THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Coon skins and hard cider.

Tippecanoe and Morton too.

The Sea King, grain laden, went to sea yesterday.

Bets are now in order on states and the general result.

The Scandinavian Benevolent Society meets this evening at eight o'clock.

From all accounts the recent Portland tournament was not an entire success.

Seattle is to have a new daily newspaper, the Enterprise. F. S. Muttler, of Virginia, is to be the editor.

The Gen. Miles yesterday towed down a barge with a load of lumber and locomotive for the Ilwaco railroad.

The Montezano which lay bar bound ten days at Nestucca, is reported to have reached her destination.

A scholarship at the Portland business college can be had at very reasonable terms on application to this office.

R. R. Marion has the contract for filling in the custom house grounds. It will take 4,823 yards, and the contract price is 23 cents a yard.

There will be a meeting of the Fourth of July committee at the hall of Besene No 2 at 8 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is desired.

The subscribers to the stock of the Clatsop Road and Construction company are signing a call for a meeting at eight o'clock on the evening of July 2nd.

The Irish comedian T. J. Farron will appear at Ross' opera house in "Soap Bubbles," next Friday and Saturday; reserved seats at the New York Novelty Store.

Three men in Portland state five sailors from the bark Kitty upon her arrival there. Were this done in Astoria it would be just awful. In Portland it is to be condoned.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the board of delegates at 8 o'clock this evening. All members are especially requested to be present—particularly the secretary.

Captain Barrett, whose ship is loading lumber at Weidler's mill, has made a proposition to the Multnomah county court to take the Chinese lepers to China for the sum of $125 per passenger.

Last Saturday, at the Salem penitentiary, one of the guards named Whiteley, shot and killed an insubordinate prisoner named Mausfield, who was serving a life sentence for a murder committed in eastern Oregon.

"Oregon Beauty," the beautiful chesnut mare with flowing mane and tail, sold some time ago by O. P. Adams, of Linn county, to parties in California, was burned in the recent Brighton Beach fire. She was valued at $25,000. The fire was caused by lightning.

The Northern Pacific Express company has been absorbed by Wells, Fargo & Co., on business between San Francisco, Portland and Tacoma. The Northern Pacific Express company will, however, continue to transact business between all points on the line of the Northern Pacific and its connections.

There will be a mass meeting at 8 o'clock this evening to ratify the nomination of Harrison and Morton by the Chicago convention yesterday, at the band stand, corner Main and Jefferson streets at eight o'clock this evening. The Western Amateur band will furnish the music. Reserved seats for the ladies. The procession will form at 7:30.

C. W. Johnson superintendent O. R. & N. Co., Reub. Smith, engineer, and Capt. J. W. Troup came down last Sunday morning to take a look at the tugs Astoria, Donald and Wizard with a view to buying them for use by the O. R. & N. Co., on the bar. After taking a trip on one of the tugs the party returned, Sunday night to Portland.

Capt. Ludwig Mortensen, an experienced marine builder, yesterday leased three blocks of ground Col. J. K. Kelly on favorable terms, just above the Scandinavian Packing Co.'s premises, giving 300 feet water front, on which he proposes to have a ship yard, ways, etc., and will immediately begin work. The business of building vessels etc., can be well done at that point, and the fact that Capt. Mortensen has leased the property for ten years shows that it is intended to be a permanent institution.

The dead body found on the beach between the slaughter and the buoy depot last Sunday, proves to be the remains of Theodore Sigman, who was drowned in the Columbia above Tongue Point, about two months ago. Some keys that he had in his pocket, which fitted his trunk, and a match safe that Wm. Bock gave him while hunting together, served to identify him. Deceased was a native of Mecklenburg, Germany, and was in the 38th year of his age. He leaves a brother living near Portland. The funeral will be this morning at Clatsop.

Under date of the 14th an Alaska correspondent of THE ASTORIAN writes: "Southern Alaska is booming this season. New canneries at Cape Leed, Napa bay and Yes bay, and Mr. Berry's cannery at Tongass narrows, enlarged and fitted with new machinery, will make it interesting for salmon in this vicinity. If a country eighty miles long can be called one vicinity. The four canneries mentioned expect to put up about 60,000 cases with the exception of Yes bay, which was paralyzed for a while by news of Coleman's failure, all are ready for canning."

One of the largest sales of mining property that ever took place on the Pacific coast was closed in Portland a few days ago. The property conveyed consists of a mining claim on Douglas island, Alaska, adjoining the famous Treadwell mine. The property was bought by a syndicate of capitalists, who organized a stock company. The price paid was $2,500,000. The mine belonged to Mr. Murry of Alaska, Capt. James Carroll of the steamer Ancon, T. Downing, late purser of the steamship Idaho, and another gentleman whose name cannot be learned. If these gentlemen had equal shares each will receive $500,000.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Col. J. K. Kelly is in the city. E. A. Noyes returned from Portland last Sunday.

Hugh McCormack returned yesterday from the Sound.

Admiral Uphur U. S. N., is in the city, visiting his son, C. P. Uphur.

