The Gen. Miles will leave for Gray's harbor this morning after the arrival of the Portland boat.

The A. B. Fields is at Nestucca. The pack at Hobsonville for the season is in every way satisfactory.

The Old Kensington and Lady Lawrence went to sea yesterday. The pilot schooner Gov. Moody also crossed out.

The Old Kensington, which sailed yesterday morning, cleared just before: her cargo, for Hull, was 94,596 bus. wheat, worth $62,883.

It is said that a new organization is forming in this city which meets with unanimous domestic approval. The password for the current term is "Be home early knights."

Jas. Smith, where are you? Mary Smith has died in Boston, and left you $20,000. Write to public administrator Tyndall, of that city, and tell him to send you a ticket and $150 for expenses en route.

J. W. Hume arrived yesterday from the Coquille, and 30 men, the remainder of his fall fishing force there. The pack on the Coquille for the season was about 13,000 cases, of which his cannery packed 8,400.

Up at Murray, Idaho, the other day, Judge Buck ordered a jury to be fed on bread, meat and water until they could decide on a verdict. The foreman sent in word that the bread and meat were correct, but the water the jury thought was an unwarranted punishment.

There is a reduction in the telegraphic tariff to San Francisco and other points. A ten word message from Astoria to San Francisco now costs fifty cents, and three cents for every additional word; to southern California points, sixty cents, and four cents for each additional word. There is a corresponding reduction to other Pacific coast points.

Sometime ago there came on the Rosie Olsen from Tillamook 1,132 boxes of apples. Some hitch between the producers and the Portland purchaser resulted in two or three attachments being levied on the pomological cargo upon its arrival here, and resulted in the sale of the entire lot yesterday at public auction by constable Beasley. Mr. Lienenweber bought them at 50 cents a box.

At the regular meeting of Seaside Lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: P. M., N. Jones; M. W., M. Johns; foreman, Thos. Pye; overseer, A. Johnson; financier, S. T. McKean; receiver, John Bryce; recorder, W. E. Johnson; guide, S. Freeman; I. W., E. P. Shepard; O. W., S. H. Willet; trustee, J. A. Montgomery; medical examiner, Dr. Jay Tuttle.

Referring to the intended carriage of through mail between here and Portland by the night boat, which would prove of great convenience to the public, it transpires that postmaster Bell has written to the post-office inspector at Portland, and in response, chief clerk Henry writes to postmaster Bell to the effect that the O. R. & N. Co. has promised to send a guarantee that they will perform service on the night boat without extra expense to the department, and as soon as that guarantee was received and endorsed by the general superintendent, he will order the service, so that as soon as that is done we will get our mail considerably ahead of the present schedule.

A man who has been up and down to and from San Francisco as many times as he has fingers and toes, and been seasick each time except the last, explains the exception as follows: "I took a rubber bag with me, some twelve inches long and four inches wide, with an iron clamp to close the mouth of the bag, and filled it with small pieces of ice every morning (the steward brought me the ice in a bowl), and applied it on the spine at the base of the brain, down between my shoulders, for say half to three-quarters of an hour; or rather I lay on it, pressing it against the spine. It had a most soothing effect, so that frequently I fell asleep while under it, and afterward felt braced up for the day, enjoying every hour and every meal."

ALL ALONG THE COAST.

Yesterday's Happenings Sent Over The Wires.

PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—A telegram from Lafayette this afternoon states that the prisoners confined in the jail there had made their escape last night. They were Frank Hamilton, a burglar; Jack Cooper, a sheep thief, and William Hess, the fellow who furnished the press with the alleged confession made to him by the strangled murderer, R. A. Marple, recently executed at Lafayette.

FIRE AT LOS ANGELES.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—At half-past 12 this morning (Saturday) N. A. Cavarrubias's large stable on Los Angeles street took fire from some unkown cause and soon burned. Ninety valuable horses were burned to death. Two small buildings adjoining were also consumed. The loss is very heavy.

UN TREMOLO.

MENDOCINO, Cal., Dec. 3.—This town was violently shaken by two earthquakes this morning, the first at 10:55, of about ten seconds' duration; the second twenty-five minutes later, short and sharp.

A COLLISION.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—An accident occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad to-day, near Mojave. Two freight trains collided, and the large and fine engine No. 23 was thrown from the track and badly wrecked. The box cars were more or less damaged.

