

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1887. A PROHIBITION STATE.

Iowa is a prohibition state. Prohibition (with a big P) flourishes in Iowa. So the prohibitionists say. Prohibition prohibits in Iowa. Of course; the prohibitionists say it does, so it must.

But here are the figures from the internal revenue receipts of the United States last year:

IOWA. Tax upon distilled spirits, $2,138,656.28; upon fermented liquors, $196,698.52; penalties, $10,517.01; upon tobacco, $202,409.81; total, $2,547,281.62.

For a state where prohibition is a success, there seems to be a heap of whisky paying taxes in Iowa. These figures are official, are exact; they represent what has been received for there is no rubbing them out.

Let us all vote for free whisky and the amendment, and then prohibition will be a "success" in Oregon—the same kind of a success it is in Iowa.

THE ASTORIAN opposes prohibition because in its judgment prohibition is not American; it is an impossible theory, a business mistake. Duty and today are ours; results and futurity belong to God. It is the duty of an American citizen to resent attacks on his personal liberty; to oppose infringement of his personal rights. If justice or inability to see results affect his judgment, it is unfortunate; but every man can only act from a sincere conviction, and whether for or against, it is a fair presumption that what he does is in accordance with his honest belief.

Are you in favor of the prohibition amendment? If not, please give your reasons for opposing it. The above question asked Judge Matthew P. Deady, was answered by him as follows: "I am not in favor of prohibition, because I know from experience and in the nature of things that prohibition is incapable of reasonable or practical enforcement. Prohibition will put the liquor business into the hands of the worst and most irresponsible elements in the community and thereby magnify the evils growing out of the use and sale of liquor. I want to see the sale of liquor governed by a good license law which will put it and keep it in the hands of comparatively respectable people who will not make it an engine of corruption and crime. Besides, I don't believe the state has the moral right to say whether the individual should drink or not so long as he does not use liquor to excess. Nor do I think I ought to be compelled to wear a straight jacket because my neighbor is out of his head, nor to be limited or restrained in my diet because my neighbor is afflicted with drunkenness."

The strong rooted sensibility in women is the cause of their characteristic persistency in all matters that depend in any considerable degree on sentiment. It is in vain to combat sentiment with reasons. A woman with strong passions and fine sensibility will hold by her instincts, and leave your arguments to float, and in so doing may, in some cases, be right; but if the case is in one in which cool judgment and not keen feeling is to decide she will probably be wrong. Arguments in such cases are stronger with a man, because he is naturally less richly furnished with sentiment or has trained himself to keep his sentiment in subjection; but with the woman it is omnipotent, as belonging radically to the constitution of her nature.

FAULTLESS FAMILY MEDICINE

"I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only Family Medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system, and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness. I often recommend it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."

TIME AND DOCTORS' BILLS SAVED BY ALWAYS KEEPING SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR IN THE HOUSE.

"I have found Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine I ever used for anything that may happen, having used it in Indigestion, Colic, Diarrhea, Biliousness, and found it to relieve immediately. After eating a hearty supper, if on going to bed, I take about a teaspoonful, I never feel the effects of the supper eaten."
