Jno. P. Irish will speak here next Friday evening. Jas. Tanner will speak here the evening after.

The Gen. Miles goes on an excursion to the forts and Ilwaco next Sunday, leaving Gray's dock at 9 A. M.

The street cars give the boulevard de Squemoqua a metropolitan aspect. The rue des Concomlie will be soon reached.

Decoration Day, next Wednesday, will be suitably observed by Cushing Post No. 14, G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps.

The steamer Fannie, came down from Portland yesterday afternoon, and returned to Westport to take a raft of logs from there to Portland.

A Portland bathing establishment sells its used up Turkish towels to a Chinese restaurateur, who chops and stews 'em and works 'em off on his customers for tripe.

C. W. Fulton and Reem Kanaga will address the people of Knappa on the evening of Tuesday, May 29th; Geo. Nolan and John H. Smith on the evening of Wednesday, the 30th.

The flag on vice-consul Cherry's office floated from its spear head staff yesterday in honor of Queen Victoria's sixty-ninth birthday. The old lady is now Queen of England, Ireland and Scotland, Empress of India and mother-in-law of Germany.

And now they say that Mount Ararat where Noah et al., landed and started a winery some time ago, was located near where Little Rock, Arkansas, is now. It is certain that Noah came out of the Arkansaw land. (This size four bits; put up for candidates' use, three for a dollar.)

C. Leinenweber reports business lively at Carnationport, Nestucca, Tillamook Co., and expects to do $100,000 worth of business there this year. He has a cannery and general store there. Joe Thomas is in charge. It is a country rich in natural resources and such men as Mr. Leinenweber will help develop it.

Mr. Quintex, an Indiana editor, dropped dead while praying for the souls of delinquent subscribers in North Manchester, Indiana, last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Q. was no doubt, foolish to pray for a class of unfortunates who are past praying for, but it does seem that in this case special providence overrid the business.

The chamber of commerce is thinking about getting up some pamphlets descriptive of the county, its resources, etc. The idea is a good one. But for every dollar spent that way there should be two dollars to get the pamphlets distributed where they will do some good. The dissemination of the information is as important as its preparation.

Hon. C. W. Fulton will speak at Republican headquarters at the old armory hall to-night. He has been addressing rousing meetings at Oregon City, The Dalles, Hillsboro, and elsewhere and will speak here to-morrow night. Seats will be reserved for the ladies and a general invitation is extended to all. The Western Amateur band will furnish the music.

The Columbia base ball club met last evening and made permanent organization. The officers are B. S. Worsley, president, H. G. Smith, vice-president, P. S. Cook, sec-retary, W. A. Sherman, treasurer. The directors are S. E. Bailey, G. C. Fulton and F. L. Parker. The club starts with thirty charter members, and will be governed by the national association rules of 88.

Those desiring to go and see the Hassalo run the rapids at the Cascades can get tickets for the excursion at Griffin & Reed's, the Occident, W. H. Whitcomb's, and the O. R. & N. ticket office. A special boat will leave at 8 o'clock to-night, connecting with the R. R. Thompson at Portland. Tickets one dollar for the excursion from Portland and return, including fare on the railroad both ways.

The Gen. Canby is on the ways being repaired at Portland. The men, the machinery, and everything else necessary for such work as that required on the Canby are here. All that is needed is the ways. For lack of ways $20,000 worth of that kind of work goes to Portland every year that might just as well be kept here. To build the proper ways would cost $2,000, which would pay for itself twice over the first year.

Two young ladies of Portland went into a store last Tuesday where there was a galvanic battery, and the proprietor asked them to try it. Each grasped a pole of the battery, and wondered why no shock was felt. The proprietor suggested that they kiss each other. They did so and then there was a shock indeed. One of the young women shrieked and fell over backward. The other made no sound, but fainted. Cold water brought them both around, none the worse for the kiss.

Mrs. A. E. Osgood, after visiting San Francisco, Boston and New York city, is now at her native home, Rochester, N. Y., affected with serious throat trouble, from a cold contracted on her arrival in that bleak eastern climate, shortly after a blizzard. The doctors say it is a sort of epidemic there, in many cases developing into pneumonia. Mrs. Osgood writes that the Astoria climate is unsurpassed, and that she contemplates a return as soon as she feels able to travel.

The Oregon is due from San Francisco to-day with the following passengers: A. E. Briggs, E. A. Gilden, J. W. Thompson, I. Sullivan, M. Bloomfield, S. Danziger, I. D. Smith, Miss G. McKenna, Miss K. McKenna, Miss M. Chambers, S. C. Swezea, and wife, C. P. Crouse, I. G. Maxwell, N. Bernstein, C. Smalridge, C. D. Hayes, D. E. Smith, G. A. Schwartz, F. W. Rand, W. French, E. W. Tichner, L. J. McMillen, Dr. P. P. Gray, Mrs. Geo. W. Roberts, Dr. T. McKennan, J. T. McKennan, G. Allison, E. G. Hanford and wife, E. Collins, H. C. Coward, Mrs. P. Maitland, Miss D. D. Rosmore, Mrs. M. Lemley, Mrs. E. M. Coates and nurse, Miss F. Pettin-gill, E. N. Coates, Miss J. Riverson, A. P. McKinley, Miss Morgan, E. W. Roberts, A. Anderson, J. J. Childgeer, J. Connor and wife, Mrs. Westway, W. L. Hendricks.

