

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1888. ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted.) J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

English account, John A. Devlin, 10,000; the Aberdeen Packing Co., 5,000; Wm. D. Smith, about 5,000; probably a part of a cargo amounting to 25,000 cases will go foreign, from the Columbia this year—quite a difference from former years, when ship after ship loaded here, each vessel taking from 45,000 to 70,000 cases.

Almost daily there is received on the O. R. & N. dock here from up river, salmon for canning which is positively unfit for food, and which is criminal to put up. The attention of the fish commissioners and the health officer is directed to this matter. If they have no jurisdiction in the matter it is hard to say who has.

The late rains have caused the Clackamas river to rise considerably, says the Oregonian, and the hundreds of salmon in the pool at the hatchery seemed to be excited by the additional volume of water pouring down and are perfectly wild to get away, past the weir and up to the places where they were hatched, in the gravel beds in the deep pools at the headwaters of the river.

Two dead bodies were found on Sand Island yesterday, and memories of last week's stormy weather. Thus far they have not been identified, but an effort will be made in that direction to-day.

Col. Geo. Hunter has placed the sale of his book "Reminiscences of an Old Timer," in the hands of Riggs & Tomlinson of Battle Creek, Mich., and is going on to Washington to try and secure recognition by congress of the claims of the widows and orphans of those who fell fighting in the Indian war of this state and Washington territory.

Salmon is being shipped east overland, in large quantities; it is going that way about as fast as packed; very little has gone or is going to San Francisco; so far not over 1,800 cases has been sent. But little is expected to go to England; the Cutting Packing Co. has sold 5,000 cases on

BACK FROM SACRAMENTO.

What An Astorian Saw And Heard While Away.

Chief of Police Barry returned yesterday from Sacramento, Cal., whither he had been called by a telegram announcing the death of his father, and whose funeral he attended while there.

He says Sacramento has grown more in the past five years than in the twenty years preceding. The weather there is dry and warm. Everybody is talking politics, and every Republican he met sings only one song: "Blaine, Blaine, Blaine, Blaine," Sherman is too cold, too grand, gloomy and peculiar for the Californians, and they charge Gresham with being a Know-Nothing, whatever that is. Blaine is the California favorite, and should he get the nomination they wouldn't get through hurrahing down there till after they had given him 25,000 majority.

Railroad Talk. Sacramento is the great railroad headquarters in California. It was in a modest little hardware store, "Huntington, Hopkins & Co., 54 K street," that the idea of the Central Pacific railroad originated, and it is in Sacramento that the Southern Pacific which has just assumed control of its "Oregon lines," has its headquarters.

Barry got to Portland Monday afternoon, and there being an election in that city for mayor and councilmen, though he is not much interested in politics and was never known to take an active part in political contests, yet he went around to see how the thing was going. He had not got within one hundred yards of the polling place, when he was warmly greeted by a prominent local striker who sized him up as some one from over yonder, and not having the faintest idea of who he was, grabbed him by the arm and said: "Look here young fellow, its just worth $2 to you to vote this ticket. Trot right along now, slap her in and come back to me for your coin. Ill be here, betcher life."

Such an heretofore unheard of proposition surprised our worthy chief, who ceasing to wonder at what he had heard of Portland's wickedness, told the bold man that he wasn't selling his vote; that he wasn't that kind of a man, and besides another man around the corner had offered him $4, which he had refused, not deeming it enough. "Well, you fellows are getting damned high priced, all of a sudden," said the trafficker in honest American suffrages, "but we've got to have votes, and here's a $5 piece for you after you've voted."

At this juncture a fire department official, well-known in Astoria, caught his indiscreet confederate by the shoulders and turning him squarely round, whispered, "You are a chump; that's Win Barry, the Astoria chief of police."

An Explanation. What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown, to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering from such troubles will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure Malarial fevers.—For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters.—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle at J. C. Dement's.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure Malarial fevers.—For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters.—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle at J. C. Dement's.

SORE FROM KNEE TO ANKLE.

Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the CUTICURA.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle, the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one-third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your CUTICURA. It was the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and today, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as ever it was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen. S. G. AHERN, Dubois, Dodge Co., Ga.

Constitutional Catarrh. No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened up the course of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind—none or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions, ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope of relief if of this side of the grave. It is, therefore, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into, hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snoring and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and IMPROVED INHALANT; price, $1.00.
