

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: MAY 18, 1888.

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted.)

J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

ARISTON BUILDING, - - - CASS STREET.

Terms of Subscription. Sent by Carrier, per week, 15 cts. Sent by Mail, per month, $4.00. One year, $45.00. Free of postage to subscribers.

THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Arndt and Ferchen have a fifteen horse power steam engine for sale.

Geo. Johnson will address the Democratic club at its headquarters this evening.

It is said that a bumble bee is largest when first hatched. Same way with candidates sometimes.

Snow is reported in northern Wisconsin. Here the air is sweet with the scent of flowers and the musical voices of tuneful birds.

The proud prerogative of American citizenship and the honors of American sovereignty are being daily conferred at the county clerk's office.

Hansen & Co., proprietors Astoria Soda works are doing a good business and furnish an assortment of palatable beverages that are much sought after.

An emperor, an editor and a man with a tape worm are the only three individuals, who are entitled to say "we." This lets one correspondent out.

Miss Emma Warren's school closes this afternoon. There will be literary exercises beginning at 2 p. m. and the friends and patrons of the school are invited.

Both tickets are now in the field for consideration and the names of the several candidates to be voted for on the fourth of next month appear in this issue.

Mrs. Parsell, of Alpine, has been appointed a notary public; this is believed to be the first instance in which a woman has been appointed notary public in Oregon.

The ball at the Pacific Union cannery to-morrow evening gives promise of being a pleasant affair. There will be addresses from 7 to 9 p. m., when the grand march will be held.

A. T. Brakke, C. A. Hanson and others will address the audience at the Pacific Union cannery before the ball begins to-morrow night, the speaking having no bearing on or reference to county politics.

The gardeners at and near Smith's Point show what indefatigable industry can do. They have made what was a tangled swamp a most productive piece of ground and are making money supplying Astoria with vegetables.

A representative of the Standard Oil Co., is in the city looking for a suitable location for a warehouse. It is thought a site can be found west of Union town near Smith's Point, which will be safer than one nearer or in the city.

Two young men on Bear river Pacific county last fall sold their hay at $16 a ton, though had they waited they would have got more. After figuring up they found they had cleared $50 an acre. Hard work is not easy, but there is no place in the United States that hard work will give a surer return than in this section.

The Mississippi valley folks are being drowned out. Last winter they were, some of them, frozen to death; next August they will be sun-struck or half baked. If they want to enjoy life let them come to God's country where there are no cyclones, no freezes, no floods, and where one can enjoy himself or herself thirteen months in the year.

J. H. DeForce's oil works on Young's bay has not started up this season yet; the proprietor thinks of beginning operations next week. The market for animal oil is not what it was, petroleum products largely taking its place. The proprietor proposes starting a box factory there if the further manufacture of oil should prove unprofitable.

Any man who wants honest work or an opportunity to safely and profitably invest a little capital can have a good chance in this state and northwest coast. There are a good many who want such a chance, but who don't know where to go to get it. Such people will make no mistake in coming to northwestern Oregon and southwestern Washington.

C. W. Fulton must have made a good, ringing speech at The Dalles, as the Dalles correspondent of the Pacific Express tries to be funny in his report of Mr. Fulton's speech, because he saw fit to talk about the tariff. Probably had he talked about prohibition and the Mosaic account of the flood he would have secured that correspondent's approbation.

Good climate, pure air, rich soil, freedom from floods or drought, good schools and churches, peaceful law-abiding population, are among the attractions and inducements that Clatsop county offers to intending immigrants. But it doesn't want any croakers, grumblers, lookers for soft jobs, or men who think the world owes them a living, but who are too lazy to collect the debt.

The committee from the Portland board of trade that investigated the sailor boarding house "outrages" have done just what THE ASTORIAN prophesied they would do—hunted the trail till it led straight into the cabin of the shipmaster—and then dropped it. If they had just kept on it would have got so interesting as to favor of a personal controversy, for the trail extends inland from the shipmaster's quarters.

