The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

There will be a general clearing out of ocean steam craft to-day.

The rate on express matter to the Atlantic coast is now $15 per hundred lbs.

The British bark Archer cleared for Queenstown yesterday, with 43,042 bus. wheat, worth $31,000.

The Washington territory legislature is about to adjourn, and our northern neighbors are breathing easier.

The new boat to be built by the O. R. & N. Co., to run between Portland and this city, will be called the Fan- nie Potter.

The first cargo of British Columbia salmon, pack of 1887, arrived at London on the 17th, the vessel being the Titania, which had 33,650 cases.

The Madrona which is to convey the Manzanita to San Francisco when she gets ready to come up here had not left San Francisco up to yesterday morning.

Capt. Jordan of the Gleaner, will pay $150 reward to parties finding the wreck of that boat this side Point Ellice, so that she can be reached and her machinery recovered.

Walla Walla editors seem to be trying to see who can say the hardest things about the unprogressive city in which they labor.

The recent ice at Shoalwater bay was a disastrous visitant to the oyster beds. The ice at low tide settled down on the beds and when it raised the ice took beds, oysters and all and scattered them far and wide.

Secretary of state Geo. W. McBride writes from San Francisco that his health has so gratifyingly improved that he is able to greatly enjoy his visit.

Buds are budding on bushes and trees, and the hillsides are taking on a brighter green, this warm moist weather.

Wm. Lundreth, of Independence, got angry at his step-daughter last Sunday morning and cut her to death with a knife as she lay in bed.

The Tacoma Ledger says "the Sound never freezes." Honors are easy. Neither does the deep blue bay on which Astoria is situated.

The Parker house is receiving a thorough overhauling and cleaning; new papering, painting, etc., and under the experienced management of its proprietor and owner, H. B. Parker, will shortly be opened for the accommodation of the traveling public.

Persons wishing to attend the hop to be given by the Select Knights on Thursday evening can secure tickets of W. A. Sherman, Herman Wise or H. A. Smith.

A brickyard, a bonded warehouse, a road to Clatsop, a new roadway, a flour mill, a railroad down the beach to furnish rock to the jetty and supply summer travel, something in the way of roads to show for road tax collected, are prominent among the local requirements of '88.

Andrew Reiersen, a well known resident of this city, died of pneumonia, from which he had long been a sufferer, at three o'clock last Sunday morning, in the 32nd year of his age.

The business men of Astoria owe at least a vote of thanks to J. W. Crow, of Knappa, for his unceasing energy in keeping the line between here and that place in something like working condition.

The Oregonian reports that the piling below the pivot pier of the Morrison street bridge is a complete wreck. It was broken by ice, and the rise of the river has completed the ruin and it is now a confused mass of timber floating on the surface.

There was some excitement and no little uneasiness yesterday morning over a rumor that there were two cases of smallpox in the city.

pox nearer than Portland, and with usual precaution there is not the slightest cause for alarm.

It is credibly reported that a fourth victim is to be added to the list of those drowned by the capsizing of the Glenner, off Tongue Point, last Saturday.

The circuit court room is receiving a renovation that will make a big difference in the looks and comfort of the temple of justice.

On Friday, says the Cowlitz river Pilot, Thos. D. Ayers shot and killed Eli Joseph, in the woods, twelve miles east of Kelso, Cowlitz county.

New York has a singular philanthropist in the person of H. M. Flagler, one of the Standard oil millionaires. His hobby is big hotel buildings.

The Seattle Press hasn't a very good opinion of Puget Sound pilots. Talking of the pilot bill now before the Washington territory legislature, it says: "The main object of the bill is to procure a class of licensed pilots competent and responsible, who can be obtained by the master of any vessel requiring their services."

T. S. Wilkes, of Columbia county, in a letter to the Oregonian, says: "My grand parents are, I believe, the oldest couple on the Pacific coast. They live at Greenville, Washington county. Peyton Wilkes was born in 1791, and so will be 97 years old next May."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ashley Bancroft is registered at the Occident.

H. S. Harcourt is in the city in the interests of the West Shore.

J. W. Hume is in Marshfield. The News of the 29th says he has sold his salmon pack at satisfactory figures.

Ben Young goes to Portland this morning. He has a fine lot in upper town and proposes putting a $6,000 house on it before the end of '88.

Matthew Keith, whom a good many Astorians remember as the proprietor of Keith's oyster house in Portland, was taken to the Salem insane asylum yesterday.

J. W. Hare yesterday received a telegram from California that his little daughter, who had been suffering from the measles, was taken suddenly worse. He goes to California on the Oregon to-day.

