BACK PAY DEMANDED.

Claim of Soldiers that Were Never Mustered Out of Service.

CINCINNATI, January 15.—There was a gathering of old soldiers in Covington, Ky., yesterday with a most peculiar object. It was a meeting of the gallant Forty-first Kentucky volunteers, to take the initial measures to be mustered out of service of the war.

The story is a peculiar one. During the war a regiment was organized in Covington composed mainly of Covington people. They were sworn in by officers fully authorized to perform that duty, and were put under the command of Captain Amos Shinkler. They went into the war and served through it, being known as the gallant Forty-first Kentucky volunteers.

It is twenty-three years since the last gun was fired, and many of the regiment are numbered with the dead. Some were killed in battle, others have died since, but not a mother's son of them was ever mustered out of service, and no one has any papers to indicate that he was discharged.

As a consequence every member of the Forty-first Kentucky volunteers is entitled to pay up to the present time, and the meeting this afternoon was for the purpose of adopting some means to secure their discharge and pay.

Amos Shinkler, who commanded the regiment, is still alive, and was with his men this afternoon.

Should the men's claim prove valid and be successfully prosecuted, each man will be entitled to $3,588 counting from the close of the war.

Opposed to Internal Revenue.

NEW YORK, January 14.—The report of the Union League club's committee on political reform was submitted at the annual meeting last evening. The substance is embodied in the resolution recommended, which says:

Resolved, That we deem it wise Republican statesmanship to abolish the internal revenue department of the United States as the safest and most practicable way of reducing the surplus in the treasury and preserving unimpaired the great principle of protection to American industry, and also to advocate and enforce, wherever the power exists, rigorous and vigorous legislation in the various states in favor of taxation of the liquor traffic to the highest degree practicable, to the end that money collected from that source may be applied directly to defray the expense of the pauperism and crime it entails upon the several states.

The committee was headed by Whitelaw Reid. The report will be called up for action in March.

The blood cleansing qualities of Ayer's Sarsaparilla render it invaluable in skin disorders.

Indignities to Prisoners.

DUBLIN, January 14.—A Galway correspondent of the Evening Telegram says: Wilfred Blunt was last evening deprived of his overcoat by the prison officials. He then took off his prison garb and demanded his own suit, which was refused. To-day he stayed in bed. Blunt told a visiting justice that Balfour, in recent interviews, declared his intention to imprison six of the physically weakest of Parnell's friends, who would be unable to survive six months' imprisonment. The justices have refused to receive the written declaration, but advised that the prisoner be removed to a better room and that his overcoat be restored and he be supplied with writing materials.

A Reprieve For The Condemned.

Wretched men and women long condemned to suffer the tortures of dyspepsia, are filled with new hope after a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This liquid duna hope blossoms into the fruition of certainty, if the Bitters is persisted in. It brings a reprieve to all dyspeptics who seek its aid. Flatulence, heartburn, sinking at the pit of the stomach between meals, the nervous tremors and insomnia of which chronic indigestion is the parent, disappear with their hateful progenitor. Most beneficent of stomachics! who can wonder that in so many instances it awakens grateful eloquence in those who, benefitted by it, speak voluntarily in its behalf. It requires a graphic pen to describe the torments of dyspepsia, but in many of the testimonials received by the proprietors of the Bitters, these are portrayed with vivid truthfulness. Constipation, biliousness, muscular debility, malaria, and fevers and rheumatism are relieved by it.

Unbelief in Superstition.

NEW YORK, January 14.—The Thirteen club gave one of its unique dinners last night at the Cafe Morelli, only it was a bit more unique than usual, for it was the occasion of its annual election.

Six long tables, each holding thirteen guests, filled the dining hall. Thirteen wax tapers burned on each table. The menu was printed on a gravestone, the wine list on a coffin-lid. On a silken banner at the head of the room blazed the motto of the club: "Morituri te salutamus;" but symbols of death and the fateful number of 13 were the only things funereal about the dinner.

Merry jest kept pace with the flow of sparkling wit. "Oh, death, thou hast no sting, if thou but come to me at a banquet of the Thirteen club," was the sentiment given over brimming bumpers.

At the election 313 votes were cast. The report of the scribe showed a membership of 1,300. Dinner was served at thirteen minutes past 8 P. M. There were thirteen courses, thirteen wines and thirteen toasts. Telegrams of congratulations were sent branch clubs in as many cities.

It was later than thirteen o'clock when the club adjourned.
