

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1888.

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted.)

J. P. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Sent by Carrier, per week, 15 cts.

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Y. M. C. A. social and supper to-night. Eggs are 35 cents a dozen.

The band will discourse pleasant music at the Main street stand this evening.

Samuel P. Putnam will deliver a liberal lecture at Liberty Hall next Sunday evening.

Elias Shobe, a blind old man was yesterday adjudged insane, and will be taken to the asylum.

Haying on Gray's river is going on. The grass is chin high to a six footer and the yield is favorable.

The O. R. & N. Co., has received 500 blue uniforms for its employees, which will be donned at once.

The highest temperature for a long time was recorded at 3 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon at John N. Griffin's office—88°.

Rock for the foundation of the Kinney building and the Fulton-Dement building has begun to arrive and operations on that part of Squemoqua street will soon be lively at low tide.

Capt. Flavel's wharf is receiving extensive repairs along its entire front, and extension on both sides making a continuous line from the slip at Thompson & Ross's to the Main street wharf.

The militia fund of the state having been exhausted no further warrants for military purposes will be drawn by the secretary of state till the fund for the current year becomes available about January 1, 1889.

The sundry civil appropriation bill as reported to the senate contains many amendments, among which are appropriations for San Diego, building, $25,000; Umpqua, lighthouse, $8,000; wharf at Astoria, and to purchase site and lighthouse, $25,000.

Wm. D. Smith got sight of a black bear on the Hamilton place, above the Scandinavian Packing company's premises last Tuesday evening, and seizing a rifle drew a bead on Bruin, and put a bullet through his heart. The carcass turned the scales at 456 pounds.

The current number of La Nature has a description of an illustration of what appears to be a complete machine for making nets, now in operation in France. It is the invention of two Frenchmen, Galland and Chanier, and can turn out 2,000,000 meshes of finished web each day.

As to racing his boat Capt. Scott sensibly says that he doesn't want to race when he has passengers aboard. It is not likely that the captain of the Potter will get in and make her best record, do the best she can, and then he'll get in and beat her recorded time.

Next Monday and Tuesday evenings McKee Rankin one of America's greatest actors will be at Ross's opera house in two of his famous characters. On Monday night as Sandy McGee in "The New Danites"; the following night in "49." The sale of seats will open on Saturday at 10 A. M. at the New York Novelty store.

Bad, the little son of Capt. Gray, came very near having a serious accident on the I. S. N. Co.'s wharf yesterday. He was driving a horse hoisting up coal out of the steamer Dolphin, when the singletree, where the hoisting rope is attached, broke and struck the little fellow in the pit of the stomach, knocking him out for a little while, but not seriously.

Maj. Handbury has sent to the senate sundry civil appropriation bill committee the following estimate: For completing the improvements at the mouth of the Columbia river, $3,422,500; for next year, $1,000,000; constructing a canal at the Cascades of the Columbia river, $1,850,000 to complete the project, and $500,000 for next year.

Talking of No. 2's horses, it is learned that Harry Morgan, the chief of the Portland fire department, and John Weinhard, the Portland brewer, both want to buy the team. Weinhard has taken a fancy to the team, and will, it is said, pay $700 for the team and harness. The matter of appropriating $75 per month for their maintenance comes up again for discussion in the council next Tuesday evening.

The excursionists on the Occident yesterday report a good time. They visited Iliaco, were courteously entertained by L. A. Loomis and Capt. Spencer, on the railroad to the beach and back again, visited the lighthouse, caught a big lot of fine fish, inspected the hydraulic process of driving piles at the jetty, escorted by Messrs. Stoneman and Freeman, and are unanimous in praise of the swift and commodious little vessel in which they made their trip.

The sundry civil appropriation bill, reported to the senate last Tuesday, has been increased by the senate committee from $23,300,000 to $27,300,000, but is still $550,000 less than the estimates. It exceeds last year's bill by nearly $5,000,000. Following are the increases or new appropriations for lighthouses: Statue of Liberty, Bedloe's island, N. Y., for completing the pedestal and approaches, $50,000; Point Lobos, Cal., $80,000; Ballast point, Cal., $25,000; Umpqua river, Or., $80,000; Astoria, Or., $150,000.

