THE SURVIVORS' STORY.

A Full List of the Officers and Crew of the Lost "Abercorn."

Angus McLeod says: "Two days after taking pilot aboard held down to the south and west, trying to keep to windward of the port; lead was hove first Friday, January 27th between 7 and 8 P. M.; found thirty become disordered by Scrofula, for fathom; took soundings next morning 8:30; no bottom at fifty fathoms; at 4 A. M. January 30th vessel was being steered by the wind, making a course of southeast half east; Rankin left the wheel, being relieved by James Durst; the first mate went aloft on the mizzen mast thinking we were off the month of the Columbia river and looking for the lighthouse light; this was in the second mate's watch. Rob't Rankin says he first saw Pilot

Johnson on deck at five that morning; the vessel's sail was then reduced to two lower topsails and foresail and foretopmast staysail and she was going through the water at about four knots an honr; the wind was S. S. W.; heard order to get lead ready to sound and went into mizzen rigging; just then the vessel struck; then all hands were ordered on deck The sea began breaking over the stern; the port boat was got ready but the seas broke all four boats; the ship struck at nearly low water; at eleven, nearly high water the fore and main masts went by the board, falling seaward and breaking the deck; then a big sea carried off the pilot, the second mate, two men and two boys. The rest of the crew took to the mizzen rigging, Rankin and Mc Leod and the boy Aitkin getting higher up than the rest; the men all thought the mizzen mast would fall to starboard but it fell to port and took all the men with it. tangling them in the running rigging and shroads, holding them down and drowning them. The three saved made out by the help of the two Indians Tony and Sam to get to shore. Both the men consider their escape conderful, which it was. They say that at no time did they see the slightest sign of intoxication on the part of anyone on board the vessel Their belief is that the vessel was lost because soundings were not taken at the time the watches were changed at four o'clock in the morn ing, when the second mate's watch came on deck. THE OFFICERS AND CREW. Following is a complete list of the names and residence of the officers and crew, all of whom with pilot Johnson of this city, were drowned,

From childhood, and until with a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier. — Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt. I suffered for a year with inflamma-tion in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was final-ly induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

By Taking three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been re-stored, and there is no sign of inflamma-

How a Dying Child Was Saved!

The following is a true account of what your 8, 8, 8, has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 months old a lumpappeared on her heel, which slowly grow larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle finger and thumb of either hand became enlarged, the flesh beoming hard. The hip joints became involv ed, so that when seventeen months old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was wrecked, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Bos-ton, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1986 We took the child away not knowing what to do. In this dreadful dilemma we were over-persuaded by friends to try "one bot-tle" of Swift's Specific, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a change for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord wills, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hasel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashen hue of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a blithe, cheerful, happy romping child. Should you wish to inerease your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S.S.S., our names and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them. Kindly yours, BEN. F. SWIFT.