Under date of the 23rd, O. Norcross, of the Knights of Pythias bureau of relief, writes to Will A. Sherman that on the Saturday previous, C. C. Cady, who left here a few weeks ago, and who was a member of Pacific Lodge No. 17, K. of P., was taken with the smallpox and had been removed to the pesthouse.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

From The Land Of The Blizzard. Arguing on the Annexation of Northern Idaho.

MUNGER, Ind., Jan. 30.—This morning the eastward Baltimore & Ohio express came thundering into the city at a rate of 50 miles an hour and crashed into a freight engine standing just east of the depot.

THE BLOCKADE BROKEN. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The fury of the storms was not spent until Saturday afternoon. The railroads up to that time were completely at their mercy, but the companies began a vigorous fight against the drifts, which ended in a complete victory.

STOCK FROZEN TO DEATH. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 30.—Yesterday no idea of the fury of three days' blizzard could be ascertained on the New York Central. Between Buffalo and Syracuse nearly fifteen carloads of carloads of cattle and hogs, destined for Boston and New York, were frozen to death near Palmyra, and several carloads at other points.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—A long freight train west bound on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad has gone through the bridge two miles of Pine, Indiana. A brakeman named Conlter is the only person killed. The train caught fire and the resultant loss is very heavy.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—One of the largest fires in the city for months broke out in the store of Henry Rodgers & Co., 549 Broadway, early this morning, and destroyed five adjoining stores. Loss, one million five hundred thousand dollars.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 30.—The speaker and Mrs. Carlisle came ashore this morning from the revenue cutter and visited the fort. The speaker was received with a salute of seventeen guns.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Delegate Voorhees, of Washington territory, this morning addressed the senate committee on the territories in support of the bill to annex the Pan Handle of Idaho to Washington territory. Gov. Stevenson, of Idaho, opposed the change. On Friday the committee will hear arguments upon pending measures relating to affairs in Utah.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Everything seems to depend on the point of view from which one looks at the recent meeting of the New York Democratic state committee.

The Herald says Davis has fired the first shot from his ambuscade and brought down that great American bird, the goose. It is clear he got nothing else and feels very sick in consequence. A week ago he was the supposed friend of Cleveland, the trusted champion of the Democrats of the state and a sure candidate for governor. His real purpose stands revealed. He is no longer a friend of Cleveland's.

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—The funeral of the late Dr. Wm. H. Watkins took place to-day from Taylor street M. E. church. The attendance was very large.

COMMUNICATED. PORTLAND, Nov. 26, 1887. MY DEAR MR. WISDOM:

You have reason to feel proud of the success of Libertia. I have used it constantly for a whole year and find it beautiful and beneficial for the complexion. It possesses all the qualities you claim for it, and I have much pleasure in recommending it. The "Robertine Powder," your latest addition to the Artistic toilet, makes a charming finish and is worthy of its companion, Robertine.

ASSORTED SAMPLES.

Presidential campaign notes are already coming to the front. The Washington Critic is responsible for the following anagram compounds, made up of the names of candidates:

Blaine E. Hawley, Harrison, Cleveland, McKinley, Sherman, Evar T's, Morrison.

Another that is popular with some Democrats is becoming slightly faded: Hill, Morrison, Carlisle, Cleveland.

The Critic offers a few, which are quite as forceful and quite as accurate in their predictive action as the others. Take this:

Hawley, Blaine E., Harrison, Sherman, Gresham, Lincoln, Allison, Evar T's.

Or this: Sherman, Carlisle, Evar T's, Morrison.

And this one for a final send-off for the whole business:

Cleveland, Blaine E., Evar T's, Hawley, Sherman, Harrison, Gresham, Morrison.

In Galls, Blaine, Carlisle, Hill, Foraker, Sherman, Voorhees, Pendleton, Randall.

The endorsement of German Syrup is unparalleled. We will publish 1000 testimonials received during the last six months. Read them. May save your life.

BURLINGHAM, N. Y., May 31, '86. G. G. GREEN, Dear Sir:—I am frequently troubled with severe colds, and the only remedy that will relieve me of them is your Boschee's German Syrup.

I have used it for more than 12 years. It is a constant household companion with me. Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and says he has sold a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived before coming here. I advise everyone to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.

Yours respectfully, MOSES GRAY, Proprietor Grist Mill.

A Sure Cure Wanted.

Caller—Any back number of your paper? Editor—Yes, sir; which number do you wish?

"I don't know the date, but I saw a line in a paper to the effect that it had an article entitled "How to Lie When Asleep."

"I know what number you want. Having trouble at night, eh?" "I should say so. My wife says I talk in my sleep, and I know from the way she acts that I tell the truth."

Brace Up. You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before.

What you want is an alterative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at W. E. Dement & Co's Drug Store.
