

The Daily Morning Astorian.

VOL. XXIX, NO. 139.

ASTORIA, OREGON, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1887.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

NOW THEN LOOK AT THIS!!

Having just completed the opening of our useful as well as our ornamental, our plain as well as our decorated ware, we are now prepared for the trade in all its branches. Buying our goods direct from the manufacturers, and always paying cash for them, we not only get them at regular trade prices, as cheap as San Francisco or Portland dealers can buy, but we also get the cash discount; and if any other dealer thinks he can undersell us, he has only to start in, and we will agree that "the longest pole shall knock down the persimmons." We guarantee our patrons that for quality and quantity our prices shall be

AS LOW OR LOWER

than any other house in town. Our sales of Christmas goods have been large, for which we return thanks to our customers, but we still have a full and varied stock of as unique and beautiful goods as can be found in town, and as we have said relative to other goods, we will not be undersold.

The expressions of admiration and satisfaction that have been made by those that have examined or bought from us have been gratifying and assure us that our efforts to please the Astoria public are appreciated. We shall continue as in the past to try and merit the generous patronage bestowed upon us.

Call and see our Dinner Sets, Tea Sets, Toilet Sets, in great variety, Crystal Ware of all kinds, Lamps, either hanging, stand, or hall in large stock, and in short, anything you want to buy.

Remember also that we are still in the grocery and provision trade and are ready to supply you with anything you want in those lines as cheap as the same quality of goods can be sold by any other dealer.

So remember the place to buy is at

D. L. BECK & SONS.

THE "RIGHT HAND."
 As I stood on the curb talking with an accomplished anatomist the other day, he offered to bet me that I could not tell which was my right hand for the wager. But he objected. He said that he did not offer to bet me that I could not show him my right hand, or extend my right hand, but that I could not tell which was my right hand; that is, that I could not describe it in words so that one who never heard of the distinction we make between the right hand and the left, would be able to find it. I thought that that would be easy enough also, until I thought it over; and then I had to give it up. Said the anatomist: "There are a plenty of criteria within the body which defines its place, such as the heart, the liver, and the duodenum. But on the outside of a perfectly-formed human being there is nothing to distinguish the right hand from the left, and no one can describe it in words so that an ignorant person can find it. If people were ambidexterous, and were not taught, from childhood, to use one of their hands more than the other, it would be almost impossible for them to know which was which. I often think of this when I hear any one say of some one whom he wishes to stigmatize as a fool, that 'he can't tell his right hand from his left,' as I do also when I read what God said to Jonah about Nineveh, in which He said 'were more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand.'"—Chicago Journal.
 Don't neglect your cough! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will cure it, and prevent consumption. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.
 When the world is made over again and the millennium comes, other people's children and other people's cats will certainly be abolished.
 If you lung trouble is of scrofulous origin, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will cure it.

Mrs. Cleveland's Dressmaker.
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—A male dressmaker is sometimes employed by Mrs. Cleveland. His name is Thomas W. Grimes. He is a good looking, dashing little fellow of about 35 years of age. He is as great an autocrat in his way as the celebrated Worth of Paris. Since Mrs. Cleveland began patronizing him a year ago, his business has grown enormously.
WHAT THEY ARE GOOD FOR.
BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the best medicine known.
 First—They are purely vegetable, in fact a medicated food.
 Second—The same dose always produces the same effect,—other purgatives require increased doses and finally cease acting.
 Third—They purify the blood.
 Fourth—They invigorate the digestion and cleanse the stomach and bowels.
 Fifth—They stimulate the liver and carry off vitiated bile and other depraved secretions.
 The first two or three doses tell the story. The skin becomes clear; the eye bright; the mind active; digestion is restored; costiveness cured; the animal vigor is recruited and all decay arrested.
