Buyers of Eggs. Old Mose, who sells eggs and chickens on the streets of Austin for a living, is as honest an old negro as ever lived, but he has got the habit of chatting familiarly with his customers, hence he frequently makes mistakes in counting out the eggs they buy. He carries his wares around in small cart drawn by a diminutive donkey. He stopped in front of the residence of Mrs. Samuel Burton. The old lady herself came out to the gate to make the purchases.

"Have you got any eggs this morning, Uncle Mose?" she asked.

"Yes indeed, I has. Jess got in ten dozen from de kentry." "Are they fresh?" "I gua'ntee 'em. I knows dey am fresh jes de same as ef I had laid 'em myse'f."

"I'll take nine dozen. You can just count them into this basket." "All right, mum." He counts, "One, two, free, foah, five, six, seben, eight, nine, ten. You kin rely on dem bein' fresh. How's your son coming on at de school? He mus' be mos'

"Yes, Uncle Mose, he is a clerk in a bank at Galveston." "Why, how ole am de boy?"

THE INCURABLE

HOPPINSVILLE, KY., Feb. 24, 1881.
Gentlemen—Seven years ago a sere developed on my mose from a finger nail scratch. I wired a lew simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. I grew worse every year fur seven years. Many thought I had confere. Over a year ago I commenced taking S. S. S., and two dozen boties entirely cured my. When I began with Swift's Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drug about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S. I was strong and buoyant, and last a good ampetible. I regard it as a most valuable menteine for hales in weak, definite health. It is a household medicine with my.

Gentlemen—two or three years ago a cancer come on my face. It soon grew to be quite large. It wore on me, and my general insility was very poor. Last September I beams wowere on S. S. S. which I have continued to the present time with the happlest could, there being no evidence or symptom of a calceroese character left. My general beams to the present fact. My general beams in years. I am 82 years old, and boday I am working in the field planting corn. Yours truly. Jonas Entheach.

Gentlemen—I had a sore on my upper lip for eight years. Seven different doctors attempted in valu to heal it. One gave me a small vali for five dollars, which was a "cermin cure." It is needless to say that it did me no good. About two years and I became quite uneasy, as people thought I had a cancer, and I took a course of eighteen bottles of S. S. S. The result has been a complete sure. The uleer or cancer healed beautifult, leaving scarcely a perceptible sear. From that say I have been in excellent health, the Specific having partitled my blood thorough, phremssed my appetite and perfected my digestion. In a word, I feel like a new womm, and, best of all, the eight year ulcer is gone entirely. Yours sincerely.
