Ice cream at Whitcomb's Telephone restaurant to-day.

All the salmon cargoes of '87 from this coast to England have arrived out.

The band of hops had a pleasant picnic on the hillside yesterday afternoon.

Hogquiam, on Gray's harbor, is shipping mess pork from Chicago, via Astoria.

The Telephone No. 2, is expected to make her first trip to Astoria next Sunday.

The steamer Montezano will leave at two o'clock this afternoon for Westport and way landings.

Several Wisconsin and Michigan men were in town last week looking up timber tracts and mill sites in this vicinity.

The small steamer fleet has been greatly diminished in '88, seven having been sold or hauled off since January 1st.

A portion of the estate of the late W. W. Corcoran, the Washington philanthropist, is some valuable land in this county.

The Dirigo club are having a handsome banner made and will fling it to the breeze over their club room next Tuesday night.

Lot 1, blk. 96, McClure's Astoria, sold yesterday by C. S. Wright, guardian of the J. S. Moore heirs, was bought by P. W. Weeks, for $350.

At the Republican club meeting last evening speeches were made by C. W. Fulton, C. B. Watson, Reem Kanaga, W. H. Barker and others.

The Columbia arrived in yesterday morning with about 65 tons freight. The Oregon left out with 75 tons shooks, and 75 sks. oysters.

At the Democratic club meeting last evening speeches were made by Judge Page, Dr. Alfred Kinney, George Johnson, C. J. Curtis and A. A. Cleveland.

One by one, and two by two, and otherwise, valuable claims are being filed in this county. Every year sees a large area formerly government land occupied by settlers.

The old cannon from the Sylvia de Grace, reposes in solitary state on the northeast corner of Flavel's dock. It is believed to be unloaded. The last time it was fired was in March 1855.

It is believed that not more than sixty per cent. of the number of boats that were out last season are fishing below Tongue point this year. The average catch last week was considerably more than during April.

Ole Sands desires to return his sincere thanks to those who testified by their presence at the funeral last Friday their kindly regard for his late father, John P. Sands, who died last Thursday at the advanced age of 80 years.

It turns out, after all, says the Mist, that the "Washington" county coal fields are in Columbia county. We are not excited, as it has been known for a long time that the Nehalem valley possesses large deposits of excellent coal.

The Fibery association had a ball at the Liberty Hall last evening. The Western Amateur band, comprising the entire organization furnished the music. The intention of the association is to have a social dance at the hall every Saturday night.

The Polar Bear went out yesterday bound to Alaska. The steamer blew their whistles, Capt. Hughtler fired a salute from his brass cannon, the pilots ran up the stars and stripes and the steamer dipped her colors in response to the hilarity on the shore.

Street superintendent Clinton has the boss badge. It is cut out of a trade dollar, has a shield and appropriate legend engraved, and was given to him by the Portland municipality when he officiated in a similar capacity in that city years and years ago.

The unprecedented demand for lumber from the Columbia for California has fallen off considerably in the past six weeks. At present there is but one coaster loading at the West Shore mills. The Clatsop mill is busy on local orders, which always constitute an active demand.

Mrs. Maggie McLean died at Westport, at six o'clock yesterday morning, of consumption, in the 23rd year of her age. She leaves a sorrowing husband and two children to mourn her loss. The funeral will be tomorrow afternoon. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. D. H. Welch of this city.

Services at Grace church to-day as usual, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Bishop Morris will occupy the pulpit at both services and in the evening will administer the apostolic rite of confirmation. A confirmation service will also be held at the Holy Innocent's chapel, Upper Astoria at 8:30 in the afternoon.

The twinkling lights at night in the myriad boats on the broad expanse of the Columbia form a unique sight to those unused to the spectacle. The lights appear and disappear as the boats heave and toss on the water, and as when light clouds are blown between the beholder and the stars in the sky, so with the flashing of those stars on the sea.

"Well," said a lady yesterday, just off the Columbia, "it just does me good to see that green grass and those beautiful trees." She had been in San Diego county, Cal., where they chop wood with a hammer, cut hay with a hoe, and plant corn with a crowbar, and where water in plenty is the only thing that will make anything but horned toads grow.

Hotel waiter (in southern California)—Orange-saw sliced quartered stewed fried baked? Guest desperately—"I don't want 'em in any shape. I want meat and potatoes." "Meat?" "Yes, meat." "Potatoes?" "Yes potatoes." Waiter (to proprietor a few minutes later)—"Send for the police, crazy man in the dining-room."

The steady increase in the circulation of THE DAILY ASTORIAN is an item worthy of note. With six papers delivered by carrier in this city, Astoria, for a city of its size, is abundantly supplied. There are more ASTORIANS printed than any other two combined, and the intention is to continue to make it the most sought after of any paper on the lower Columbia.

