

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1888.

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted).

J. P. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

ASTORIAN BUILDING, - - - CASS STREET. Terms of Subscription.

The ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

The Jewish New Year begins at 6 o'clock this evening.

J. W. Gearhart has sold his Clatsop farm of 873 acres to M. J. Kinney for $7,000.

The Headlight chronicles the catching of a forty pound salmon in Tillamook bay.

A. G. Spexarth has rented the store in the south end of Capt. Flavel's new brick building.

Quite an innovation is reported from the Sound, where some of the mills are about to put in band saws.

John A. Anderson, formerly of this city, died in Forest Grove from the effects of the heat there last Monday.

The bark Viola Hopkins arrived yesterday afternoon. Another bark is reported outside with pilot aboard.

Talking of the murmuring of the tide, four divorce cases are already on the docket for the September term of the circuit court.

The lumber export of Puget sound during the first six months of the present year amounted to 173,921,168 feet, valued at $2,277,704.

The wrecked and burned Herminia was raised last Sunday and towed to Portland, where it is thought she will be rebuilt and given about two feet more beam.

The bill appropriating $60,000 to establish a lightship outside the bar has passed both houses of congress and only awaits the president's signature to become a law.

School began in district No. One yesterday. The attendance for the first week or so will be light, but by the middle of the month the teachers will have their hands full.

If all the letters received in a newspaper office were published verbatim at serial intervals just as received, they would look funny to everyone, except, possibly, the writers.

Capt. Blood, master of the bark Viola Hopkins, was taken to the hospital upon the arrival of his vessel yesterday, having been seriously ill from the time of his departure from San Diego.

The Oregon conference of the M. E. church, now in session at Eugene City, has assigned Rev. G. W. Granville to have charge of the church at this place. Rev. O. B. Whitmore, the present minister, will officiate at Eugene City.

The only iron schooner in the United States is the Red Wing, built by the American ship building company at Port Richmond, Pa., in 1884. She is ten rigged and of the following dimensions: length, 130 feet, beam, 33 feet, depth, 11.6 feet and 415 tons.

C. B. Prescott of New York, talks of going into the refrigerated sturgeon business if he can get the required facilities from the N. P. railroad company. He says he can get six cents a pound for fresh sturgeon in the eastern markets. He probably can, and more too.

The performing dogs at the opera house last night drew a big audience, composed largely of juveniles, all being greatly pleased with the pleasant performance of the educated dogs, who went through with many clever antics, many of the tricks being original and all being well done.

From the Tillamook Headlight of August 31st, received yesterday, it is learned that the fish racks on the Nehalem have been totally destroyed by fire, involving a loss of nearly $1,000, and that there is no clue to the perpetrators. The Headlight says: "We deeply deplore the modus operandi resorted to by our people, as it bodes no good, and gives the county a name not envied by outsiders."

The first shipment of Puget sound salmon was made to Baltimore yesterday. Geo. T. Myers says in ten years' experience as a canner on the Sound he never knew salmon so scarce in the bays. He attributes it to the action of the glaciers in the mountains filling the rivers and bays with whitish water, which is avoided by the fish seemingly. Fishermen are driven to the main channels of the Sound, where silversides are being taken in liberal quantities. There are now 2,000 cases of the old pack unsold and on hand. Thus far 1,000 cases have been packed this season.

Attention Co. H. The members will appear at 8 o'clock sharp for drill hereafter. Roll call at 8:30. Business meeting to-night. A. E. SHAW, Capt. Commanding.

Teacher Wanted. The directors of District No. 2 want a teacher for a six months term. Man preferred. Apply to C. A. McGuire, or P. C. Warren, Skippanon.

OUR GLORIOUS CLIMATE.

Delightful August Weather in Astoria.

Every month THE ASTORIAN publishes a meteorological summary of the weather of the preceding thirty days, kindly furnished by Sergeant Griffin in charge of the signal service station at this point, and the genial pleasantness of our climate is so much a matter of course to us who have the good fortune to live here and enjoy it, that sometimes unnoticed are the blessings that we in this regard enjoy.

For instance, in the official report we find that during the month of August, 1888, when heat, misery and positive discomfort were the unhappy lot of inland dwellers, when 108° and even 110° degrees was the marking of the thermometer in eastern Oregon and Washington, the highest temperature recorded in Astoria was seventy-four degrees. This simple fact speaks volumes for the delightful climate of western Oregon and the month of the Columbia river. No summer resort on the Atlantic coast, few places on even the favored Pacific coast, has so fine a record for equable temperature as Astoria, and to the weary thousands weakened by heat and summer discomforts this city is a sanitary refuge.

Nor is this all: next winter, when the Astorian reads of heavy snowfall and the blizzards that sweep with Arctic chill through the country to the east, he can only pity the sad dwellers in a land where the thermometer goes down below zero, and picking from the flowers in his front yard a fresh bouquet for his button-hole, thank his stars that his lines are cast in pleasant places and that neither the torrid heats of summer nor the frigid winds of winter can mar the serenity of his joy.