To illustrate what Clatsop county land can do, the writer will cite one instance that came under his observation this week. A farmer on John Days cut 48 (forty-eight) tons of hay from twelve acres of land last year. This hay he sold for $25 a ton. There is $1,200, from twelve acres, in one year, $100 an acre. Here are thousands and thousands of acres of just such land in this county.

Big crops all over the state. Crops never fail in Oregon, and any man that owns a bit of land has a sure thing and need not be sick or fear climatic trouble. Send this little chunk of truth back to some poor fellow that you know way back in the Mississippi valley who crawled out from under the wreck of his barn in the last cyclone, and who is now taking quinine every day for the shakes, and tell him it is the exact fact.

In the United States senate last Wednesday senator Mitchell's bill providing for a survey of the rapids of the Columbia river at The Dalles and Celilo, with a view to the construction of a boat railway, and appropriating $500,000 for the commencement of work, passed the senate. In view of the fact that the bill may not pass the house as a separate measure, the Oregon senators will endeavor to get some suitable provision in the river and harbor bill for commencement of the work.

THE ASTORIAN has no objections to the Pacific Express publishing items without credit from these columns, being inclined to compliment that clever journal on the good taste shown in its selections. But it modestly, and in a spirit of proper humility, asks that they be reproduced as written. For instance: it is stated in yesterday's Express that Astoria spends $2,000 a year for the education of its children. Please make that $20,000, brother Express, and may Heaven's choicest blessings attend you and myriads of white robed angels be your guides and guardians to the shining shores of everlasting bliss.

It is thought that the river and harbor bill which has passed the house of representatives, will be reported by the senate committee next week. It is thought that the appropriations for Oregon will be increased as follows: Coquille river, from $22,000 to $25,000; Yaquina bay, from $120,000 to $150,000; for improvement of Tillamook bay and bar, $5,200; Willamette river, $15,000 to $25,000; $14,000 of which is deemed necessary to be used for reclamation of the Willamette river above Corvallis, to prevent a cut off; mouth of the Columbia, from $375,000 to $500,000; lower Columbia and Willamette, below and in front of Portland, from $80,000 to $100,000; cascades, from $175,000 to $300,000.

LIVELY TIMES AT ILWACO.

ILWACO May 16. N. Clinton and crew with their new pile driver arrived down yesterday in tow of the Tonguin and to-day are at work driving piles for the railroad company. The Walluski arrived down also and discharged a donkey engine to be used on the pile driver on the lakes and marshes. W. F. Mudge well known in Astoria will have charge of this branch of the work. Joe Surprenant is here also. Our town presents a busy scene at present and the hotels are doing rushing business. Another blacksmith shop is being erected, that will make four in the place.

It's summer with us, warm and pleasant. Busy times on the weather beach. Several houses are being built and the indications are that this will be the most prosperous season ever known here. Mr. Bromley superintendent of construction of the light-house department is at the Cape making improvements. D.

For the Ladies. Hair goods, latest and most artistic styles, bangs, fronts, etc., from $1.50 to $7.50, at Mrs. W. J. Barry's.

We still have a quantity of the celebrated Underwood pure leaf lard on hand. Give it a trial before it's all gone. THOMPSON & ROSS.

If you still want the Highland brand of condensed milk, call on us and we will be pleased to accommodate you. THOMPSON & ROSS.

You will find the Goodwin brand of butter, always a favorite in the Astoria market at THOMPSON & ROSS.

The Ohio Sap takes the lead. Guaranteed strictly pure. THOMPSON & ROSS.

We try to keep on hand all the vegetables and fruits in the markets. Give us a call. THOMPSON & ROSS.

THE NEW TELEPHONE.

She Will Arrive at Astoria To-Morrow.

The new steamer Telephone that rounded Tongue point for the first time one misty March afternoon in '85 and went up in flame and smoke at upper Astoria, one Sunday night last November, will be succeeded by the new Telephone which is finished and thoroughly equipped, and which will leave Portland for this city at seven o'clock to-morrow morning.

There will be a big crowd to meet and welcome her upon her arrival at her dock. She will return at half-past two to-morrow afternoon.