T. G. Rawlings, of Fort Stevens, was last Saturday granted a pension as a veteran of the Mexican War.

"A Soap Bubble."

People with an apoplectic tendency or people given to convulsions, would be wise in keeping away from the Third Avenue theater this week. Mr. T. J. Farron's "three-act comedy," as the bill of the play unblushingly announces it, is no comedy at all. It is a roaring farce, sprinkled with clever hits and imitations. The second act, which is devoted to the mysteries and methods of a barber's shop, would make Bartholdi's statue of liberty laugh, could she only be called down to see it. Mr. Farron, who is credited with the "Soap Bubble," is full of fun and mischief, and has gathered around him a very congenial company. Their Irish brogue is atrocious, and their "Henglish Haccet" worse. But they are full of fun, spirit and go, and everything is forgotten and forgiven in that Mr. Connelly is a true comedian and must have made a profound study of the art known as "tonorial." There was a good audience in the pretty little theater, and the "Soap Bubble" will easily float itself to pleased eyes there during the week.—N. Y. Daily Graphic.

Excursion.

The steamer S. G. Reed which has been chartered by the ladies guild of Grace church will leave the dock for Cathlamet tomorrow morning at 8:30. Be sure and go. All lovers of our national game will have an opportunity of displaying their skill and exercising their muscle. The Western Amateur band will furnish enlivening music. Trout-fishing in the streams, plenty of swings and as good an opportunity for a day's "outing" as you will get this summer. Tickets $1.00, children 50 cents. Families at special rates.

HARRISON AND MORTON.

Choice of the Chicago Convention. Decisive Majority on The Eighth Ballot.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The News gives Wm. Walter Phelps its authority for saying that every candidate but Sherman stands ready to call Blaine to make the race but that so long as Sherman has the choice Blaine's friends will do nothing to hinder it. The Tribune says New York has decided to give Sherman a chance to-day, after first voting for Harrison. The Herald thinks that Blaine will be nominated. The Times says Sherman is leading.

10:30 A. M.—Mr. Manley, of Maine, Mr. Blaine's friend, is quoted as saying this morning that Blaine will accept only a unanimous vote which at present seems impossible, and he hopes there will be no more voting for Blaine.

11:08 A. M.—The convention has been called to order.

11:15 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, has mounted the platform to withdraw Blaine's name from the convention.

A DISPATCH FROM BLAINE. 11:17—Boutelle says without attempting to give a construction to the language he will read a dispatch from Blaine.

11:21 A. M.—Boutelle reads a dispatch from Edinburg, earnestly requesting his friends to refrain from voting. Signed JAS. G. BLAINE. (Applause.)

11:22 A. M.—Balloting begins. Alabama votes Blaine 1, California casts 16 votes for Blaine.

11:27 A. M.—Georgia casts 1 vote for Fred Grant, Maine casts one vote for Foraker, two McKinley. Maryland casts 3 for Blaine. New York gives Harrison 72. Ohio voted solid for Sherman. The vote of the challenged delegation is now being polled. In the poll of the Ohio delegation, Lackey, voted for Harrison.

11:50 A. M.—The vote of Ohio was Sherman 45, Harrison 1. Tennessee gave Blaine 3. (Hisses.) A roll call demanded.

SIXTH BALLOT. Alger 137, Allison 73, Gresham 99, Harrison 231, Sherman 244, Foraker 1, Blaine 10, Fred Grant 1, McKinley 12.

The seventh ballot is being taken. California votes 16 for Harrison.

Texas gives one for Creed Haymond of California.

12:12 P. M.—Colorado changes 1 Blaine 15 Harrison to Alger; Florida gives Harrison 4; Kansas gives Harrison 10. Up to Maine Harrison carried 18.

Henderson of Iowa, withdraws Allison. Senator Cullom of Illinois, says the vote of Allison will go to Harrison.

SEVENTH BALLOT. Alger 120, Allison 76, Blaine 15, Foraker 1, Gresham 96, Harrison 278, Lincoln 21, McKinley 16, Sherman 231, Haymond 1.

1 P. M.—Great confusion in the hall; delegates on their feet cheering; the band playing.

1:02 P. M.—Harrison now has 411 votes and is practically nominated.

HARRISON NOMINATED.

EIGHTH BALLOT: Harrison 544, Alger 100, Sherman 118, Blaine 5, McKinley 4, Gresham 59.

1:07 P. M.—Harrison is nominated. BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Benjamin Harrison was born August 20, 1833, at Hamilton, Ohio. He attended the university at Oxford, and graduated from that institution. For two years he read law in Cincinnati, and in 1854 went to Indianapolis, which has ever since been his place of residence. He soon acquired a reputation for his ability in law matters. In 1860 he was elected reporter of the supreme court of Indiana. At the outbreak of the late civil war he enlisted in the federal service, and was soon after commissioned second-lieutenant. He was one of the 75,000 men who responded to president Lincoln's first call for troops. After the expiration of the term of his enlistment he organized a company of volunteers, and was made colonel of the seventh Indiana Volunteers. He was commissioned brigadier-general, and was mustered out in 1865. In 1876 he ran for governor of Indiana on the Republican ticket, and was defeated. In 1879 he was appointed to the Mississippi river commission. In 1881 he was chosen for Indiana to succeed J. McDonald (Democrat) in the United States senate. In 1884 his name was most prominently mentioned as the possible choice of the Republican national convention, and had a break occurred in Blaine's forces he probably would have been elected. In 1887 he was defeated in the Indiana legislature for re-election to the senate of the United States.

