Why, Of Course. The queen of Nyanza has a habit of pounding her royal mate when under the influence of liquor.

The jury in the case of the United States vs. Alva W. Butler, on trial in the U. S. circuit court at Portland for robbing the U. S. mail, last Wednesday evening returned a verdict of guilty after being out only one hour.

A livery man in Walla Walla, in a general clean up, found a pair of old pants in the closet and threw them out. An Indian came along and the pants were given to him and he immediately got into them.

An enterprising and imaginative eastern editor is the authority for saying that the Samoans are in a terrible state of mind, having recently discovered that the toothsome canned salmon they have been eating the past year was really the flesh from the bones of dead Chinamen whose remains had been shipped to China from San Francisco.

Monsignor Persico whom the Pope sent to Ireland to report upon the condition of that country has returned to Rome. He disapproves of the plan of campaign; thinks that the country is not ripe for home rule, and that coercion is only making martyrs of those who are imprisoned.

The editor of the Chehalis Vindicator has heard of instances—exceptions, of course,—where from 800 to 900 bushels of potatoes have been raised to the acre in that county. From 400 to 500 bushels is the average yield with proper cultivation.

Think twice before you speak once is a good enough rule for some, but there are persons who can think of so much madder things to say on second thought that we prefer to hear their first inspiration on the subject.—Times Siftings.

In Oregon is a domain that would be the prize of an empire if it were open to conquest. There is hardly an activity discovered by the genius and tempting to the industry of man that may not be profitably domesticated in that state.—S. F. Alta.

Colonel Mendell, United States engineers, questions the expediency of spending much money to make an artificial harbor at San Pedro, on account of the nearness of the natural harbor of San Diego.

Some enthusiasts, who have been investigating the only earliest discovery of America by Eric, the Northman, propose to change the name of this country to Erica. It Am-Erica now.

"God made the country and man the town." Should anybody ask you who unmade both, you can say it was the demagogue, without going very wide of the mark.

It may be that luck goes up and down the world calling on men and women, but the name has been spelled pluck on all of her cards that have come under our eye.

Don't neglect your cough! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will cure it, and prevent consumption. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.

A London druggist has hit the popular taste for good bargains. In his window he displays a card that reads: "Come in and get twelve emetics for one shilling."

Day and Night. During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows.

Without Relief. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It effected a speedy cure.—G. Stover, M. D., Carrollton, Miss. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which grew worse and settled on my lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once.
