common use in this country. The same geography gives similar information about "the Argentine Confederation." It makes the Argentines roar with rage to call their country "the Argentine confederation." It would be just as polite and proper to call this the "Confederate States of America." A bitter, bloody war was fought to wipe that name off the map, but our publishers still insist upon keeping it there. It is not a confederation, it is a Nation, with a big "N," like ours—one and inseparable, united we stand, divided we fall, and all that sort of thing—the Argentine Republic. To call it anything else is an insult to the patriots who fought to make it so, and a reflection upon our own intelligence.

Several years ago Patagonia was divided between Chili and the Argentine Republic, the ministers from the United States to those two countries doing the carving. The summits of the Cordilleras were fixed as the boundary lines. Chili took the Strait of Magellan and the strip along the Pacific coast between the mountains and sea, and the Argentine Republic the pampas, the archipelago of Terra del Fuego being divided between them. Since the partition ranchmen have been pushing southward with great rapidity, and now the vast territory is practically occupied. There are no more wild cattle or horses there than in Kansas, and the dreary, uninhabited wastes of Patagonia have gone into oblivion with the "Great American Desert." The remnant of a vast tribe of aborigines still occupies the interior, but the Indian question of the Argentine Republic was solved in a summary way. There was considerable annoyance on the frontier from bands of roaming savages, who used to come north in the winter time, steal cattle, rob and ravish, and the outposts of civilization were not safe. Gen. Roca, the Sheridan of the River Plate, was sent with a brigade of cavalry to the frontier to prevent this sort of thing. East and west across the territory runs the Rio Negro, a swift, turbid stream like the Missouri, with high banks. Fifty miles or so from the mountains the river makes a turn in its course, and leaves a narrow pathway through which everything that enters or leaves Patagonia by land must go. Across this pass of fifty Gen. Roca dug a ditch twelve feet deep and fifteen feet wide. The Indians, to the number of several thousand, were north when the work was done, raiding the settlements. As spring came they turned to go southward as usual, in a long caravan with their stolen horses and cattle. Roca galloped around their rear, driving them night and day before him. When they reached the ditch they became bewildered, for they could not cross it, and after a few days of slaughter, the remnant that survived surrendered, and were distributed through the army as soldiers, while the women were sent into a semi-slavery among the ranchmen they had robbed. The dead animals and men were buried together in the ditch, and there has been no further annoyance from Indians on the frontier.

The few that remain seldom come northward, but remain around Punta Arenas, the only settlement in the strait, hunting the ostrich and other wild game, trading the skins for whisky, and making themselves as wretched as possible. The robes they wear are made of the skins of the guanaco, a species of the llama, and the breasts of young ostriches. There is nothing prettier than an ostrich robe, but each one represents the slaughter of from sixteen to twenty young birds, and they are getting rare and expensive as the birds are becoming exterminated, as our buffaloes have been.—William E. Curtis in Harper's Magazine for November.

Death of Rev. J. H. Wilbur.

This well known pioneer minister died at 2 P. M. yesterday at Walla Walla, W. T., where he had made his home since his retirement from the charge of the Yakima Indian agency about four years ago. Mr. Wilbur came to this coast in 1848, under appointment as "missionary to Oregon." His first work on this coast was at Salem, where he had charge of the "Oregon Institute," since Willamette University. He established the Methodist church in this city, building the old Taylor street church and the "Female Seminary," after which he took charge of the Umpqua district, where he remained four years, and was afterward presiding elder of the Upper Willamette district. For 24 years he was in charge of the Yakima Indian agency, since which time he served the church as general educational and church extension agent in the Columbia river conference. In every department of his work he proved himself a man of rare executive force, and has left an unsullied reputation, an enduring usefulness, as a legacy to his church and the country he loved so well.