Flavel's dock is receiving considerable extension east and west; on the side toward Thompson & Ross the area formerly occupied by the mosquito fleet is being covered with piles soon to be floored over, and the contract has been let for driving 223 piles on the west side of the dock. When the night boats and the Fannie Potter at that dock, and the Telephone and possibly one other at Wilson & Fishers' dock, all congregate there, it will be a lively part of town.

M. J. Kinney has returned from an extended trip through the Union. Twice a year Mr. Kinney goes through all parts of the country and makes comparison and observation of the different sections. While riding through Nebraska last week he was amused by a conversation he accidentally overheard between two men on the seat in front of him. "I bought 100 tons of good timothy last week for $3 a ton!" "Well, you paid too much," said the other, "it ain't worth over $2.75." That sort of truck brings $20 a ton in Clatsop.

A large force of men was employed yesterday in getting the track of the Astoria street railway company ready for biz. One of the bran spanned cars in all the glittering glory of varnish and polished trimmings, was run out of the O. R. & N. dock and drawn a ways toward where the curve on the track is being finished at the point where it curves to the south, parallel with the street on which O'Brien's hotel is built. Fred Newell answered 781 questions as to the probable future movements of the company and 74 small boys and 511 larger ones tried the brake and pronounced it O. K. The horses are all here and as soon as the track is dug out the ponies will be put through their paces and the procession will start. The present idea is to begin as soon as everything is ready.

THE GREAT GRABBER CHECKED. Lynching of a California Murderer. News Specials From Europe and the East.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Times publishes the following triple-headed special from New York, which it indorses as coming direct from a most authentic source:

New York, May 4. I have entirely reliable information that the friends of Blaine have, within the last three days, received, direct from him, his assent to an aggressive movement for his renomination for president, and assurance that if nominated, in the face of his Florence letter of declination, he would not feel at liberty to decline.

A general and systematic effort has been made by Blaine's closest friends, such as Chairman Jones, Wm. Walter Phelps, Whitely Smith, Chas. Eastey Smith and others, for two months past, to get Blaine into the attitude of a passive candidate. The Washington conference was only a part of varied methods by which influence has been brought to bear upon Blaine, and the publication of his portrait, freshly taken from life in Italy, and issued by the Judge this week, was decided on more than a month ago as the starting point for the effort to make Blaine a candidate.

Every possible pressure has been put on Blaine to get from him direct assurance that he will not decline if nominated, and that assurance has been received in the last few days more or less. In a very few days more it will cease to be a secret that Blaine is in the hands of his friends, as the Blaine leaders will at once come to the front and make an aggressive campaign for his nomination.

This movement has been pretty clearly foreshadowed for some weeks in such Blaine organs as the Tribune of this city, and the Philadelphia Press, and all affectionate about Blaine's candidacy will now soon be thrown off and the battle made an aggressive one.

A part of the original programme was the election of Charles Emory Smith as delegate at large from New York state, and the fair and impartial treatment to the Blaine junta in this city; but Mr. Smith gives assurance that Blaine can command a majority of the Pennsylvania delegation under any circumstances, and that if Blaine is nominated and elected, he will be a delegate to the national convention.

When all of the anti-Blaine men were reposing on their arms, because they regarded Blaine out of the fight, the friends of Blaine were most energetic in their work in two anti-Blaine New England states, and they have got possession of Vermont and Massachusetts while the others were sleeping in fancied security. It was the expression of these states that made Blaine cast aside his doubts, and assent to the importunities of his friends for renomination.

It is now a positive fact that Blaine is in the field; that his friends have his assent to a movement in his favor, and that he will be nominated at Chicago, if hard work and plenty of enthusiasm can accomplish it.

A Warning. The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that every one, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death.

At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without your attention is dangerous and may cost you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boscbee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Last Evening's Entertainment. There was a good entertainment and pleased audience at the Opera house last evening and a most attractive programme was successfully presented.

"The Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock," a recitation by Miss Annie Frye, preceded a brief introduction by Rev. Geo. C. Hall, of Major Hendershot, who with his son who played on the fife, gave some stirring music to the drum. This was followed by clever little Miss Edith Conn, whose elocutionary powers are most unusual. She had previously played a difficult accompaniment on the piano, and now came forward in a well recited selection. Major Hendershot's imitation of an engine going up a steep grade and through a tunnel was realistic; he followed it by "The Girl I Left Behind Me," and after another recitation by Edith Conn, the Major called Messrs. Elmore, Wright, Stockton, Hall and Baker on the stage, singing the praises of the white army team, to the tune of the "Sweet Bye and Bye," joining in the chorus and being strongly reinforced by the boys in the gallery. Mrs. Elmoheimo appeared in a picturesque Finnish costume and in response to an encore sang a second song in her native language. A finely rendered recitation by Mrs. Mary Kinney, "Roger and I," her lightest utterance being distinctly heard in every part of the hall, was followed by "Marching through Georgia," on the fife and drum. Mrs. Frank Stokes then favored the audience with a song sung with great feeling and expression. Miss Myra Stevens accompanied, after which Rev. A. LeRoy recited in most excellent manner "The Veteran's Return."

