FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

An Astoria Lawyer's Opinion of That Country.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 6th, 1887. FRIEND BOWEN:

All my life I have had a desire to see this boasted state of California, especially down here in the lower part—the alleged "Italy of America." Consequently on Nov. 14th I left As-toria and, after a brief stay in Portlaud, journeyed overland to Sucra-mento, where I remained two days, calling ou Judge Van C cave of the superior court, an old-time friend. From Sacramento to Los Angeles I crossed as fine a wheat country as crossed as fine a wheat country as you ever saw, but the dust was horrible and everything seemed burning up. Changing cars at Los Angeles I I came direct here to San Die go and by the way, let me say, at Colton the junction of the Santa Fe railroad our train was loaded down with eastern fools, on their way to this land of rocks, hills and sand.

Now, then, as to this land of roat

Now, then, as to this land of real estate booms. It is one of the most bare-faced, unmitigated swindles ever perpetrated on an innocent people. The Santa Fe R. R. company is behind this banko game with all the available land and when they have unloaded it on the eastern suckers the bottom will drop out of the boom. This country has nothing to back up its boom but climate and people can't live on that. Back of this town and on all sides north, east and its boom but climate and people can't live on that. Back of this town and on all sides, north, east and south, you can see nothing but bald rocks, snow-capped mountains and deserts of sand. Here I see the greasy Mexican living in his floorless adobe, and he is about the only human being who speaks well of the country. To-day, the 6th of Dec., while snow is five feet deep in Minnesota, I write here with doors and windows all open and all about me is a perfect wilderness of flowers. Each day I see hundreds of ladies walking As Any in the Market,
AT AS REASONABLE A PRICE.

White, holding parasols over their heads. These lazy loungers are in the majority here, for they number about ten thousand people—wealthy eastern nabobs who came here to speculate and steer clear of the eastern cold winters. Workingmen with a trade earn good wages and they are the only ones I can see who are do ing well. The professions are overcrowded and mercantile business is but little better than the dullest traffic in eastern towns.

Every other man here is gambling in real estate and only one in every fifty makes money. In short this is one of the most overrated places I ever saw and I frankly admit that like nine-tenths of new-comers I was dis gusted at San Diego before I got within one hundred miles of the Newspapers here claim 25,000 people; at all events the town is not one bit larger than Astoria, and the boasted population is a floating one, willing to float out just as soon as they can get money to do so. Now, to compare Astoria and your town and adjacent country with lower California: Well, there is no more comparison between these two countries than there is between rock-bound Alaska and Paradise. Classop and Pacific counties have as good farming land as you can find in any east ern state, and the timber lands there are without parallel. That country could back up a boom with resources that are inexhaustible. This country has nothing to back up its booms but climate, salt water, rock and sand and fit only to spend money in and furnish homes for men of wealth. Every poor man wants to steer clear of this neck of the woods. Have not seen all of this country-not all, of course-but have already been in all parts of this county and hobnobbed with the cattle barons and the ranch. ers, and taking their views as a basis, can speak with assurance that my statement is a correct one. Now, that I have seen the boomy land of real estate bunko steerers am satisfied-well enough to remain Fine Wines, Liquors & Cigars, ont of the state all the rest of my life. will return by steamer to Astoria as I would rather look at salt water and sea gulls than to again view this land of mountains, rocks, sand and treeless, barren dreary waste, begging paupers, brass bands and bunko real estate men.

THE INCURABLE CURED!

HOPRISSTILLE, KY., Feb. 24, 1887.

Gentlement—Seven years ago a sore developed on my nose from a finger nail scratch. I tried a few simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. I grew worse every year for seven years. Many thought I had a cancer. Over a year rgo I commenced taking S. S. S., and two dozen buttles entirely cured me. When I began with Switt's Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drug about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S. I was streng and buoyant, and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most variable melicile for kides in weak, delicate health. It is a bouschold medicine with me. Yours respectably.

Startanter, S. C., April 2, 1887.

Gentlemen—for twemy years I have had a sore on my left chees. It had gradually been growing worse. The many physicians whom I had consulted were unable to do me any good. Last fall a year ago I began using 8, 8, 8. At first it inflamed the sore, and it became more virulent than ever; so much so, indeed, that my family insisted that I should leave off the medicine. I persisted in using the S. S. S. At the end of two months the sore was entirely healed. Thinking that the evil was out of my constitution, I left off the medicine; but in November, ten months after, a very slight breaking out appeared. I at once began again on S. S., and now that is also disappearing. I have every faith in S. S. S. It has done me more pood than all the doctors and other medicineal ever took. Yours truly.

Gentlemen—Two or three years ago a caner came on my face. It soon grew to be quite large. It wore on me, and my general health was very poor. Last September I began a course of S. S. S., which I have continued to the present time with the happear result. The cancer has entirely disappeared, there being no evidence or symptom of a cancerous character left. My general health was very poor. Last September I began a course of S. S. S., which I have continued to the present time with the happear result. The cancer has entirely disappeared, there being no evidence or symptom of a cancerous character left. My general health is good mow, and my appetite better than it has been in years. I am S2 years old, and to-day I am working in the field planting corn. Yours truly, Jonas Linesacz.

Gentlemen—I had a sore on my upper lip for eight years. Seven different doctors at tempted in vain to heal it. One gave me a small vial for five dollars, which was a "certain cure." It is needless to say that it did me no good. About two yours as of became quite uneasy, as people thought I had a cancer, and I took a course of e
