The Appetite

May be increased. The Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Barnis M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING

three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hummerway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

THE RAINFALL OF OREGON.

The average annual rainfall for Oregon, as a whole is only 36 inches, of this 18 inches fall in winter, 8 inches in spring, 2 inches in summer and 8 inches in autumn. During summer the showers are occasional, but they seldom interfere with the harvesting season; the autumn rains put the soil in good condition for plowing and seeding. The winter rains are the most excessive, and generally occur on about 20 days in a month, but the soil needs the rain. The winter rains assure the never failing crops, the water power, springs and wells of the state. The spring rainfall furnishes sufficient moisture to mature the crops, and causes the state to have an abundance of everything. The light summer rains allow the grass to dry up about August, but the autumn rains give it new life and vigor, so that while the eastern states are covered with snow and ice, Oregon has green fields and verdant lawns the winter through; and in the early spring, when the snow yet lingers with our eastern people, the flowers here come forth and are in all their glory before the plants there give a sign of their remaining life, after enduring the severity of a winter. In Oregon the rains appear to be so timid, that when they are the most excessive, they least interfere with agricultural pursuits. The causes of the wet and dry seasons in Oregon are due to the tender winds. When the northwest wind comes in summer, then rain may no longer be expected, and when they retire to the southwest trade in fall, the rainy season starts in again. By the term "rainy season," it must not be inferred that the rain is perpetual, or nearly so, during that time. The term is employed only in contrast with the dry season, and it implies the possibility rather than the actual occurrence of rain.

Above has been given the average rainfall of Oregon as a whole. Now it should be remembered that along the immediate coast, and especially so at the mouth of the Columbia river, the rainfall is double that which occurs in the interior valleys some 20 to 100 miles distant; and the rainfall of eastern Oregon is about one-half that of the interior valleys. Along the coast from 62 to 78 inches falls annually. In the Willamette valley from 42 to 56 inches falls annually. In the Umpqua valley 35 inches. In the Rogue river valley, Klamath and Lake counties, and on the plateau, east of the Cascade range of mountains, known as eastern Oregon from 13 to 25 inches falls annually. The rainfall in Oregon, (as well as in California and Washington Ter.) increases from south to north. Rain falls from 100 days at Ashland to 166 days at Portland in a year. The average for the state would be about 125 days.

Should Keep Her Half Still.

A loving young husband of this city possesses a pretty young wife and a sweet little baby who is as good as he can be in the daytime, but who has a penchant for making the midnight air resound with his cries. The dear little thing was giving his usual concert several nights ago. His audience was tired out. The "happy father" was trying hard to persuade the old said man to fill his eyes and transport him to the land of Nod. Still the baby yelled.

"Dearest," growled this loving husband, "hadn't you better get up and walk around the room and get your baby quiet?"

"My baby," responded "Dearest," "well, I think about one-half of it is yours!"

"Oh, I don't care how much noise my half makes," answered the villain. "You just keep your half still."—Cincinnati Times.

You Who Lead Sedentary Lives

will find great relief from constipation, headache and nervousness, by taking Simmons Liver Regulator. It is a simple harmless, vegetable compound, sure to relieve you. Persons of sedentary habits often suffer with kidney affections. If they would maintain the strength of the digestive organs and improve the quality of the blood by taking the Regulator it would restore the kidneys to health and vigor.

They Carried Their Knowledge Home.

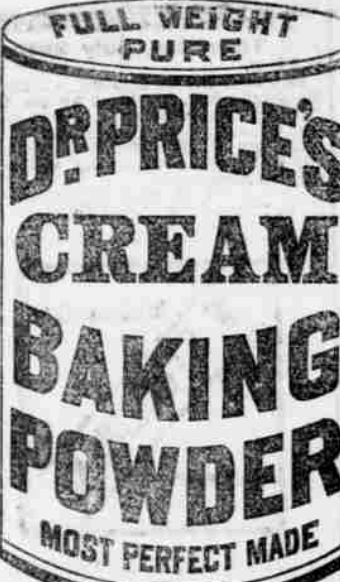

Several years ago a number of German workmen came to Connecticut by a preconcocted arrangement, and obtained employment in the clock factories in New Haven, Ansonia, Waterbury, Thomaston and Winsted. They worked steadily for a long time, applied themselves diligently to mastering the science of clock-making, and became proficient in the art of handling the fine tools necessary to the work, the tools and several of the complicated machines, and, returning to Germany, they began the manufacture of clocks for themselves. They set up a factory in the Black Forest region, and their business now amounts, according to letters recently received in New York city, to nearly fifty thousand clocks a month. This German factory has proved a close competitor with the Connecticut concerns.

Announcement Extraordinary!

"It is not what one makes, it is what one saves that makes them rich." ONE PRICE.

While I do not believe in the advertisements often used to catch trade, such as "On account of going out of business," removal, overstocked, etc., and which are claptraps in most instances, as good business men are not overstocking, removing, experimenting, etc., which in the end, would be at their patrons expense. But at times there are circumstances which one has no control over, such as the unusual wet month of June, which entirely destroys the STRAW HAT TRADE for that month, and whereas I received eight (8) large cases of

Men's and Boys' Straw Hats,
Which are so bulky in their nature, and for my want of store room for my new and large assortment of MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' CLOTHING which I am beginning to receive along with new styles in FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, TRUNKS, TRAVELING BAGS, UMBRELLAS, BLANKETS, QUILTS, etc.,
And whereas, my goods are always

Marked in Plain Figures
And to close out these Straw Hats as soon as possible, regardless of cost, I have concluded to make this announcement, that on and after Monday, July 16th, I shall sell all Straw Hats as follows, viz:

All straw hats I have been selling at	30 for	$1.50
" " " " " "	1.50 for	1.00
" " " " " "	1.00 for	.75
" " " " " "	.75 for	.50
" " " " " "	.50 for	.40
" " " " " "	.40 for	.30
" " " " " "	.30 for	.15
