ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.
Whether the large or small cow is the most profitable on small farms is a disputed question. For our part we like a good cow, whether she is large or small, and are better suited by quality than size. The large animal consumes more and should yield an increase of milk and butter to compensate for the extra feed. We saw, not long since, a statement in which the extra cost and possible profit and loss were nicely calculated, and the balance seemed to be in favor of the smaller cow. We do not believe there is much difference in profit, yielded by an individual cow of either class, if they are good specimens of their kind. We believe good keep makes the profit in all cases, be the breed what it may. It requires a certain amount of feed to sustain life and keep up animal waste; whatever additional proper nutritious food is supplied well, in a good cow, goes into profit in milk and butter. The advocates of the large cow urge that there is an increased value in such stock when it comes to the butcher; but this is not of much consequence, for such beef does not have a high market value. Select whatever kind we may for the dairy, if we consult our profit we must look for the one that makes the best returns for her keep. All other considerations of size and weight are only of minor importance. The best cow at the milk pail will be the best breed for the owner.—Farm and Garden.

A Common Cold. Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough. Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured. I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

The Best Remedy for Colds, Coughs, and All Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa. Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my Lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who know me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

How a Dying Child Was Saved! CHENAMUS, HAMILTON CO., ILL., Sept. 12, 1887.—The following is a true account of what your son S. S. has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 months old a lump appeared on her neck, which slowly grew larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle finger and thumb of her right hand became enlarged, and flesh becoming hard. The hip joints became involved, so that when seven months old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was weakened, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Boston, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1886. We took the child away not knowing what to do. In this dreadful dilemma we were over-ruled by friends to try "one bottle of SWINER'S SCARF, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a change for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord will, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hazel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashes have of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a little, cheerful, happy rompish child. Should you wish to increase your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S. S. S., our name and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them. Kindly yours, BEX. F. SWINER, GEORGE W. SWINER, P. O. Box 6. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. THE SWINER SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.
