

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1888

A BILL prohibiting persons subject to disease from contracting marriage is before the Kentucky legislature.

SOUTH CAROLINA has only two legs in the United States senate. Butler has one of them and Hampton the other.

FISH COMMISSIONER SHERWOOD, of California, looks for a small catch of salmon on the Sacramento river for a number of years.

The Stockton, Kan., Democrat tells of a man in Rooks county, who has been arrested for stealing a school house. He had removed the building to his own residence and converted it into a kitchen.

The famous Goodwin Sands in the British channel are disappearing. They have receded toward the Kentish coast half a mile within a short time, and show signs of generally breaking up.

The Democrats, in framing a tariff bill, propose to recognize the fact that protection has become part of the general business system, and so moderate the measure as to command many Republican votes.

The West End in Boston represents all that is good and desirable in urban life; and so we are not surprised to see the Boston Advertiser coining the word "Westendness" to describe that state of perfection which is attained nowhere outside of Boston.

PENNSYLVANIA was the first state to adopt an arbitration law, yet it has been rarely used, and when resorted to its results have often been overthrown. Last year Pennsylvania had nearly 33 per cent. of the entire number of strikes in the country.

A NEW pension scheme is on foot and widely endorsed in the New England states for the government to pay each soldier in full for his services; that is, make good the deficiency caused by a depreciated currency at the time he received his pay for active service.

THERE is a little boom going around the state for J. C. Leasure, of Pendleton, for congress. Mr. Leasure is not the kind of stuff that congressmen are made of, and should be nominated he would be allowed to stay at home with a cheerful unanimity that would reflect great credit on the good sense of the people of Oregon.

"During January," the Baltimore American says, "there was enough cases of heroism in this country to make a hundred thrilling romances. They show with gratifying emphasis that the element of courage is still a large part of the American character, and prove that such deeds do not necessitate great circumstances to make people brave."

IX all the history of the human race woman was never so charming, never so beautiful and never so useful as she is to-day. She has developed with civilization and advanced with progress until her power has penetrated every department of the world's work. It is difficult to find any sphere of business activity in which she is not an important factor.

SOME people are disposed to think that "trusts" are a recent and an American invention, and others imagining that they are the fruit of the protection policy. A London paper, however, gives this list of similar industrial combinations on that side of the Atlantic: "English and German iron tube makers, English metal rollers, English coffin furniture makers, English Galvanized Iron Trade Association, German bar-iron makers, German rolled-iron makers, coal mines in the Ruhr and Warm districts (on the model of the German rolling-mills) Silesian spelter-makers, syndicate in copper, syndicate in the Belgian bar-iron and nail-rod makers."

SOMETHING unheard of before has just occurred at Los Angeles, which has excited a great deal of comment. For some weeks past there has been a coal famine there. Prices rose from $12 to $18 per ton. Then as the supply decreased, the dealers steadily increased the price until $30 per ton in small lots was charged for ordinary coal. At this juncture the Santa Fe railroad company, seeing the suffering and inconvenience caused by this coal corner, despatched special trains to the coal mines of New Mexico and have just taken a large supply to that city. It is only sold to consumers in small lots at old prices, and the speculators are not allowed to get any of it. Such an act as this readily accounts for the growing popularity of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad company in southern California.

SET IN SHORT METRE.

Blaine's letter surprised London. Smallpox is still epidemic in San Francisco.

Effort is being made in congress to defeat the oleomargarine law.

There is a complete postal service between Astoria and San Francisco via Portland and Ashland.

Senator Sherman says he isn't worrying about the Republican presidential nomination and doesn't care if he doesn't get it.

Blair's fool bill to give the several states $77,000,000 for educational purposes, passed the senate last Wednesday by a vote of 39 to 23.

China is actively advancing arrangements with a view of attempting to reconquer Kuldja and Amour, in the event of a European war.

Collector Magone, of New York, promises some startling discoveries shortly in regard to opium smuggling along the Canadian border.

The fisheries treaty between the United States and Great Britain, affecting only the north Atlantic coast, was signed at Washington by the fish commissioners last Wednesday.

Bismarck, at a dinner given by him in Berlin last Friday, to members of the reichstag, alluded, in the course of conversation, to the recent pacific utterances of some Russian newspapers, symptoms of a general desire for peace.

STEEN HUNDRED STS. - A MAN'S.

Do not hesitate to see that Steen hundred and 818 is something very choice and good for ladies who desire to see. And when they meet their proper fit we bet we don't exaggerate when boldly we asseverate that not a woman will be fit in gobbling up the tempting 18. Tho' well it is awhile to us than strike out at too swift a gal, yet we would sincerely like to see a gal proceasins and w8 and w8 and w8 till the propotions 818 has passed beyond a living 88. Her love affairs all complete her temper some--capers (like Billy Shakspeare's "Shrew" girl K8) her m8less heart disconsols, from tender feelings sepa8r, her womanhood then dissip8, her very life commensur8 with every dreary darkened 8. But needless to expati8 upon the future loveless 818 of her who prudish sits sed8 within her close-barred bower g8 and rumm8 and cogit8 (8 wed-or-not-to-wed de88), and see the leap-year emigr8. By Our Po8.

COMMUNICATED.

PORTLAND, Nov. 26, 1887. MY DEAR MR. WISDOM: You have reason to feel proud of the success of Robertine. I have used it constantly for a whole year and find it beautiful and beneficial for the complexion. It possesses all the qualities you claim for it, and I have much pleasure in recommending it. The "Robertine Powder," your latest addition to the Artistic toilet, makes a charming finish and is worthy of its companion, Robertine.

Yours truly, JEANNIE WENSTON.

S'JACOBS OIL

WHAT IT CAN DO.

That St. Jacobs Oil has again and again wrought its miracles just in the nick of time, has bridged over the critical emergency and has

at the point of death, is fully attested by the record of many extraordinary cures in which this fact of saving life is duly set forth.

It is to its remarkable virtues in the permanent cure of chronic cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, after years of endurance wherein everything else proved valueless, fortunes were spent in vain and crutches and crutches were the manifestations, is to be added its supreme sovereignty over pain, even unto death, it is wholly entitled to the appellation of

The Conqueror of Pain.

Its specific action is especially adapted with a curative penetration and soothing effect to arrest any pain at the acute of its worst influence. St. Jacobs Oil is especially useful in those cases where the pain is so severe as to be added its supreme sovereignty over pain, even unto death, it is wholly entitled to the appellation of

can be cited in proof, which is thoroughly verified. It is in its main features taken from a leading Liverpool paper as follows: "Two years ago," states Mr. Wm. Buchanan, residing No. 8 St. John's Road, Kirkcaldy, Liverpool, and twenty-four years in the service of the Cunard S. S. Co., "I was taken down with the most excruciating pain in my head, which was followed by Twelve Months of Agony.

All physicians agreed that it would lead to softening of the brain and death. Six of the most eminent attended me, but gave no relief. I had to be held down, and my screams were heard outside. My case was deemed incurable. My wife procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and applied it to my head. It acted like magic. I was cured by it and am now in perfect health, and I have not had the slightest return since I was cured some months ago."
