THE MANITOBA CRISIS.

The Cabinet Retires from Office—Hot Words.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14 After an existence of barely six weeks the Harrison Government went to pieces last night when it became known that one of their number had been defeated at St. Francis Xavier. A caucus of the party was held during the evening and after a stormy meeting, during which much recrimination was indulged in, it was resolved to resign and join the opposition. Premier Harrison said the course which the Government proposed to take would, he hoped, result in the greatest benefit to the country. He and his friends had been prepared to carry out the policy which he was sure would have commended itself to every right-thinking man, but they accepted the verdict given by the St. Francis Xavier voters, and they would not be given an opportunity to carry their policy into effect. He suggested to his adherents that they join the opposition and give Mr. Greenway a chance to carry on the affairs of the country.

Full details of the caucus are unobtainable, but it is known that ex-Premier Norquay and Harrison indulged in a verbal warfare, which was neither creditable to themselves nor edifying to the audience, each doing his share of the mudslinging. After it had been decided to resign, the question of a leader for the opposition was discussed at length, but it became evident that Norquay was the only man on whom all the factions could unite and accordingly he was chosen unanimously.

On rising to thank the caucus for the honor conferred, the old half-breed was greeted with great applause which he received with becoming evidence of modesty, while at the same time barely concealing the triumph he felt.

Greenway, when seen by your correspondent, said he would accept the post of Premier if offered, and hoped to be able to carry the country with him. It is doubtful however if the new government can be of long duration, and Manitoba seems to have started in to beat Mexico's record in the matter of revolutions.

European War Notes.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The fact that the czar at his New Year's reception refrained from talking to the German ambassador and Austrian representative, and out of the Russian generals and ministers whispered a few minutes to M. de Giers and then singled out ministers Bishtegradni, M. Podidestiff and secretary of state Ostrovski, is taken to mean that the war party triumphs. The movement of troops to the frontier is being accelerated and hosts of laborers are constructing redoubts on the line of the Vistula. The Warsaw police have issued orders that all Austrians who have not permits to reside in Poland must quit Russian territory.

Austrian and Hungarian troops are concentrating on the Silesian frontier, and the majority of the Hungarian parliament is ardently warlike. The Austrian war office is confident that there are sufficient forces in Central Lemberg, Przemysl and Czernowitz to arrest any Russian advance.

The upper house of the Prussian landtag, which began its session to-day, elected the duke of Ratibon, president; Herr Von Roehro, vice president, and Herr Miguel, second vice president.

A Reprieve For The Condemned.
Wretched men and women long condemned to suffer the tortures of dyspepsia, are filled with new hope after a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This budding hope blossoms into the fruition of certainty, if the Bitters is persisted in. It brings a reprieve to all dyspepsia who seek its aid. Flatulence, heartburn, sinking at the pit of the stomach when meals, the nervous tremors and insomnia of which chronic indigestion is the parent, disappear with their hateful progenitor. Most beneficent of stomachics! who can wonder that in so many instances it awakens grateful eloquence in those who, benefitted by it, speak voluntarily in its behalf. It requires a graphic pen to describe the tortures of dyspepsia, but in many of the testimonials received by the proprietors of the Bitters, these are portrayed with vivid truthfulness. Constipation, biliousness, muscular debility, malarial fevers and rheumatism are relieved by it.

—For Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. Sold by W. E. Dement.
—"Hackmetack" is a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by W. E. Dement.

Speaker Carlisle's Seat.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—In the secret session of the house committee on elections, when the Carlisle-Thomas case was disposed of, the first motion was to postpone the further consideration of the case, which was rejected by a strict party vote of 9 to 6. Then a motion was made to re-open the case. Rowell (Republican) asked to be excused from voting, and Cooper (Republican) voted with the Democrats. This motion was also lost.

Another motion was to declare Thomas entitled to his seat, and on this vote four Republican members were excused from voting, the remainder voting with the Democrats against the proposition.

Then came the final vote on the motion affirming Carlisle's right to his seat. All of the Democrats voted in favor of this proposition, and with them stood Cooper, Rowell and Johnson of Indiana, making the affirmative vote 13. Three members, Lyman, Houk and Dodge, Republicans, were excused, so that there was no negative vote.

The position taken by the Republicans who abstained from voting is that while they are not convinced that Carlisle is not entitled to his seat, it is proper for the committee to re-open the case and afford an opportunity for the production of any new evidence that might throw light upon the contest.

Under the instruction of the committee, chairman Crouse will report to the house a resolution declaring Carlisle entitled to his seat.

Alleged Infanticide.

SALEM, Jan. 14.—Mrs. J. B. George was arrested to-day, and charged with killing of an infant child. There is said to be some circumstantial evidence against her.

"I have no recollection of the transaction. It is all blank to me. This is all I have to say." The foregoing brief speech was made in open court at Hartford, Conn., on Tuesday morning, by John H. Swift, who murdered his wife and is to be hanged on April 5, 1889.

The blood cleansing qualities of Ayer's Sarsaparilla render it invaluable in skin disorders.
