The Bustle is Doomed.

This is an ungrateful world. Were it not so, the intelligence that the bustle is dying a natural death would be received with ringing of bells and firing of cannon. Volumes have been written deriding this absurd fashion, and now that it is really going the way of all fashions, not a word is said to express the satirist's pleasure. On the whole, satire couldn't be expected to rejoice at anything, but it might be glad that so threadbare a subject was at last to be laid to rest. The passing of the bustle involves another change more welcome than its own demise. This is the high hat, the towering, obstructive millinery of the last two years. There will be no sudden collapse, but note, if you please, how the best dressed women are lowering their crests to conform to the more graceful tournure. The hat balanced the bustle. The bustle gone, the hat shuts down, and then, alas! theater-goers must seek another annoyance to rave about.

Penn Johnson was driving through Taylor county, Fla., the other day, when a big rattlesnake came suddenly into the road just ahead of the horse. The horse tried to dodge around the snake and the snake tried to get away from the horse, and the result was that the rattler became tangled in a front wheel of the buggy. The horse, by this time thoroughly scared, ran, and the revolution of the wheel threw the snake into the bugger. Johnson thereupon quit the vehicle in a remarkably rapid manner, he doesn't know how, and the horse went on like the wind. By cutting across the country Johnson overtook the horse after a run of two miles. He looked carefully, but there was no snake in the buggy.

Darby's Prophylactic Fluid.
Use it in every sick room. Will keep the atmosphere pure and wholesome; removing all bad odors from any source. Will destroy all Disease Germs, infection from all Fevers, and all Contagious Diseases.
The eminent physician, J. Marston Sims, M. D., New York, says: "I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is a most valuable disinfectant."

The English army consists nominally of 211,474 officers and men, but it is said that only one army corps can actually be put in the field, and that only by frantic makeshifts. Of the 71,810 officers and men stationed in England, it is alleged that 15,000 are boys under nineteen, and that 10,000 more are under twenty.

At Peace.
A stomach in revolt is an obdurate rebel. Corrected with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, its dissensions with the food introduced into it in unwary moments of appetite ceases. Then it is at peace. Then dyspepsia abandons its grip. Then such fractious manifestations as heartburn, a sinking sensation in the pit of the abdomen, between meals and unnatural fullness afterwards, flatulence, acid gaspings, biliousness, &c., cease to afflict the sufferer. After a course of the national tonic and alterative, the liver and bowels, always more or less disordered during a prolonged attack of indigestion, resume their functions and become regular. Thus, not only dyspepsia, but its concomitants, constipation and biliousness, are conquered by the medicine, which remedies their fruitful cause, weakness of the organs of digestion. The epigastric nerve, cellular tissue, in short, every organ that bears a part in the digestive processes acquires vigor and regularity from the benign invigorant.

Wise old Simon Cameron says: "My son Don has many advantages, but I had one in early life that was worth them all—poverty." He told the truth. A chicken that never had to scratch makes a poor hen.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a child she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

THE HOW OF IT.

About every 4 or 5 days I am receiving direct from the manufacturers new goods in the following lines, which are sold to me at the lowest inside figures on the same terms as all such goods are sold to merchants. That is, regular time according to the lines, some are 30, some 60, some 90 days, and mostly all 4 months, and at times of longer periods, subject to the discounts if paid any time between time of purchase and the time the bills become due. Goods now days are mostly sold direct by manufacturers, quantity cuts no figure whatever, and the merchants who MEET THEIR BILLS PROMPTLY, and IN FULL WHEN DUE, are the ones who can put forth any claims as to being one of the most or only reliable business houses in any city, (providing all other things are equal). And whereas the patronage of an appreciative public (with my style of doing business) has enabled me to discount a great deal of my bills since starting (June 1, 1887), and meeting EVERY bill promptly when due up to the present date, I can safely and truly say that I buy and sell my goods as low as they are legitimately bought and sold on the Pacific Coast, which lines of goods comprises
