DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
A Full County Ticket Nominated.

The Democratic county convention met at their club room at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was called to order by the chairman, Dr. Alfred Kinney, H. Wise, secretary. The chairman stated that the convention which met at Liberty Hall, March 30th, had adjourned to this date to nominate the next county officers. Geo. Johnson moved that the chairman cast the vote for the absent delegates, or those not reported as present; motion lost. Mayor Page came in and asked at what stage the proceedings were, and suggested that it would be well to appoint county residents outside the city to represent precincts otherwise unrepresented. The suggestion was acted upon, and on motion of C. R. Thomson, J. T. Mulkey was appointed to represent Seaside precinct; on motion of C. H. Page, John Rogers was appointed to represent Westport precinct, and J. W. Denver, Fishhawk precinct.

The committee on order of business, consisting of Herman Wise, Geo. Noland, H. A. Smith, Geo. M. Rowe and Alex. Campbell, was called on for a report.

Mayor Page moved to clear the hall of all except delegates and go into caucus till 6 o'clock, p. m., then to reopen for public deliberation; seconded.

The chairman had the secretary read list of those entitled to seats in the convention as furnished by A. V. Fendleton, Wm. Book and Wm. Pohl, committee on credentials.

The following names were accorded seats as entitled to seats in the convention:

ASTORIA PRECINCT: George Noland, L. Ohler proxy, J. P. Dickinson, Thos. Boelling, J. E. Higgins, O. B. Estes, Thos. Dealey, Alex. Campbell, Wm. Pohl, P. W. Weeks, by George M. Rowe proxy, C. H. CLATSOP: John Thomas by R. L. McEwan proxy, J. A. Loomis by R. L. McEwan proxy.

MISHAWAKA: R. M. Wooden by J. W. Denver proxy.

WESTPORT: Jno. Rogers.

The remaining precincts were unrepresented.

Mayor Page changed motion to read that the house be cleared of all not delegates and that the convention then resolve itself into a caucus to discuss further business. A motion to make the time of resuming open session four o'clock instead of six o'clock was accepted and the motion as amended was carried. Robert Grant was appointed doorkeeper, the reporters and spectators withdrew, and at 2:30 o'clock the convention went into executive session.

At 4:30 the caucus adjourned, having balloted for and otherwise made up their ticket and entirely decided upon the nominations, and after a few minutes was again called to order, the doors being opened and outsiders admitted. The roll of the delegates was called, after which, on motion of Mayor Page, a recommendation was read from the caucus that the following nominations for the several offices be made: State senator, J. F. Page; representative, Geo. Noland, Jno. H. Smith; county commissioner, John Warnstaff, Jas. Brown; sheriff, W. G. Ross; clerk, C. J. Trenchard; treasurer, Isaac Bergman; assessor, Thos. Logan; school superintendent, C. R. Thomson; coroner, W. H. Zinnwald; surveyor, left to central committee; justice of the peace, Astoria precinct, A. A. Cleveland; constable, H. A. Smith.

Mayor Page moved that the report of the caucus be adopted and the names given be considered the unanimous choice of the convention for the various county offices to be filled at the election on the fourth of next month. The motion was unanimously agreed to. The chair stated that Hon. J. K. Weatherford would address the citizens at the opera house at eight o'clock this evening, that Jno. M. Gearin, democratic nominee for congress, and Gov. Penney would speak on the 28th, and Jno. P. O'Connell, of California, on the 1st of June. He also stated that Hon. C. Leinenweber would speak at the meeting at the opera house to-night. The chair made some further remarks eulogistic of the Democratic candidates and Democratic principles and said the ground upon which he stood was secured to the United States by Thomas Jefferson.

Dr. J. F. Page being loudly called for came forward and made a brief speech. He said that he had lately returned to Democratic principles, same as parties of the long time past. There were two forces in the solar system, the one centrifugal, the other centripetal, so with parties, one tending to sectionalism and disunion, the other to centralization, both equally subversive to the life of the republic. It was a mistake to enfranchise the negro; this government is a political self-partnership. We belong to a dominant race living in a latitude that has produced the highest efforts in human progress and the negro vote should not be a factor in our government. He eulogized the late S. J. Tilden, with whose writings he thought every Democrat should be familiar, and closed by thanking the convention for the honor conferred upon him.

Mayor Page being called on said "we have had a caucus and a harmonious convention, and I shall heartily support, work for and vote for every nominee on the ticket." Sheriff Ross in response to calls said that he thanked the convention for the nomination for a third term; that he had not sought the nomination, had not got rich during the two terms that he had held the office of sheriff, but would cheerfully accept the nomination and make the race. He didn't know and didn't care who his opponent would be, but would meet him in a fair honest race. Through the two campaigns in which he was elected sheriff he had not uttered one word of slander against his opponent and was for peace and harmony.

Ike Bergman, was next called for. He was glad to see so many level headed Democrats: not one could say he had sought or asked for a nomination; he felt pleased to have been nominated for a third term for county treasurer; not for the office nor anything connected with it, but as a mark of the confidence reposed in him, and as an endorsement of his administration of the county finances. C. R. Thomson, being called for, suggested that as it was growing late he would only thank the convention for the nomination and pledge himself to do his best to help elect the entire ticket.

A. A. Cleveland, in response to calls, said he thanked the convention for renominating him to the office he now holds, if elected would do the best he could to fill it fairly and impartially, and if an honest desire to do right is appreciated he thought he would have a good show for success. Geo. Johnson, being called for, said as he had no place on the ticket, and the real work of the convention was done, he would ask to be excused from any extended remarks, but thought that each Democrat should constitute himself a committee of one to help elect the ticket. A motion to adjourn was carried, and the convention dispersed.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty. Clay Co., Texas says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Carr. Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "I positively believe he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50 cents and $1, at Jno C. Dement's."