Only a few weeks ago his wife, with whom he had lived fifty-six years, died and was buried in Lee Mission cemetery, near Salem, where his remains will also be deposited. His body will be brought to this city and memorial services will be held in Taylor street church on Sunday at 11 o'clock, and his remains will then be conveyed to Salem, where services will also be had at 10 A. M. on Monday. Addresses will be delivered here by Rev. H. K. Hines, D. D., and by Rev. I. D. Driver, and perhaps by others.

No man in his profession and work on the coast will be more missed than "Father Wilbur." Oregonian, 27.

Hiddeens in Every Guise.
Whether it be the best known form, chills and fever, or else bilious remittent, double ague or acute malarial, is that abominable disorder involving the liver, the bowels and the kidneys, known as malaria. Every complaint situated under this genre, though erroneous application, is destructive of the nervous system, but is, unhappily, not to be subdued, or even checked, by the use of ordinary remedies, (relatives or tonics). There is, however, a most reliable and ultimate cure to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, formulated among the proprietary remedies of America, and widely known in other lands. Not only does it cure malaria, but rheumatic complaints, accompanied by exposure in bad weather, inherited or incurred debility of the kidneys or bladder, dyspepsia and an irregular condition of the bowels, are curable—may, even be cured by this deservedly esteemed and professionally sanctioned corrective.

Preparations to close in on the Crofs are about completed. Two troops will be sent to Fort Custer from Fort Missoula, making eighteen in all. The authorities evidently intend to overawe the Indians, so as to make a fight unnecessary. All the young Cheyennes have joined sword-bearer's gang.

Doctors' Bills.
Nearly all diseases originate from infection of the liver, and especially the case with chills and fever, intermittent fevers and malarial diseases. To save Doctors' bills and ward off diseases take Simmons Liver Regulator, a medicine that increases in popularity each year and has become the most popular and best endorsed medicine in the market for the cure of liver and bowel diseases.—TELEGRAPH, Dubuque, Iowa.

"Do unto others as you imagine they would do unto you under the same circumstances," is a sort of brass rule more in use than the golden article.

Ayer's Pills are an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels. This medicine should be kept in every family.

Man reaps what he sows, but woman often reaps what she sows.

Salt-rheum is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.

The man who is anxious to get his name into the newspapers can easily do so by not paying his taxes, and waiting.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
THE BEST SALVE IN THE WORLD for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by W. E. Dement.

FAULTLESS FAMILY MEDICINE

"I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only Family Medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system, and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness. I often recommend it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."
—Rev. James M. Rollins, "Pastor M. E. Church, So. Fairfield, Va."

TIME AND DOCTORS' BILLS SAVED by always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house.
"I have found Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine I ever used for anything that may happen, have used it in Indigestion, Colic, Diarrhoea, Biliousness, and found it to relieve immediately. After eating a hearty supper, if on going to bed, I take about a teaspoonful, I never feel the effects of the supper eaten."
—"OVID G. SPARKS, "Ex-Mayor Macon, Ga."

Goods Delivered in Any Part of the City Free of Charge.

THE HOW OF IT.

About every 4 or 5 days I am receiving direct from the manufacturers new goods in the following lines, which are sold to me at the lowest inside figures on the same terms as all such goods are sold to merchants. That is, regular time according to the lines, some are 30, some 60, some 90 days, and mostly all 4 months, and at times of longer periods, subject to the discounts if paid any time between time of purchase and the time the bills become due. Goods now days are mostly sold direct by manufacturers, quantity cuts no figure whatever, and the merchants who MEET THEIR BILLS PROMPTLY, and IN FULL WHEN DUE, are the ones who can put forth any claims as to being one of the most or only reliable business houses in any city, (providing all other things are equal). And whereas the patronage of an appreciative public (with my style of doing business) has enabled me to discount a great deal of my bills since starting (June 1, 1887), and meeting EVERY bill promptly when due up to the present date, I can safely and truly say that I buy and sell my goods as low as they are legitimately bought and sold on the Pacific Coast, which lines of goods comprises

Men's Clothing, Boys' Clothing,
Men's and Boys' Overshirts,
