Fire! Fire!
Is one of the greatest blessings when you have it under control. If you build your fire in one of those Magazine Ranges or one of those Acorns or Argands at John A. Montgomery's, you will find it a pleasure to prepare a meal, or if you get one of those Heaters you will find them to be clean and economical and an ornament to your parlor. If you intend getting a range or a heater don't fail to look at his stock. You should call in to see his beautiful Ornamental Coal Vases.
THIS PAPER is on file in Philadelphia at the Newspaper Advancing Agency of James J. O. BOZORTH.

LIVING MONARCHS OF EUROPE.
One Queen, Three Emperors, One Sultan, Thirteen Kings and Two Presidents.

Queen Victoria holds a place among the oldest sovereigns of Europe. In May of next year she will be seventy years of age. She has been on the throne for half a century. She enjoys good health and bids fair to reign and live for many years yet. If she attain the age of her grandfather, George III, she will wield the scepter (barring accidents) up to the year 1901. If at that time her son, the Prince of Wales, becomes king he will have reached the ripe age of sixty years and his tendency to baldness will doubtless have become more marked than it is now.

The new German emperor Frederick is fifty-seven years of age, and his empress, the daughter of Queen Victoria, is forty-eight. Judging from photographs, he does not closely resemble his departed father in the face, but she looks very much like her mother.

The King of the Belgians, Leopold II, is fifty-three years old, and if he should reign until he reaches the age at which his father died he will be king up to the year 1910. He has been on the throne nearly twenty-three years.

The Emperor of Austria, Francis Joseph, is fifty-eight years old, and he has worn the imperial crown for forty years. His predecessor was his uncle, who abdicated the throne in his favor when but fifty-five years of age, because he was tired of the turmoil and trouble. Francis Joseph is a polished scholar, a linguist, an equestrian, an admirer of military pomp and a charmer. He is healthy, and bids fair to reign for a long time yet (barring accidents).

The King of Italy, Humberto I, is forty-four years old and has worn the crown since the death of his father, ten years ago. He is but the second of the kings of united Italy, and his throne is in the Eternal City of Rome.

The Emperor of Russia, Alexander III, is forty-three years old, and mounted the throne after the murder of his father seven years ago.

The King of Denmark, Christian IX, is seventy years of age, or a year older than Queen Victoria, and is the second oldest monarch in Europe. He has wielded the scepter for a quarter of a century, or just half as long as the British queen. One of his daughters is the wife of the Russian czar, another of them is the wife of the heir-apparent to the British crown, and his second son is king of Greece.

The King of Sweden and Norway, Oscar II, is in his sixtieth year, and has reigned for sixteen years. He has favored some reforms.

The King of Portugal, Luis I, is fifty years old, and is a man of enterprise and progress. He has been for twenty-seven years a king.

The power and authority of the King of Spain, Alfonso XIII, who is not yet two years old, is limited by the regency of his mamma. He never saw his royal sire.

The King of Greece, or King of the Hellenes, George I, is forty-three years of age, and has been king for a quarter of a century, or since he was eighteen, at which age he was elected to the Hellenic throne. He finds it a hard job to rule the modern Greeks or keep their favor.

The Sovereign or Sultan of Turkey, Abdul Hamid II, is forty-six years old, and succeeded to the throne twelve years ago, when the majesty who preceded him was deposed. He is the twenty-eighth sultan since the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks.

The King of the Netherlands, William III, is the oldest monarch in Europe, being now of the age of seventy-one, and entered upon the fortieth year of his reign last Saturday week, which was St. Patrick's day, though he is a scion of the royal house of Orange. Even in Holland the old monarch is merry at times.

The King of Roumania, Carol I, is forty-nine years of age, and was proclaimed king only seven years ago, but before that time he had been for fourteen years the domnal of his subjects.
The King of Servia, Milan I, is thirty-four, and was crowned only six years ago, but before that he had held the throne for fourteen years by election as Prince Milan Obrenovic IV. He is the fourth of his dynasty since Servia threw off the Turkish yoke in 1829. His predecessor was assassinated.

The reigning Prince of Montenegro is Nicholas I, who is forty-seven years old, and has reigned for twenty-eight years.

In Germany there are three kings beside the Emperor of Germany and the King of Prussia, who are one. There are the King of Bavaria, the King of Wurtemberg and the King of Saxony.

There are in Europe two kingless countries—France and Switzerland. Both of these republics seem to be able to get along and keep the peace without the guidance of kings or emperors.

The president of the French republic, M. Carnot, is fifty-one years of age, and was elected to office in December last. He is a graduate of the Polytechnic school in Paris, and held various offices before his election as president. There are over thirty-eight million people in the French republic.

In the republic of Switzerland the highest official of the Government is the president of the Federal Assembly, holds office for the term of one year and enjoys a salary of $3,000 per annum. The president for the present year is W. F. Hertenstein.

Refused Citizenship.
Of four persons who applied to Judge Deady yesterday to be admitted to citizenship, one was refused, for the reason that he had not lived a year in the state. The statute requires that a party applying for his final papers must prove that he has resided five years in the United States and one year at least in the state or territory where the application is made. Settlers along the Columbia in Washington territory frequently make application here to be admitted to citizenship, as it is more convenient for them and the court is always open, whereas, in the territory they may have to travel a long distance and court is only held at long intervals. Having completed their residence, they think they are entitled to be admitted in any court, but this cannot be done. Persons who have not resided one year in Oregon will find it useless to apply to the courts here.—Oregonian, 4.

Delicate persons, and all whose systems have become debilitated, should bear in mind that Simmons' Liver Regulator is not a drastic, purging medicine, does not weaken or deplete the system as other purgatives do, but acts gently. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Ga. says: "Simmons' Liver Regulator is mild suits me better than more active remedies."

In one day week before last forty-one families left Adams and Thompson townships in Seneca county, Ohio. They made up several freight trains with their goods, and all were bound for Kansas.

Do not lie awake nights and cough! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will relieve the cough and induce a good night's rest.

Ecuador has just elected a new President and without a revolution. Southward the star of civilization takes its way.

In place of that constantly tired feeling, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will give you strength.