The day that the Telephone was burned, the night boat of the O. R. & N. Co. began running, it being a singular coincidence; since the two night boats began running in addition to the two day boats, one leaving here every morning except Sunday at six o'clock, and another every evening except Friday at eight o'clock, the question has been a hundred times discussed: "Where is Scott going to get in?" "What will be the Telephone's trip card?"

Here's where Scott "gets in":

THE TELEPHONE'S TIME CARD. Leave PORTLAND, Sunday, 8:00 A. M. Tuesday, 7:00 " Wednesday, 7:00 " Thursday, 11:30 P. M. Saturday, 7:00 A. M.

Leave ASTORIA, Monday, 6:00 A. M. Tuesday, 7:30 P. M. Wednesday, 7:00 " Friday, 7:00 " Saturday, 2:30 "

Arrive at PORTLAND, Monday, 1:30 P. M. Tuesday, 9:30 " Thursday, 3:00 A. M. Saturday, 3:30 P. M.

Arrive at ASTORIA, Sunday, 3:00 P. M. Tuesday, 12:30 M. Wednesday, 12:30 " Friday, 6:00 A. M. Saturday, 12:30 P. M.

It will be seen that the regular Sunday trip will be retained; leaving Portland at 8 instead of 9 A. M., as before, and that round trips will be made on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. Thursday is the only day in the week that the boat will not either leave from or arrive at Astoria.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Billionsness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Billions Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvellous.

Why The Numbers Are Changed.

The hotel clerk finds many curious people. If at some time there has been a suicide in one of the rooms, the first duty of the clerk is to see that the newspaper reporter does not get the number of the room. And if he should, the number is changed as quickly as possible. The reason for this is that the average arrival who is posted on the suicide invariably asks the clerk what room it occurred in, and follows the inquiry with the remark that he "doesn't want that room." There is hardly a first-class hotel in the country that hasn't had some sort of a tragedy, and the clerks are never supposed to know what room they occurred in.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Jno. C. Dement Druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

A WHOOP FROM WALLA WALLA.

The Only Walla Walla Wah Wah, published at Walla Walla, Walla Walla county, Wash. Ter., by J. Watermelon Redington, a bad man from Heppner, is received. It is not a thing of beauty, and may not be a joy forever, but like the muscadine melon, it gets there just the same. It is chuck full of jokes and will be read when Donnelly, Shakespeare and the tariff are forgotten, and probably before then.

Here are three of the advertisements: Henry Hominy hereby offers his valuable services as night guard of watermelon patches. Punishment inflicted on boy poachers is guaranteed painless; none but careful and experienced assistants employed; terms 3/4 of the crop.

Also, who herd cows off your side-walk at night for 1/4 the cow.

Also, will contract to supply young ladies' seminaries with pure mountain chewing gum in quantities of not less than 14 barrels per month. My gum-patch in the beautiful Blue mountains is kept in a high state of cultivation.

Refers without permission to the Duke of Delaware and Crown Prince of Road Island.

Prairie Schooner "Belle of the Buffalo-wallow," now lying in port at foot of Polar street—Neither the captain or crew will be responsible for any stuff furnished the consignees of this bark beyond four barrels of beer to each man, and the usual amount of cigarettes allowed on other vessels of the United States navy. Preference will in all cases be given to articles of home manufacture, and daps the expense. J. JERKLINE.

Notice to Mariners.—Look out for a chuck hole in the road on the grand driveway around the garrison, where the ground was imperfectly summer-fallowed while Windy Jack held the brush-harrow over it 6 years ago. It bears N N E S E N of the bow jib of the mountain howitzer near the guardhouse.

JACK O. LANTERN, Supe. of gov. candlestick in this hot-house-district.

Here is a little chunk of editorial: Ensilage for canary birds is fast finding favor as a popular plate which cheers but does not make drunk. It is imported in large quantities from the rocks on Sand island, where the sea-gulls deposit it on the walking-beam of the Great Republic. The price at which it is retailed in the drug stores shows that it must have been smuggled through the Astoria custom-house.

The Wah Wah is full of native strength and solemn beauty and goes on THE ASTORIAN'S X list without a murmur.

A Safe Investment.
