

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1887.

GENTLY, brethren, gently. The end of the world doesn't come to-day.

WHAT Astoria needs is less strife and more harmony. Prohibition prohibits harmony and sets everybody watching everybody else.

ARE your taxes high enough in this city? If not, if you want to pay more to keep things going, vote for prohibition. The expenses won't stop even though nearly half the present revenue goes. But the liquor'll be drank all the same.

THE time for argument is past. Every one is "so" one way or the other, and seven columns for or against prohibition wouldn't change any one. In this case, however, there is no danger of a hung jury. There will be a verdict by six o'clock.

THERE will be elections to-day in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New York, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. Next to our own little dispute the most interest centers in the New York contest.

ALL the foreign officers present at the autumn maneuvers of the French army received decorations, except the English and Germans. There was about one bushel of crosses and ribbons given out, and the United States officers present came in for their share.

In a fight with hostile Crow Indians, near the Little Horn river, Montana, agency, last Saturday, three United States troops were killed. Sword-bearer, the chief, was among the Indians killed. The rest will fat up at the agency now that cold weather is coming on, and be in trim for the annual fall fight next year.

Two things alone have surprised us in this little discussion that ends to-day—men whom we know who have assured us that they were going to vote for prohibition, and men whom we know who have assured us that they were going to vote against it. It's a mixed mess and illustrates the different effect of different arguments on different minds.

Six dynamite bombs were found in the cells of the condemned Chicago anarchists last Sunday. Petitions for pardon are being sent by the bushel to Gov. Oglesby. Should he stand firm and allow justice to outweigh maudlin sympathy, the seven will hang next Friday. But he will probably commute the sentence of three of them.

THE fire department is mighty handy in case of a fire. It cost $6,236.81 to run it last year. If you want prohibition worse than fire protection vote for prohibition, and should your house burn up or down for want of proper facilities you can cuss the city for not having the fire department in proper trim. Water on a fire is free, but it costs like sixty to run a fire department.

It is easy to pull down. Any one can destroy. A match in the hand of a child could burn Westminster Abbey. But once destroyed 'tis slow and expensive building again. American liberty; freedom and the rights of man, have cost considerable blood and treasure. If you prefer surrendering your conscience to other's keeping, if you really believe our government is founded on a mistake, why vote for prohibition. A man has a right to be wrong if he wants to—but he shouldn't abuse the privilege.

MAKE the saloons pay their share, at least, of the expense of running the city. Why should those of us who have homes and property pay more taxes piled on top of those we pay now, and let liquor go free? Business is business. The theory part of prohibition is fine. But when it comes to actual practice; when you have to go down in your pocket and dig up nearly all you have saved to pay for running the city, and yet see that the liquor is drank anyhow, maybe you won't be so strongly in favor of voting for prohibition. This is the lesson taught by communities that try earnestly to enforce it, but wish they were fairly rid of it.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

PATTERSONVILLE, La., Nov. 7.—The trouble between the whites and negroes culminated in a bloody riot. A crowd of negroes were ordered to disperse by a band of regulators and refused, when the regulators opened fire, whereupon several negroes were killed.

HAS PLENTY NOTORIETY. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Louis Lingg, one of the seven condemned anarchists, was defiant and sullen this morning. Every few moments he would jerk his head around and stare through the grated door with a wild look. His favorite attitude was to stand firmly erect, fold his arms over his broad chest and gaze out, bristling and ferocious.

None of the anarchists were let out of the cells, and jailor Foltz says they will not be. Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Eagle and Mrs. Parsons came to see their husbands, but the best they could do was to call out "good morning," and send up papers. No packages were allowed to go in. Nina Van Zandt was there. "Good morning," she called out to Spies. "Good morning," he returned, and that was the end of the dialogue between them. She wrote a note which the jailer read and sent to Spies. All mail and telegrams are torn open and read. All private communications with friends are stopped and will continue to be until the day of execution.

THE GOVERNOR'S MAIL. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—The governor's mail this morning was composed of over one hundred letters related to the anarchists' case. This is an increase over any previous day. The requests for clemency are greater than yesterday. Chicago furnishes the bulk of the mail on this subject, and a considerable number of letters are marked "personal," or "confidential."

STRONG DYNAMITE. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Sheriff Matson has no doubt as to the nature of the stuff found in Lingg's bombs. The filling was taken out and exploded and found to be the strongest kind of dynamite. The amnesty people have their tablets on the streets again but there seems less disposition on the part of the people to sign than on Saturday and but few names were secured. It is reported that the police discovered eleven dynamite bombs secreted in the house of an anarchist near the gas works on West Division street. The police were looking up the case all day yesterday and have kept the discovery very quiet.

A FINE HOUSE DESTROYED. MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—The partially completed Mortimer apartment house at Nicollet avenue and Thirteenth street with three residences adjoining were burned to-day. The Mortimer would have been the largest and most expensive apartment house outside of New York City. The loss is one hundred thousand dollars, with ninety thousand dollars insurance.

SIR JOS. AMONG US. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Steamer Eturia on which Sir Jos. Chamberlain, member of parliament and fish commissioner was passenger, arrived this morning.

SENTENCED TO DEATH. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Eighteen young army officers have been sentenced to various terms of exile in Siberia on charges connected with the revolutionary plot against the government.

JOHN L. ON DECK. LONDON, Nov. 7.—John L. Sullivan has notified Mitchell he will meet him to-morrow and make a match to fight provided Mitchell brings the forfeit of money with him.