"You set that in a little too deep, about people sending money to Portland, this morning," said a friend yesterday. "Y-e-e-s?" Well, really, it was, if anything, less than the truth. Here is one little instance about as small as any of the numerous instances a newspaper man hears of. And this is only one of many. The wife of a prosperous business man of this city, last Monday went into a bakery, and complainingly said: "You make your loaves too small. I can get a bigger loaf for five cents in Portland than I can from you, and am going to make arrangements to have three five-cent loaves sent me every week from Portland." And she did. This may be too deep or too shallow, but it is a fact all the same, incredible as it may seem. THE ASTORIAN doesn't want to give any one away, for after all it is a matter of private business, but yet is strongly tempted to give about a column of instances of this kind of business, every line of which it can prove. Of course people have a right to do this if they want to, and it is none of the newspaper's business if they send to Timbuctoo for their facts. But—what ought we do to make the town livelier?

PERSONAL MENTION. Sheriff Ross returned from Gray's River yesterday. Graham Glass, Jr., an experienced newspaper man, has bought the Yamhill Reporter. Rev. M. D. Wilson, formerly rector of Grace church, now at Vancouver, was in the city yesterday. Remarks of Major Handbury.

The engineer in charge of the work at the mouth of the Columbia river has made an elaborate report of the improvement in course of construction there. He recites the plan of work and what it is anticipated it will accomplish. He then relates what has already been done, and finally speaks as follows with regard to the future of the work: "With the funds that may be available for operations during the present fiscal year it is proposed to continue the construction of the jetty by means of a jetty tramway, from which rock is now to be dumped, in place and also by tugs and barges suitably constructed for the purpose. It is proposed to deposit a large proportion of the rock from these barges directly in and along the line of the jetty. An early completion of this work is exceedingly desirable. First, because of the necessity for giving relief to the commerce, which is large and important, that passes out and in over the bar; second, to avoid the increased cost that must result from the deterioration and removal of the plant, which is necessarily large and expensive. The jetty tramway, from which the rock is delivered, extends out on the proposed spit, and is severely tried by every storm that visits this locality. It is very liable to be injured, and parts of it washed away. To drive new piles into the sand, through the rocks of the jetty, and reconstruct it, would be difficult and expensive. Where so large an amount of money is invested, as must eventually be, in this project, and where so many interests are concerned, sound business policy would dictate that the work should be pushed as rapidly as money could be profitably expended upon it. It is estimated that $1,000,000 could be profitably expended upon this work in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889."

TEACHERS IN COUNCIL.

The Chicago Anarchists To Be Given Speedy Justice.

An Ocean Steamship Sinks a Schooner and Twenty Men.

JERSEY CITY, July 18.—Henry Ebert the wife murderer, was hanged in the jail yard here this morning.

When the trap sprung, the knot slipped around under the jaw and disarranged the cap so that Ebert's face was exposed to view as he slowly strangled to death.

Ebert married his wife who was a widow, to possess himself of $1,200 which her first husband had bequeathed to the woman's child, but failed in this. He then had his wife put into an insane asylum for some purpose and when she was released he shot her dead, as she was attempting to enter their home. His pretended attempt immediately after to kill himself was bootless, probably the intent being to create sympathy.

HONORED AT FREEHOLD.

FREEHOLD, N. Y., July 18.—R. Kearney was hanged here today. He was a coachman who attempted a criminal assault upon Mrs. Purcell, employed by the wealthy Lyddy family at El Bronx. Kearney was foiled by his victim, but he beat her savagely and she died of her injuries.

FANNY IS DIVORCED.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Fanny Davenport Price, actress, has been granted absolute divorce by Judge Barrett of the supreme court from her husband H. H. Price. The decree was filed June 18.

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED TEACHERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The Grand opera house presented an animated appearance this morning, as the teachers began to assemble for the first regular session of the national teachers association. When president Grove called the convention to order at nine o'clock, there were fully eighteen hundred teachers from every part of the United States, as well as from a number of foreign countries present.

The convention was formally opened with prayer by Mr. Dillig of Oakland. T. H. McBride of Iowa, was appointed temporary secretary, after which it was agreed that the incoming board of directors, should appoint the committee who would select a permanent secretary, and also take charge of the official doings of the convention and decide upon a permanent place of meeting. The committee appointed upon resolutions and nomenclature, was the next business before the convention. The consideration of the theme, "The importance of reading courses in common schools," was the first paper and was read by Horace E. Scudder, A. M. of Cambridge, Mass., his subject being, "The place of literature in common school education."