The Major who is a hearty, cheery man, and a splendid performer on the drum, then played numerous selections, and stated that he had determined to take up his future residence in Ashland in this state. He was loudly applauded, and it he visits Astoria again may be assured of a hearty welcome.

THE GREAT GRABBER CHECKED. Lynching of a California Murderer. News Specials From Europe and the East.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Jay Gould and other officers of the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Co.s were served yesterday with an order to show cause why they should not be made to halt in their endeavors to get absolute control of the International & Great Northern railroad, and sever it from its owner, the Missouri, Kansas & Texas. The order was obtained from Judge Barrett by counsel for Wm. Landow Ball and Wm. Martinson, representing a majority of the stockholders who propose to oust the Gould board at the annual election on May 16.

Judge Barrett also granted temporary injunction restraining Gould and associates from in any way "monkeying" with stock or securities of the Missouri, Kansas & Pacific or the International & Great Northern, or in any way changing the status of either company until after the annual election, and they are all ordered to show cause in addition why their acts in relation thereto that they have recently done, should not be declared void.

It was only last Tuesday or Wednesday that Ball and Martinson learned that Gould and his associates had by clever manipulation secured control of about all the stock and bonds of the International & Great Northern without the payment of a cent in money, and that the directors of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas had hurriedly agreed to cancel the lease of the International to their road. They at once took measures to frustrate the schemes, with the result mentioned.

LYNCHED BY A MOB. ST. HELENA, Cal., May 5.—John Wright, who shot and killed Budd Vann in this town two weeks ago, was taken from jail early this morning by a mob of masked men and hanged to a bridge at the head of the main street. Wright had been confined in the county jail at Napa since the shooting, but was brought here yesterday for preliminary examination. No one suspected that an attempt at lynching would be made.

At one o'clock this morning Justice, Elgin, who had the jail keys, was called to his door, surrounded by the mob and forced to give the keys up. The crowd then took the prisoner from the jail and in ten minutes his body was hanging from the bridge. No arrests have been made, but the tragedy is deplored by all law abiding citizens.

The shooting of young Vann occurred near a house of ill fame. Vann and some companions were standing near by when some one threw rocks at the window; Wright, who was a brother of an inmate, was in the house at the time, and immediately fired a shot, striking Vann.

THE IRISH QUESTION. LONDON, May 5.—Gladstone gave audience to three Parnellite members of parliament Thursday. Lord Roseberry was also present. The subject that was discussed was a proposal to draft an Irish local government scheme as a stepping stone to home rule.

CHURCH AND STATE. DUBLIN, May 5.—At the request of Catholic members of parliament the lord mayor of Dublin convened a meeting to-day for the purpose of discussing the Pope's rescript. Resolutions were adopted transcribing the statements by which the Pope justified the rescript and assuring his holiness of unalterable attachment to him in his spiritual capacity, but firmly and respectfully, but emphatically refusing to recognize his right to intervene in Irish politics. Meetings will be held throughout West Clare to-morrow to protest against the papal rescript on the grounds that the Pope is ignorant of the sufferings of the people of Clare.

GOING TO SCOTLAND. NEW YORK, May 5.—Mrs. Andrew Carnegie has received a letter from Mrs. James G. Blaine accepting an invitation to join Carnegie's coaching party through the Scottish highlands about the sixth of June. Mr. Blaine's friends assert this is evidence of the improved health of James G., if he can take such a trip.

THE EMPEROR'S CONDITION. BERLIN, May 5.—The emperor passed a tolerably good night and slept well; early this morning he rose and received a verbal report from Genl. Albedylo. His temperature during the past 24 hours has been the lowest since the fever began. He walked up and down his apartment. His appetite is good.

RAISING THE QUARANTINE. LIMA, May 5.—The government has declared Peruvian ports open to Chilean traffic with the exception of ports between Valparaiso and Antofagasta, in which zone some cases of cholera are still reported.

CHOLERA IN MADRID. MADRID, May 5.—An epidemic prevails in this city. It is feared the disease is cholera in its nature and its spread is attributed to extreme heat and impure milk.
