PRICE FIVE CENTS.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

TO ALL

The Time for Christmas Presents Having Past, Now for New Year's Gifts.

D. L. BECK & SONS

Having determined to close out their Christmas Goods, have marked them down, regardless of cost, to prices below what has ever before been known in Oregon. You can save money by buying now and carrying the presents over until next Christmas, so very low are their prices. They are determined to sell, so don't fail to improve this, the greatest opportunity you ever had or ever will have to buy goods cheap. Remember that they have always been the Pioneers of cheap prices in Astoria, and you will regret it if you let this opportunity pass. THEY MEAN BUSINESS AND THERE IS NO HUMBAG OR CLAP-TRAP TO SELL GOODS IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT.

War Clouds in Europe.

BERLIN Dec. 28th.—If war early in the spring is averted, official anticipation will be deceived and military expectation disappointed. Within the past few days it has become a settled conviction in diplomatic circles that the czar's pacific tendencies have been overborne by the pan-Slavish faction, and that he is now under the control of the war party leaders, some of whom are likely to precipitate a war by some act of provocation, committed without the czar's full consent.

The return of General Von Schweinitz, German ambassador to St. Petersburg, was hoped to be signalized by a decisive turn of the tide peaceward. The conference between Von Schweinitz and De Giers, the Russian prime minister, on Thursday last, had a contrary result. Whatever passed during the interview has deepened the distrust in Berlin and increased the irritation of the Russian government toward the czar's ministers. De Giers appears to have abandoned his policy of peace pressure upon the czar and to have thrown his influence upon the side of the military party. He is reported as telling Von Schweinitz that the czar is sincerely desirous of peace, but is unable to tolerate longer Austrian duplicity in thwarting Russia's endeavors to obtain the first fruits of her sacrifices in the Balkan campaign. De Giers has also complained of Col. Kalnaky's language in reference to Russia declaring it unbearable and that it justifies every measure Russia might take to reinforce her troops on the frontier.

An ominous indication of the extreme tension of the situation is the bellicose tone of the St. Petersburg papers towards Austria. Bulgaria, the papers say, must be deprived of any shadow of individuality and become a Russian province, while Austria must be forced to evacuate Bosnia and Herzegovina. An inspired article in the Grashdamm states that the Russian government has obtained knowledge that the terms of the treaty of alliance leave Germany free, not to interfere unless Austria is threatened with a collapse which would involve territorial losses. This is contrary to the official press of Vienna and Pesth, which treats the war question as a common matter between Austria and Germany. Berlin official views concur with that of the Austrian press. The report that count Von Wolkenstein, the Austrian ambassador at St. Petersburg, had received assurances from De Giers that movements of troops had ceased, is semi-officially denied from Vienna to-night. The reassuring representation would be useless in the face of facts during the past week. Russian cavalry and light artillery have been pushed forward to the extreme outposts. A careful estimate gives Russia eight and a half army corps within the frontier districts of Warsaw, Wilna and Kieff, with 120 field batteries against the combined Austrian and German force of five and a half army corps, with 82 batteries. Russia has also an immense preponderance in cavalry strength.

A Valuable Medical Treatise.

The edition for 1888 of the sterling Medical annual, known as Hostetter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained free of cost, of druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the United States, Mexico, and indeed in every civilized portion of the Western Hemisphere. This Almanac has been issued regularly at the commencement of every year for over one-fourth of a century. It combines, with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and the calendar, astronomical calculations, chronology, etc., are prepared with great care, and will be found entirely accurate. The issue of Hostetter's Almanac for 1888 will probably be the largest edition of a medical work ever published in any country. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two-cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood.