The changes made by the senate committee in the river and harbor bill included a provision that a board of three army officers shall be appointed to examine the obstructions to navigation in the Columbia at The Dalles and at Celilo falls, and at Three and Ten Mile rapids, to report to the secretary of war on or before the first Monday in December next, as to the practicability and advisability of overcoming such obstructions by means of a boat railroad at The Dalles and at Celilo falls, and by widening to a navigable stage for large tonnage river boats the channel of said river at Three and Ten Mile rapids; accompanied by careful and detailed plans, with estimates of the cost and a statement as to the usefulness of such improvements to navigation, and of their relations and value to commerce. The sum of $15,000 is appropriated to pay the expense of the examinations.

A PRINCESS ARRIVED.

BERLIN, May 24.—Princess Irene of Hesse, the bride of prince Henry, arrived from Darmstadt yesterday. She was met at Charlottenburg station by the empress Victoria and her daughter, and the crown prince and princess Henry. The most affectionate greeting was accorded her. The route to the palace was decorated with flags and lined with people and members of the gymnastic and trade societies. Large crowds cheered enthusiastically.

The emperor was asleep when the party arrived at the palace. The houses along the route were illuminated with candles, and thousands of torches were carried in the streets. Prince Henry and the Princess Irene held a reception last evening at the palace. The marriage ceremony was solemnized in the chapel of Charlottenburg castle to-day. All the bells in Charlottenburg were rung at noon to announce that the ceremony had commenced and a salute of 36 guns were fired at 12:30 which announced that the bride and bride groom had exchanged rings.

Both the emperor Frederick and the dowager empress Augusta were present during the ceremony. Prince Henry and the crown prince were dressed in naval uniform. Thousands of people were assembled outside the castle when the aged general Von Moltke arrived. He was enthusiastically greeted by the multitude. The bride and bride groom are first cousins and are grand children of queen Victoria of England, the princess Irene being a daughter of the late princess Alice.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT.

There was a sort of three-cornered dispute in the justice court yesterday morning, wherein J. A. Rowan had a warrant issued for the arrest of A. L. Parker and A. L. Parker had a warrant issued for the arrest of J. A. Rowan. Two boys, named Hansen and Wallace, also figured in the row, the whole thing being a sequel to a disturbance some mornings ago, when milk cans and profanity filled the air; people living in the vicinity of the fracas thought the riot should be read. Justice Cleveland fined both complainants $5 each and gave the boys a much needed lecture.

By the time he had got the scales of justice dusted off, two rival deputations from Miller's Sands knocked loudly at the portals of the temple. Their case and its statement occupied nearly all day. Boiled down it seems that there are two rival crowds at Miller's Sands, the Elliott faction and the Jones faction. Charley Woods isn't there this year, but there is pretty near as much fun as though he was. It is the daily delight and nightly custom of the two seining parties to cork each other, to lift the lead lines and let the fish pass through into the corker's net, and when remonstrated with the remonstrator is told to depart to Hades, sic semper McGinnis, or words to that effect.

After listening to the testimony of the five or six men who were arrested and noting the arguments of the counsel pro and con, until his nose bled, the justice took the case under advisement, and sought temporary seclusion.

Five minutes after, this seclusion was interrupted by case number three, in the person of one Miles Davitt, who carefully holding his eye in its proper position, stated that he had been in a saloon engaged in sampling stock with a view to further purchases and on emerging was met by Albert Kennedy, of Miller's Sands, who, without any preliminary remarks, bit him in the eye, seriously injuring that useful member. Mr. Kennedy was promptly arrested and will have an opportunity to pour his tale into the capacious ear of justice at ten o'clock this morning.

After this little interlude in the main performance the hour arrived at which time the judge was to announce his decision, and as the sun was rushing madly down in the west, the judge decided that all the prisoners should be discharged but Jones and Kennedy; that Jones and Kennedy be held to appear in the sum of $200 each to appear before the next grand jury, and after giving them some fatherly advice regarding how brethren should dwell together in unity, the seance closed. At last accounts the whole party had buried the hatchet—with the handle left conveniently sticking up.

An Explanation. What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

A California Opinion.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—In a three column editorial on Oregon politics, this evening's Bulletin says: If a victory in Oregon could be won before the meeting of the democratic national convention, a sort of current or drift, north and south, toward free trade could be figured out. This is all the more necessary from the fact that the first of the elections held this year—that of Rhode Island, on April 4, showed a decided republican reaction. Oregon has, therefore, become a sort of index state for national conventions, and as such are usually held in the month of June. In the course of time that state will probably find that the function of pointing out, or seeming to point out, the way for politicians will be followed by a loss of self-control. An election coming off at the date stated will always, for the reasons stated, invite interference from the outside."

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Herrick & Co., of Shelbyville, N. C., of a free trial bottle at W. E. Dement & Co.'s Drug Store.