L. M. STARR'S WILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The estate of Lewis M. Starr, deceased, has been appraised at $466,341.32. The trustees have received permission from the court to expend the sum of $33,000 to fulfill the terms of the contract made by the deceased during his life time to purchase the Paucien block in Seattle. The purchase price is $58,000, of which a deposit of $25,000 has been paid and the estate holds a mortgage on the property for $30,000.

HORSE DEAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Dwyer Bros.' horse Kingfisher died yesterday of inflammation of the kidneys.

THE DEAD GOVERNOR'S ESTATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Appraisement of the estate of the late Gov. Bartlett was filed in the probate court yesterday giving its value at $80,268.

HE IS DEAD.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—The most Rev. Daniel McGettigan, D. D., Roman Catholic archbishop of the diocese of Armagh and primate of all Ireland, is dead.

DONE BY HIGHBINDERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Lee Wy was shot and instantly killed in Chinatown last night, by Chinese highbinders, names unknown.

PERMANENTLY APPOINTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Thron Thronson has been made postal clerk between Helena, Montana, and Portland, Oregon, permanently.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 3.—The soldiers' home commissioners left this evening for the east. They will come to a decision regarding the site before reaching Leavenworth, Kansas. They inspected two sites, one at National City and the other in the old mission. The lands are situated about five miles north of the city.

Yesterday's Primaries.

At the primaries for the election to the Republican city convention yesterday there were two tickets in both wards, and considerable interest was manifested in the result.

In the First ward there were 180 votes polled and the following delegates elected: W. E. Dement, A. C. Fisher, A. S. Reed, J. A. Montgomery, F. I. Dunbar, J. F. Halloran, F. L. Parker, E. R. Hawes, Thos. Trullinger, R. N. Carnahan, C. S. Wright, J. G. Hustler, F. Sherman, A. G. Spexarth.

In the Second ward 99 votes were cast, resulting in the selection of the following named delegates: Louis Wilson, Abg. Danielson, L. Serra, E. A. Taylor, H. E. Nelson, W. H. Ryan, C. Larsen, N. A. Foeberg, T. Bracker, H. G. Smith.

The contest was on chief of police, around which all the interest centered; there was little or no attention paid to the presumed preference of any one of the men on any one of the tickets for mayor or councilman or any one else except chief of police. The two principal competitors on the Republican side for that office,—W. J. Barry and Thos. Linville—had a friendly contest for the nomination for that office, with the result as given above. The first six names in the First ward delegates and the first three names in the Second ward delegates were on both tickets.

According to the Washington Critic:

There's the bobtail horse and the bobtail flush,
And the bobtail car—pay your fare!
But the very worst case in the b. t. lot
Is the girl with the bobtail hair.

SPECIFIC GRAVITY OF THE WATER.

Capt. Allen Noyes, who is in the city surveying the British ship Brynhilda, lying at the O. R. & N. dock, and about ready for sea, has taken, for years, considerable interest in matters relating to the loading of vessels, their depth of draught when loaded, freeboard, etc., and in the course of his researches has found it necessary to make frequent and continued experiments as to the specific gravity of the water.

As is well known, the water in the stream at Astoria varies, being at times absolutely fresh, and again decidedly salty. Taking the standard of fresh water at 1,000, at 60° F., a cubic foot of water weighing 62½ pounds, and a cubic foot of salt water weighing 64 pounds, the specific gravity of the water in the Columbia at Astoria at high tide may be set down at 1,020. In the ocean it is nominally 1,026: that is what is what it is off Cape Horn: in the English channel it is 1,027: on Puget sound it is 1,028, the amount of evaporation there being apparently in excess of the amount of fresh water emptying into it.

On the 29th of last month, from observations made by Capt. Noyes at high water, he found the specific gravity on the surface to be 1,010: ten feet below the surface, 1,023: 15 feet below, 1,026, and 21 feet below, 1,027, the deeper, colder and denser water being more saline. At half tide, investigation showed a specific gravity of 1,010 on the surface, 1,013 ten feet below, 1,014 sixteen feet below, and 1,026 twenty-two feet below. At quarter flood, 1,004 on the surface, 1,008 ten feet below.

Comparison of the last two with the former illustrates the increased saltiness of the water at high tide.

From May till September the water is scarcely brackish at any stage of the tide, the mighty volume of fresh water from the Columbia sweeping back the salty tide of ocean water.

Accurate knowledge of the specific gravity of the water in which a vessel is being loaded is necessary to determine the exact draught of the vessel when loaded and at sea.

