THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

There will be roller skating at the rink to-night.

And now the line's down: no mail, no telegraph: rough: can't help it.

The State of California sailed yesterday morning for San Francisco.

There were 134 business failures in Oregon, during 1887. Liabilities, $648,558; assets, $484,556. For the coming season ladies' visit-ing cards will be smaller than heretofore and perfectly square. The three-masted schooner Sadie F. Keller arrived in yesterday, minus her foretopmast, which was carried away in one of the recent gales. Whole cloves are now used to exterminate the merciless and industrious moth. It is said they are more effectual as a destroying agent than either tobacco, camphor, or cedar Counterfeit dollars are again in circulation. They are of a glassy text-ure, they ring about the same as the genuine dollar, but can be easily detected by the milling around the edge being very irregular.

Frank Byrd, the mail carrier, says that the road is now open through to Lewis and Clarke's. He has had a rough time of it, as well as every one else, carrying the mail in this section for the last two weeks.

Yesterday was like an April day in the northern Missippi valley; show-ers and sunshine and warm west wind. The cold east wind has had its day, or its week, and the next thing will be something else.

The Union says the Walla Walla city council meet every two weeks and make lots of fun, that they often break up their deliberations in a row, and that the taxpayers are swearing. Walla Walla must be a funny town.

The Bonita tried it again yesterday morning, and got as far as Green's Point, when she was obliged to return. There was no mail re-ceived last night, and there is very little probability of getting any totoria Iron works is for them, as are also a number of smaller boats now being built here.

A California court has decided that a husband can open his wife's letters. Now, if there was only some way of getting a law passed compelling a husband to mail his wife's letters some time the same year that she gave them to him, the women wouldn't care a snap about this other decision.

Mr. Jensen, the ingenious inventor, whose name is inseparably connected with the history of labor-saving machinery in the salmon packing business on this river, is now putting the finishing touches on a can-making machine, that, when completed, will be able to turn out sixty caus a min-

THE ASTORIAN lost five subscribers in '87. Three "got mad" at some-thing they saw in it and withdrew their patronage, which they had a perfect right to do. But as there were 217 new subscribers added to the list, the loss of the five was borne with becoming fortitude and Christian resignation.

Smallpox has appeared in Nevada City, Bloomfield, and one or two other places in California, and the only way that its presence in those places can be accounted for is on the theory that it was carried to those localities from San Francisco in letters. The utmost care is necessary in those matters to prevent the spread of that dreadful disease.

The Democratic state central com mittee met in Portland yesterday afternoon to fix upon the time and place of holding their state conven-tion, and if that pesky old line had held together, that item along with other telegraphic news would have been sent us last night. Running a local column without mail or telegraph is like cooking without fire.

At Benton, recently, the wife of Wesley Roy, a farmer, gave birth to a quartette of boys and girls, two boys and two girls. This is remarka-ble as it is the first of the kind that ever occurred in this state. All of the children and the mother are doing well. When the nurse first showed them to the father, he prob-ably asked: "Did any of them get thing to keep up the excitement and get a notice," has been making life a burden to Justice Cleveland, asking for complaints and writs of arrest, etc. Yesterday he issued a warrant and had arrested Chas. Wickstrom, who is charged with disturbing "religious worship," on some occasion when present at the show. He will be tried this afternoon.

Number one, Vol. I, of the Pacific Express, which succeeds the Prohlbi-bition Star, is received. It is an eight-page, six-column paper, with about as much matter in it as in THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN, gives a general resume of the world's news, and will be the exponent and advocate of po-litical prohibition. It differs from most newspapers in not being a private business enterprise, but is the mouthpiece of those who believe in prohibition. It has a clear, healthy prohibition. It has a clear, healthy look, and will be read with interest.

Solomon was "away off." There is something new under the sun. A remedy for seasickness has been discovered. Chewing gum. A passen ger on an ocean steamer testifies as follows: "I put a piece of gum in my mouth and began a rapid chewing, which had a pleasant and soothing effect and dispelled all feeling of nausea. I soon was made happy in the sea. I soon was made happy in the knowledge that it had prevented me from falling a victim to seasickme from falling a victim to seasickCorbett, H. low the surface of the streets. For the streets of Astoria are fearfully and wonderfully made. The ships from afar bring ballast, which is used in street making, and gravel from Vladavostick, and pebbles from Valparaiso, and dornicks from Van Dieman's Land, and paleozoic fragments from Guaymas, and peroxide of cal. from Guaymas, and peroxide of calcium from Australia, and chunks of old red sandstone from the ends of the earth, are dumped on the streets that hear the payors of the

The schooner Garfield arrived at Grimes, G. K.
San Francisco last Wednesday with a crew which experienced a narrow escape from death. The Garfield sailed from Port Gamble for San Francisco, and nine days out during a heavy storm, while all the crew Hill, Geo.

Hobson, John were on the jibboom furling sail, an immense sea swept over the schooner carying every screed from the boom and on to the deck with greatest violence. The second mate's leg was broken and one sailor had his hand crushed. The escape of the vessel was miraculous, and with great difficulty she was brought to port, ex-periencing continual rough weather and baffling and violent gales.

"We commonly abuse our climate," writes an eminent authority, "on account of its humidity. This is a great rain, such as constitutes the characteristic of our Oregon climate, is the most effective of all sanitary agencies. It cleanses the ground, and, what is far more important, it cleanses the air. The ammoniacal and other exaround last night, it was an even bet whether we would have rain or snow here to-day.

The Scandinavian Packing company are making extensive preparations for next season's operations at Alaska. The boat building at the Astoria Iron works is for them, as are also a number of smaller boats now into rivers and lights. The cleanses the mir. The ammoniacal and other exhalations, continually rising from decomposing animal and vegetable matter, are all more or less soluble in water, are a about 25 per cent of the carbonic acid Nurnburg, J. G. over the sea contains less than one-fourth of the quantity in that over the land. Far away at sea the quantity is inappreciable, and at a given place on the coast it varies with the wind, increasing as it blows from the land, and vice versa."

A Historic Old Schooner.

The old schooner John Hancock, abandoned off Humboldt bay on the 2nd inst., was a historic old vessel. She was built forty-five years ago at Charleston for the United States government as a tug boat. She was at terwards lengthened and turned into a second-rate man-of-war. She was commerce.

Whoever finds the John Hancock was built of white oak and copperfastened to the rails.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but, insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affection.
