SOME FACTS WORTH KNOWING.

Congress has assembled after the holidays, and as congressmen sometimes lack the time and sometimes the inclination to procure facts and figures, it may be of use to them, as well as to other people, to know how other countries rank as to the value of the production of the principal articles the world needs and uses.

The United States stand first in the production of cereals, the value being $1,161,215,453. Russia comes next with $1,109,159,673. Germany is third, the value being $750,148,109, and Austria-Hungary fourth with $648,043,475. Great Britain, including India, Australia, Canada and all its other colonies and dependencies, only produced cereals to the value of $437,282,910, which is $8,000,000 than the production of France.

In the production of potatoes the United States is fourth, the value being $73,302,480. Russia is first in this, with $450,000,000; German empire second, with $263,550,090; and Austria-Hungary third, with $158,840,445. In orchard fruits Germany is first, producing $62,943,623, and the United States second, with $51,756,847.

The United States produces $233,443,356 of cotton and cottonseed oil; British India $83,121,980, and Egypt gives $43,805,460 for export.

The value of the live stock in the United States is $1,279,560,190, which is more than the combined value of the stock of all other countries. Russia and Great Britain each have $80,000,000, Germany $60,000,000, and Austria-Hungary $35,000,000. In dairy products Germany leads with $85,573,000, the United States being second, with $50,482,186.

In hay Great Britain produces more than all the world, the value being $1,200,000,000; Austria-Hungary third with $261,000,000, and Germany fourth with $175,000,000.

In the production of sugar and molasses Germany ranks first, the value being $190,000,000 in 1885, which was largely increased in 1886; Cuba is second with $113,960,000; Austria-Hungary third, $96,850,000; France fourth, $95,289,000; Russia fifth, with $85,176,000.

Of hides and tallow the United States produces $82,949,207 worth; Russia follows close after with $41,000,000; France is third, with $42,420,000; Germany fourth, $41,150,000, and Austria-Hungary fifth with $37,480,000.

As a wool producer the United States stands first, the values being $72,464,201; Australia second, $47,358,000; the Argentine Republic third, $95,046,955; Russia fourth, $33,615,200, Austria-Hungary fifth, $30,663,000; France sixth, $16,654,000, and Germany seventh, $15,582,000.

In wine and spirits Spain comes first, with values of $178,680,000; Germany second, $119,360,000; Russia third, $78,103,750; the United States fourth, $76,464,201; France fifth, $75,767,932, and Italy sixth, $65,265,000. In malt liquors Germany comes first, with $74,907,588, and the United States second, $61,400,000.

In tobacco and cigars France comes first, with $72,850,000; Turkey second, $60,500,000, and the United States third, with $44,160,150. In oils Italy leads, with $80,216,000; Russia is second, with $72,500,650; the United States third, $53,905,000.

In the precious metals Russia comes first as to gold, with $54,217,000; the United States second, with $30,800,000; Australia third, with $21,000,000. In silver the United States leads, $53,800,000; Mexico second, $26,000,000; Russia third, $20,420,000. Of the lesser metals, Germany produces most lead, $18,091,000; the United States is second, with $9,186,000, and Spain third, with $8,580,000.

Russia is much the largest producer of iron and steel, the values being $275,000,000. Great Britain comes second with $210,000,000; Germany is third, with $200,000,000; the United States fourth, $160,837,500; and France fifth, $117,000,000. Germany produces $70,126,000 worth of copper and tin. Great Britain comes next with $28,275,100; Austria-Hungary third, $15,550,000, and Chili fourth, $15,000,000.

CLIPPED AND CONDENSED.

St. Louis consumes 2,000 tubs of oleomargarine every month. Barnum has had five fires with his show and lost more than $1,500,000.

Double-deck omnibuses are now running on Fifth avenue, New York.

Newspapers instead of textbooks are now in use in the reading classes at the Deadham, Mass., schools.

A German tourist has encircled the globe at a cost of $5 a day, and the voyage took 185 days.

A solid lump of coal containing 87 cubic feet and weighing 6,351 pounds, was exhibited at the Texas state fair.

Berlin has a technical high school, built by the city at a cost of $4,800,000, and maintained at an annual cost of $190,000.

Chicago leads the list in rapid growth. The municipality of Hyde Park came into the corporate limits with 70,000 people at a single whoop.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says that congressman McDonald of Minnesota, will probably be the prize idiot of the fiftieth congress.

People are practical. The French selected "a first-class civil engineer" for president while the United States called in an experienced sheriff.

A young man went to a masquerade in an eastern city in the full dress of a penitentiary convict. Policemen noticing the peculiar garb arrested and locked him up.

The Chinese government has engaged a young San Francisco woman to organize a school of domestic service at Tokio to familiarize Japanese girls with our customs.

Texas has a band of fanatics called Sanctificationists, whose belief is based upon dreams. A diet of cheese and pie must be very effective in awakening the spiritual condition of converts.

It will cost Philadelphia next year eleven and a half million dollars to be governed by the constitution, about one hundred thousand dollars of which is for an increase of salaries of officials.

The Atlanta Constitution says it received $3,047 from both sides in the wet and dry fight in that town, and its proprietors contributed more than that amount to the two campaign funds.

Nearly $500,000 in deposits is lying unclaimed in the savings banks of Boston. It belongs to 367 unknown depositors, not one of whom has put in an appearance for more than twenty years.

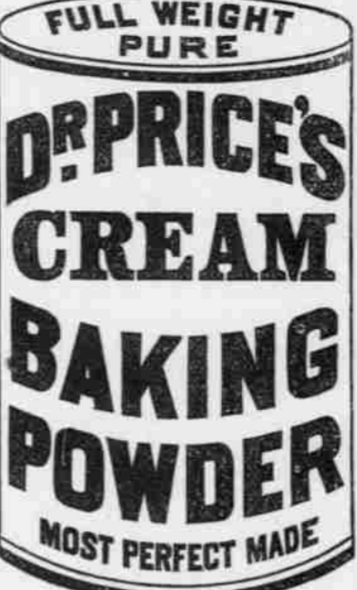

One of the most striking exhibitions of confidence in human nature is the sign displayed at a Brooklyn theater that umbrellas are loaned to patrons of the house on nights when rainstorms begin during the performance.

General Booth, of the salvation army, has decided to send squads of soldiers to Zululand and South America. Some of his forces have already reached Jerusalem, and the streets of the Holy City resound with the jingle of their tambourines.

A Worcester, Mass., woman has petitioned the probate court for a decree compelling her husband to grant her ample support. Her expenses paid last year by her husband were $7,000, but she is hungering for diamonds and an encyclopedic.

As a home remedy for throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Druggists now have Ayer's Almanac.

Talk of business! In Buenos Ayres is a bank with a paid up capital of $57,000,000 and deposits of $35,000,000 and a discount line of $60,000,000. The Argentine Republic imports $50,000,000 a year, of which one tenth only comes from the United States.

Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Government.