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

PORTLAND, July 18.—A private dispatch has been received here from Sacramento to the effect that Mrs. F. Pierson, of Portland, had been run over by the cars near Rocklin, and killed. No particulars are given.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The course to be pursued in prosecuting the would be assassins of Grinnell, Garry, and Bonfield, was decided upon this morning. It was semi-officially announced that the anarchists would be taken about noon before a justice, and the cases continued for ten days. That would give opportunity for presenting the murderous conspiracy with the least possible delay to the grand jury, which assembles Monday. Speedy indictments and trials are hoped for by the authorities, the object being to make a lesson of justice.

A SCHOONER RUN OVER.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The North German Lloyd's steamship Fulda, which arrived yesterday from Bremen, ran down an unknown fishing schooner on the banks of Newfoundland last Saturday. A dense fog prevailed at the time and the schooner disappeared almost immediately after the collision. Boats were put out in search of her and for nearly an hour groped around in the fog, but no trace of the schooner nor of the twenty men belonging to her could be found. Many of the passengers on the steamship were horrified witnesses of the collision. The lost vessel was probably a French fisherman. The steamship officers claim that all the usual precautions were being taken when the collision occurred.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Biliousness, Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

The wheat crop promises to be enormous in the Willamette valley this year, and with even moderately good prices ought to make brisk times this fall. Harvesting has already commenced in Linn county, and has developed the fact that the grain is plump and heavy, having not suffered in the least from rust or other disadvantages.—Albany Herald, 17.

AN APPARENT MISTAKE.

The managers of the O. R. & N. Co. have issued a general order directing the discontinuance of all ocean pilots heretofore used on their steamers running between San Francisco and Portland.—Portland News, 18.

This, if true, would appear to be a business mistake, if the pilots on the San Francisco and Columbia bars, and on the Columbia and Willamette rivers between here and Portland are to be discontinued from further employment on the Columbia, Oregon and State of California.

There appears to be something in it, though nothing official has, as yet, been promulgated. As THE ASTORIAN gets it from an old responsible river man who is not connected with the business, it appears that some time ago the company asked Capt. Ackley of the State, Capt. Bolles of the Columbia, and Capt. Pohlman of the Oregon, if they could and would bring their vessels in and out to and from San Francisco and Astoria without pilots. The three captains got together and agreed that whether they could or not they wouldn't, and so reported to the company. Our informant states that subsequently Capt. Bolles told the company's officers that he was willing to take his ship in and out.

As stated, no official announcement has yet been made, but it looks as though some such order will be issued; it is thought pilot Jensen, of the State will be retained.

To do away with the pilot service on the San Francisco steamers would be an injury to the efficiency and safety of the service, and a manifest detriment to the revenues of the company.

Apart from prudence it is evident that there is no economy about it. The delay, the increased consumption of coal and the general insecurity and added responsibility, together with the distrust of the passengers will, it is believed, be of more injury and loss to the company than can be represented by the trifling saving of $150 a month in the discharge of experienced and competent pilots on a route where experience has demonstrated the necessity of their presence.

Total Eclipse of the Moon.

The moon will be totally eclipsed next Sunday night. The times of the phases are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Moon enters shadow, Total eclipse begins, Middle of the eclipse, Total eclipse ends, Moon leaves shadow. Times: 7:45 P. M., 8:44, 9:36, 10:27, 11:36.

The eclipse will be visible generally throughout North and South America, and in portions of Europe, Africa and the Pacific ocean. It is a repetition of the eclipse of July 12, 1870. The magnitude of the eclipse is 1.825, the moon's diameter being 1. The totally eclipsed moon is plainly visible in the firmament in far the greater number of eclipses, the color of the disk varying from a copper hue to a deep, somber gray. The coloring is explained in this way: The sunlight grazing the earth's atmosphere is refracted into the earth's shadow, and the light on the moon is the result. If the atmosphere be pure and cloudless, the moon will present a reddish, coppery hue. If it be full of clouds and vapor, the moon will present a darker and more somber hue. If the earth had no atmosphere, the moon would be invisible during totality.

For First Place.

A great amount of political engineering will be done by friends of candidates to secure for their man the first place on the ticket, and the best man will probably secure the coveted place. Then if indorsed by the majority of the people, the election is assured. Electric Bitters has been put to the front, its merits passed upon, has been indorsed, and unanimously given the first place among remedies peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all Diseases of Kidneys, Liver and Stomach. Electric Bitters, being guaranteed, is a safe investment. Price 50c and $1 per bottle at Jno. C. Dement's Drug Store.