From careful computation it is deduced that at the normal condition of the specific gravity of the water in the harbor, a vessel drawing in the river, say, 21 feet 5 in. forward, and 21 feet 6 in. aft, will draw just 21 feet outside the bar.

First Shipment of Pulp.

On the O. R. & N. dock, yesterday afternoon, Al. Gates pointed out a pile of stuff that looked a good deal like strawboard. It was the first shipment of pulp from the Young's River Falls pulp mill, awaiting the arrival of the Geo. W. Elder, for carriage to San Francisco, where it will be torn up and shredded and made into paper. It is a dry whity-brown substance, flat and fibrous, and in sheets the thickness of the cover of a book. A piece of it can be seen at THE ASTORIAN office. It is made from spruce, and with a little more manipulation is capable of conversion into paper the color and consistency of that which the reader hereof is holding in his or her lily white hand.

Mr. Elbon, who runs the business, says he has splendid water power. He only uses 300 horse power, and the falls is capable of furnishing 2,000 horse power right along. It is within the realms of probability that some day the entire process will be gone through with and paper be one of the products of Clatsop county. But as a new and profitable product the pulp mill is a success.

ILWACO ITEMS.

ILWACO, Dec. 3.

Fine weather and business lively.

A petition to the county commissioners praying for a reward of one thousand dollars to be offered by the county for the arrest and conviction of the rascals who cut and destroyed fish traps in Baker's bay last season, is in circulation.

Also a petition to the territorial authorities for protecting fish traps.

A meeting of citizens at Henniss' hall will be held on the 7th inst., to consider the question of having Ilwaco incorporated as a town.

Notices are out for an election to be held at the school house on the 24th inst., to vote No or Yes for a 6-mill tax to pay off the indebtedness of school district No. 15.

The Ilwaco string band will give a dance at Ilwaco hall on Friday night, December 9th.

The sum of $60 was cleared at the firemen's ball on Thanksgiving eve.

The Output on the Willapa.

Logging operations on the Willapa have been conducted with considerable vigor during the past season. Up to the present time the following figures represent the output of logs in the various camps: J. D. Rhea, main river, 3,000,000 feet; Emmet Soule, South Fork, 2,500,000; H. E. Ellis, South Fork, 2,500,000; Roney & Albright, Mill creek, 3,000,000; G. B. Rigg, Mill creek, 2,000,000; Andrew Alexander, Wilson creek, 3,000,000; John McDonald, Mill creek, 700,000; Moore & Hermon, Wilson creek, 250,000; A. M. Sproule, lower river, 800,000. This gives a total of 17,750,000 feet to Willapa and its tributaries, and does not include the output of the camps which have been recently started. Among the latter are the camps of Soule & Woodard, Thos. Lusk, Chapman, Soule and Conley, all on main river. This is a big showing for the north part of the county in this important industry.

High Boat at Empire.

Joseph Drougard had the high boat at the O. S. P. Co.'s cannery, Empire, this season, having caught 1,637 salmon. The company presented him with a silver watch, six ounce case, nickle works, Bartlett movement, which was made to order in Chicago. On the back is engraved a Columbia river fishing boat, with Fort Stevens, at the mouth of the Columbia river, as a background. Those who saw say it was one of the finest silver watches they had ever seen.—Coos Bay News, Nov. 30.

Knew His Rights Under the Law.

Judge—Stand up.

Prisoner—I claim the right under the law to remain seated, y'r honor.

"How so?"

"The law says no man can be made to criminate himself, an' if I stand up I'll criminate myself."

"That point is well taken, and you may remain seated. You are accused of stealing a pair of breeches of this man, but I can find no evidence against you."

"None at all, y'r honor."

"You are discharged"

"Thank you, y'r honor."

"By the way, why were you unwilling to stand up?"

"If I stood up the man would see I had his breeches on."—Omaha World.

Should be Selected to Drive It.

Rev. J. L. Parrish, of Salem, drove the first spike on the Oregon & California railroad, and records a promise made to him by Ben Holladay that he should, if alive, drive the connecting spike that told that the road was completed. Mr. Parrish intimates his willingness and ability to perform the service designated if he is called upon to do so. He is one of the oldest of Oregon's pioneers, but has kept step with the progress of events; and while he remembers, with the peculiar tenderness of the pioneer, the early days of Oregon, he rejoices with the more recent residents over the new Oregon as marked by the railroad era.—Telegram.
