No Flesh On Him.

Mahone does not weigh 100 ounds. His bones are as small as a diminutive lady's, and his brain is so active that it eats all the flesh off his frame. He seems this winter to be thinner than ever, and he shines out in strange contrast to his handsome wife. Mrs. Mahone watches Billy with care, and, like Mrs. Logan and the general, she was with him during a part of his military career. There was no southern officer braver than general Mahone, and the marrow of his bones is made up of courage. At the battle of Bull Run Mrs. Mahone stepped a few miles off, watching the smoke and hearing the thunder, when the report came to ber that her husband was wounded. A moment later came Mahone's servant to tell her his master's wound was not dangerous and that the shell had only upped open his flesh. Mrs. Mahone would not believe the messenger's story. She wept as she said: "It cannot be true. My dear will never have a flesh wound, for there is no flesh on little Billy Mahone."

The Only Remedy

Contagious Blood Poison.

Mr. D. R. Adams, Union, South Carolina, writes: "I was amiteted with a terrible case of blood poleon for about thirteen months, I was treated by the best physicians, and used various kinds of remedies, but received no substantial relief. I finally tried the Swift specific, and about four bottles cured me sound and well."

Col. R. H. Kleser, editor and proprietor of the Opelian, ain., Fines, under date of August 3, 1887, writes: "When I was a young man, through indiscretion, I contracted a disease which has stuck to make it difficult for me to walk. Having advertised it was troubled with pains, so as to make it difficult for me to walk. Having advertised the S. S. S. in my paper for several plant was any officacy in the medicine. I concluded I would try it to see if there was any officacy in the medicine. I summenced using it according to directions and used half dozen bottles. I was once at a way station and, etting left, I walked the seven miles and have never felt any return of the old malady. After experiencing the road offices i must say I am satisfied with result. I am stay eight years of age and I feel now like a young man and can go to the case when necessary and set up from six to eight thousand ems without any inconvenience. to eight thousand cms without any inconvenience. I send you this without solicitation.

Mr. F. Woehl, 211 North Avenue, Chicago, under date of June 12, 1851, writes: "I deem in my duty to thank you for the cure I received from your excellent medicine. I contracted a very severe case of blood poisoning about two years ago. Hearing of your medicine, I went to a drug store, the proceeder of which persuaded me to buy a medicine, I went to a drug store, the proceeder of which persuaded me to buy a medicine of this own, which he said was a more fare. I used six bottles of his stuff, and yow women all the line. At last I got dients ed and despaired for a cure. I met a riend was told me that your medicine had cured lim. I went to the same druggist amili and demanded your medicine. He relectantly sold me twelve bottles, and I am now perfectly cured. I write this for the benefit of sufferers, to prevent their being deceived by false representations. I thank you again for the benefit derived from your medicine."

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a prominent physician.

you main for the benefit derived from your modicine.

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a prominent physician, residing in Eliaville, Senley County, Georgin, in a letter recounting the infallible success he has it earing contagious blood poisson enses in his extensive practice, writes. "Those win know the almost inevitable, permanently, dangerous effects of mercury will welcome your discovery of S. S. as a boon to humanity. The medical profession, always wary of proprietary medicines, is coming slowly, and in some cases secretly, to the use of S. S. S. in cases of blood disorder. Of course a medicine that cures poisoning in its worst form must purify the blood of every shorder."

smarring or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin, whitish line, again changing to a dark, torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. DR. SPINNEY will Gunrantee a Perfect Cure in such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
