which is Scroftlous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly furth disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Da. Pracez thoughtseriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening alterative, or blood-decarsing, anti-billous, pectorial, and mutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

LITERARY GLEANINGS.

Bret Harte is said to be making rom $7,000 to $10,000 in London. The queen of Roumania has written a Christmas story for one capital.

his term of service with Mr. Blackmore shows that his salary of 13s 6d a week was raised on the 1st of August, 1828, to 15s a week.

Lord Tennyson receives an income of from $20,000 to $25,000 a year from the sale of his books, but not a cent of it comes from an American publisher, despite the fact that his poetry is nearly as popular here as in England.

Frank R. Stockton's literary career is very encouraging to young authors who feel that they are not appreciated. It is said that for a long time Stockton's productions were a standing joke in the publishers' houses. His manuscript was known to publishers a long while before his delicious humor had a chance to reach the public He was persevering and hopeful, however, and at last the magazines began to print his productions.

A correspondent writes to the New York Tribune: "I notice that Dr. S. T. Smith, the author of 'My Country, 'Tis of Thee,' not long ago read a poem at the celebration of the 100th birthday of Seth Davis, the veteran schoolmaster of Newton, Mass. The incident reminds one of another which may interest your readers. Some years ago I had the pleasure of lunching with Oliver Wendell Holmes. He was in full flow of spirits, and, I need not say, entertained the company to the top of their bent. Suddenly he remarked with earnestness: 'I was dining last evening with a party of old college friends, and among them was the man who wrote the most popular poem ever produced in America, and yet I don't believe you can tell me to whom I refer. Whereupon one of the company quoted from one of the doctor's own famous after-dinuer poems these lines:

Here comes a young fellow of excellent pith. Fate tried to conceal him by naming him

Whereupon the doctor laughed and owned up. Smith, the author of 'My Country, 'Tis of Thee,' was one of his classmates. And now pray tell me-why have we heard so little of Smith? Is that immortal patriotic lyric all that he has done that is worth while? When he penned it did he strike twelve?"

HAIR that has become weak, gray. and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. *My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. **A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff. — Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.
