The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—G. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING
three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

A LIVELY SCENE.

Attempt to Assassinate a California Judge.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—While Justice Field, of the United States supreme court, was rendering a decision adverse to Sarah Althea in the celebrated Sharon case in the circuit court this morning, the latter drew a pistol and fired at the justice, but without effect. She is now under arrest.

Sarah Althea's husband, Judge Terry, drew a knife and attempted to stab one of the marshals. He was, after a stubborn resistance, deprived of the weapon, and fought like a maniac. It took the combined efforts of all the marshals to handcuff him. His wife, still struggling and raving, got one hand free, and before any one could stop her aimed her pistol and fired. No one was hurt, but one of the deputies had a narrow escape. Before she could aim again the weapon was wrenched from her and she was handcuffed.

The celebrated Sharon case came up in the circuit court this morning in its most sensational form. The decision which was rendered by Justice Field, of the United States supreme bench, was a revival of the old decision which prevented Sarah Althea (now Mrs. Terry) from claiming to be the wife of Wm. Sharon, and declared fraudulent the marriage contract and ordered it canceled.

When it was apparent that Justice Field's decision was going against Sarah Althea, the latter arose from her seat and exclaimed, "Judge Field, how much have you been paid for that decision? You have been bought, and you know it." The judge ordered her removed from the court room, when she drew a pistol, and would have fired at the justice but for the timely interference of several deputy marshals, who dragged her out fighting like a tigress.

Deputy marshal Dean, who took the knife away from Terry, had a narrow escape with his life. He nor anyone else was expecting such an attack, and before they were aware Terry had drawn a dirk about eight inches long and made a vicious thrust at the deputy. Had his foot not slipped, or rather had he not been opportunely tripped up by marshal Franks, deputy Dean would now be resting on one of the slabs at the morgue or a bed in the receiving hospital.

The pistol used by Sarah was a British bulldog, six chambers, loaded in every chamber and evidently brought with the intention of using it if justice Field's decision was adverse.

As she faced the judge, when she made her first speech, there was murder in her eye, but in all her appearances in the various courts, she never looked to so great an advantage from a picturesque standpoint as when she stood up and defied the judge. Her eyes flashed fire, wrinkles disappeared, and her face flushed blood red, the veins stood out on her forehead like whip cord, and as she hurled the words, "How much were you paid for that decision?" she looked like an Amazon deying her enemies. As soon, however, as the hand of the marshal was placed upon her, she collapsed. She lost all her dignity, and at once became a mere virago.

Judge Terry, as his wife first addressed the bench, did not move, but as justice Field issued the order, "Marshal, arrest that woman," he arose and barred the way. His usually florid face was pallid, his eyes sank into his head and he wore the appearance of a man just awakening from a crushing blow. As the lust of battle, however, came over him, the blood leaped back to his face and the look of hate and passion that settled there made him look like a fiend incarnate. He was a desperate man, and nothing but his speedy disarmament saved bloodshed.

This afternoon justice Field adjudged Sarah Althea and judge Terry guilty of contempt of court, and sentenced the former to six months and the latter to thirty days imprisonment in the county jail.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla will cure your catarrh, and remove that sickening odor of the breath.

An Overtasked Congressman.

Those who consider that a congressman's life is all play should listen to the lament of Hon. Frank Lawler. When asked what he had been doing during the day, the congressman replied: "I got up at five o'clock and answered forty letters before leaving my room. I spent two hours chasing about the departments trying to find places for three of my constituents. Then I rushed to the capitol to attend a committee meeting and when that was finished I called at the dentist's and had two teeth filled. I was nearly dead when I dropped into the chair and when the man of forceps and mallets got through with me I was too exhausted to stand. I returned to my desk to find twenty-five letters had arrived in my absence, and before the day closes I will get twenty-five more. All these must be answered before I go to bed, and I'm so sleepy now that my eyes close in spite of me. To add to my troubles a persistent old woman who wants a place in the treasury is waiting for me in the corridor nearest my seat, and I'm afraid to go back in the house."

Ladies will find relief from headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, indigestion, constant or periodical headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency by taking Simmons' Liver Regulator. It is not unpleasant, is purely vegetable, and is not injurious to the most delicate constitution.

Gustave Gunderson, steward of the steamer Thingalla, survived six ocean disasters prior to the recent one between his vessel and the Geiser. Beginning in 1866 he was shipwrecked on the coast of Norway. The next vessel on which he served foundered off cape St. Vincent in 1868; the third was wrecked off Australia in 1872; the fourth was dismantled off the cape of Good Hope in 1873; the fifth was lost in a great gale on a voyage from New Zealand to Australia in 1874, and the sixth was run down and sank off port Adelaide in 1878.

The Biting Tongue.
Slender attacks is from behind. The bite is rarely felt unless it is malignant and persistent. Disease, too, often steals upon us through a vital channel. The air we breathe affects the lungs—if it be malarious it enters the blood, if it change too quickly in the temperature, it produces disease of the throat, &c. Whether Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is taken to prevent or to remedy the various forms of disease produced by miasma, such as intermittent fever, dumb ague, acute or bilious remittent, it is and ever has proved to be an effective and thorough remedy—one which does not only ameliorate the symptoms of the malady of this type, but eradicates their cause. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheumatism, bladder and kidney troubles are among the humanity-afflicting troubles which it promptly relieves and ultimately removes.

In the Madrid prison prisoners are allowed out at night occasionally. One, Varela, joined his accomplices outside, engaged in the murder of his mother, divided her money with his pals, and then returned to his cell.

For bilious fever and malarial disorders, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Its success is guaranteed if taken according to directions.

"She's the evenest temper you ever saw," he said, as he saw me wince—
"She got mad once at seven years old"
And she's staid mad ever since."