1:11 P. M.—Conger of Ohio, says the nominee for vice-president will be Levi P. Morton of New York.

2:10 P. M.—The nomination of Harrison is unanimous.

2:19 P. M.—It is moved that a recess to 5 P. M. be declared; motion not seconded.

2:21 P. M.—The roll is being called for nomination for vice-president.

2:29 P. M.—Denny of Kentucky, nominates Bradley for vice-president.

3 P. M.—Sewell of New Jersey presents Phelps's name and moves recess until 5 P. M. The motion is declared out of order.

3:08 P. M.—The convention has taken a recess to 6 P. M.

6:01 P. M.—The convention has been called to order.

6:12 P. M.—Griggs of New Jersey, presents the name of Phillips for the vice-presidency.

6:50 P. M.—Warner Miller of New York, rises to nominate Levi P. Morton. When Miller spoke of carrying New York the delegation from New York and Massachusetts rose and cheered violently.

MORTON NOMINATED. 8:08 P. M.—Moore has withdrawn; Morton will probably be nominated on this ballot. Morton is nominated.

LEVI P. MORTON.

L. P. Morton is the son of a clergyman and the descendant of a New England Puritan family, and was born in Shoreham, Vermont, about sixty-five years ago. He was educated in the local academy, engaged in business in Hanover, New Hampshire, at the age of 20 years, and at 25 was a clerk in the house of F. M. Beebe & Co., of Boston. Five years later he founded the dry goods commission house of Morton and Grinnell in New York city. In 1833 he established the banking house of Morton, Bliss, of which he is still the head. His business career has been uniformly prosperous, and he is to-day regarded a millionaire. Mr. Morton's active interest in politics began in 1876, when he was for the first time a candidate for congress, and narrowly missed success. Two years later he ran again in the Murray Hill district of New York city, and was elected. As a representative he displayed high capacity and intelligence, the interests of the metropolis, and sound principles of finance finding in him a zealous and efficient champion. In 1880, Mr. Morton was talked of for the second place on the presidential ticket, which was, however, given to Gen. Arthur. President Garfield appointed him United States minister to France. Two years ago he was a candidate for the senate, but was unsuccessful.

8:30 P. M.—There is great excitement over the attempt of Boutelle, of Maine, to present a temperance resolution. Boutelle's resolution pledges the sympathy of the Republican party to all wise and well directed efforts to promote temperance and morality. Boutelle's resolution was adopted by almost a unanimous vote. The convention then adjourned.

MADE UNANIMOUS.

Some Remarks From Governor Foraker.

The Presidential Nominee an Ohio Man.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

CHICAGO, June 25.—The nomination of Ben Harrison was received with a burst of applause, and the great audience arose to its feet and shouted until it tired itself out. One officer of the convention climbed on the chairman's desk and waved a banner bearing a portrait of Harrison. Hats were thrown up and a scene of enthusiasm followed. Cries of "He's all right," were heard in the dim. Finally, with three cheers for Harrison, the convention became quiet enough to hear the official announcement of the result.

Governor Foraker then took the platform, and amid enthusiastic cheers, said: "Gentlemen of the convention: the delegation from Ohio came here all Sherman men; they are now all Harrison men. It is easier for us to be so when we remember general Harrison had the good sense to be born in Ohio" (applause). "I am directed by the unanimous vote of the Ohio delegation to move the convention on behalf of the state of Ohio that the nomination of Benjamin Harrison for president of the United States be made unanimous" (applause).

Horr, of Michigan, general Hastings on behalf of Pennsylvania, and senator Farwell on behalf of Allison of Iowa, seconded the nomination.

Dewey was called for and said that this convention would adjourn in a different temper from that of any other convention in a quarter of a century. No candidate before the convention expected to succeed and no one was disappointed.

DANGEROUS FIRE IN NEW YORK.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

New York, June 25.—A fire was discovered this morning in the five story building extending from Thirty-eight to Thirty-ninth street on 1st avenue and occupied as a cigar factory by several firms. The flames gained rapid headway and soon the wall fronting on first avenue fell through. The tenants were moving from the surrounding building; the water supply gave out and the fire boats were summoned. If more water is not soon obtained a disastrous conflagration is certain.

Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that every one, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle germs into the system where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without your attention is dangerous and may cost you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boscobel's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

So Say We All Or Us.

The Chronicle says: "Esteem makes a splendid chairman." So would colonel Haymond, if he would only stay in his chair.—Alla, 22.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at Jno. C. Dement's Drug Store. Large bottles $1.