As for the people east of the Rockies, it is incredible to them that we on this north Pacific slope enjoy such equable and happy temperature.

If you who read this, know of a friend in the land of sun-strokes, mad dogs, malaria and misery, send him or her the following official summary of August weather in Astoria in the year of our Lord, 1888:

Mean temperature for month, 63.2 degrees; highest temperature, 74 degrees on the 7th; lowest, 54 degrees on the 5th, 13th, 16th, 25th and 28th; monthly daily range of temperature, 20 degrees; greatest daily range, 17 degrees; least daily range, 8 degrees; mean daily range, 12 degrees; prevailing direction of wind, west; highest velocity, 22 miles per hour; total rainfall for month, .74 of one inch; in August, 1888, the rainfall was 1.83 inches; '85, .02 inches; '86, .56; '87, .49; '88, .74; number of foggy days, none; number of clear days, 14; fair, 6; cloudy, 11; lightning, none; thunderstorms, none.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Gustav Hansen returned from Portland yesterday morning.

Capt. Geo. Flavel has so far recovered as to be again able to be on the street.

Prof. W. E. Johnson and wife go to Portland to-night, where they will make their future residence.

The "Telephone" and "Potter."

There was no race between the Potter and Telephone yesterday, but there was a mighty "gritting" of the "thar," and the progress of the two boats was watched with interest from the time the steamers came flying across the bay.

Both boats left Portland on their usual time, the Telephone making twenty-three landings, the Potter came along while the Telephone was lying at Brookfield, and when she pulled out, her side wheel rival was coughing down the river well in advance. Neither boat was in trim for any great amount of speed, the Telephone being especially handicapped by a large quantity of freight and about 30 tons of water in her tank, the Potter's tank being reported comparatively lighter. The two boats presented a pretty sight as they rounded Tongue Point, streaking through the lapping water, and volumes of white steam issuing in curling masses from their smoke stacks.

At 1:17 the Potter blew her whistle; 35 seconds after the Telephone blew hers a little above the same spot, and both glided into their landing places, the lines being cast off and made fast at a lively rate.

Capt. Scott and Capt. Pease have both showed good sense in steadily refusing to race this summer. They both have good boats and are justly proud of them. All the same no one who has never had his hand on the wheel of a fast boat knows how strong the temptation is to have the engineer "let her out," when he has an idea he can leave the other boat in his wake.

It is a matter of just pride to know that both those boats built on the river are the peers in swiftness of any on the coast. Men who saw the two coming down yesterday afternoon say they were making twenty miles an hour.

A Case of Necessity.

The fact of the Northern Pacific building boats to run on the upper Columbia river should induce the O. R. & N. Co. to lessen their freight charges from The Dalles to the seaboard. Without the company makes some movement in this direction, the wheat crop of eastern Oregon will seek time on the Sound.—Dalles Times-Mountaineer, 1.

The Love That Lives.

"Youth fades, love droops, the leaves of friendship fall— A mother's secret hope outlives them all." She will not believe her dimpled darling must die. The baby eyes look to her for help—and there is help. Hasten to the nearest druggist and procure Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and your child may be restored, for it cures consumption, which is only Scrofula of the Lungs, if taken in time, as readily as it cures scrofula affecting other parts and organs. Don't delay. A perfect specific. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

A Warning. The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without your attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Death of Newton Scott. Newton Scott, the well-known engineer on the Telephone, died in Portland yesterday morning. His uncle, Capt. U. B. Scott, sat with him until it was time to leave on the down trip yesterday morning, and when he left his nephew's bedside it was evident he would soon close his eyes on all things earthly. He was in the 34th year of his age, a faithful, obliging man, liked by all. He leaves a wife and child, resident in Portland.

About five years ago he met with an accident on the City of Salem, whereby his spine was injured. Since then he has never been well, the disease finally developing into congestion of the brain, which proved fatal.

SORE FROM KNEE TO ANKLE.

Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the CUTICURA Remedies.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle, the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. I had diminished about one-third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your CUTICURA Remedies, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and to-day, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as ever it was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen. S. G. AHERN, Dubois, Dodge Co., Ga.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind—none or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, sniffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATABOLIC SOLVENT, and IMPROVED EMERALD PINKET, price, $16.

A Good Prospect.

R. M. Spedden, of Astoria, and E. C. Spedden, of the prairie, passed through town Sunday, on their way to Portland from Elk City. They have located a mine close to the American river, the quartz from it showing plenty of gold and silver. The ledge is quite extensive and is fast filling out, and the proprietors intend putting in a 10-stamp mill soon. Their trip to Portland was to make arrangements for the same. We wish them all the success imaginable.—Idaho Free Press.
