The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to man for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING
three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

PREN'S MILL, TEXAS, June 29, 1888.—The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: One of my children was troubled with granular and lumpy eyes for several years. We gave her various kinds of medicine, but without success, until she began to recover from her ailment. I was persuaded to try your Swift's Specific. After she had used several bottles, the disease all disappeared, and she is now a hale, hearty and healthy child. I feel it my duty to make the statement, and to thank you for the special benefit. We tried S. S. S. and by the time one bottle was gone her head began to ache, and by the time she had used six bottles she was completely cured. None of us has a full and heavy head of hair, a red, lumpy eye, or a sore throat. Respectfully, H. T. Sisson.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 27, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: I am a physician, and at one time contracted blood poisoning, and at once sought relief in your medicine. I recovered in a few days, and my system free from all impurities. I was advised to try your medicine, and I immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, and soon, nothing but your medicine, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—in your medicine. I cheerfully make this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. HARRY M. BERRY, 24 West Ninth St.

HONOR, LA., May 25, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago I contracted a health ailment, and I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All the physicians I consulted advised me to try your medicine, and I immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, and soon, nothing but your medicine, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—in your medicine. I cheerfully make this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. JOSEPH BIRNEY, Druggist.

A Sailor's Little Joke.

Recently a reporter for the Mail and Express dropped in an East Side restaurant before going to bed and took a seat very near the door. While waiting for his order his attention was directed to two sailors who had followed him in and taken seats on the opposite side of the room. Both of them were more or less tipsy, but while one was in a condition bordering on the paralytic, the other was just full enough to be cute. An evidence of these two degrees of drunkenness was had during their stay in the place, and afforded much amusement to the people who sat at the adjoining tables. The men ordered clams. The drunker of the two asked for little necks on the shell, and after giving his order lapsed into that somnolent state that the writer has been told by those who have experienced it is little short of heavenly. The other sailor called for a clam stew. The first one's order was brought and placed before him, but the stew had to be made. He who had ordered the raw moved not, and his chum quietly drew the clams across the table and devoured them, which done, he pushed the empty shells and plate back to its place in front of the sleeping tar. By this time the stew was ready, and this, too, was soon dispatched, but just as No. 5 was eating the last of it he who had called for the raw woke up. He looked enquiringly at his friend getting away with the stew and then at the empty shells. Then he smacked his lips and wiped his mouth with the back of his hand, and was just about to say something, when No. 2 asked: "Well, Tom, you through?"

The sleeper was uncertain as to whether he had eaten the clams or not, but he made a wry face and replied, "I guess so," and picking up the check, went up to the cashier, paid it and departed. As the two went out, however, he who had kept awake turned aside, and putting his finger to the side of his nose, said to the waiter: "Are you on? That's the second time I've done him to-night."

Dyspepsia and indigestion are killing more people than run, ten times over. When a man has dyspepsia his stomach is always with him, and he is always conscious of it. He can't sleep, his food doesn't taste right, he's morbid. Your stomach ought to be your best friend, and it will be if after eating you will take a little Simmons' Liver Regulator to assist digestion and allay all irritation.

"After eating a hearty supper, if I take about a teaspoonful of Simmons' Liver Regulator, I never feel the effects of the supper eaten."—O. W. SPARKS, ex-Mayor of Macon, Ga.

The Indiana Campaign.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 7.—The outside public may gain some faint idea of the magnitude of the great political battle that is just getting under way in every township and county in Indiana when it is learned that the Democracy has 2,500 local speakers throughout the state, who have already canvassed their own counties and are now exchanging with adjoining counties. A majority of this army of orators is assigned for speeches every night in the week for two and three weeks ahead, when new assignments will be made. The democratic state committee facilitates the work by arranging assignments for local speakers through the district and county committees. The list of local speakers on the books of the Republican state committee is not complete. As yet but 1,500 names are listed, which is an average of nearly fifteen to each of the ninety-two counties. The work of assigning dates and places for this host of speakers is largely done by the state committee.

Both committees have large document rooms where campaign congressional literature may be seen by the ton. These documents arrive and depart almost daily by the wagon load. It is expected that Judge Thurman will attend about a dozen meetings in Indiana.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

It is rumored at Spokane Falls that chief Joseph, the leader in the Nez Perce war, and now on Moses reservation in Washington territory, contemplated another uprising. The reservation agent denies the story.

Not a particle of quinine nor any mineral substance is contained in Ayer's Cure—yet it is a warranted specific for malaria.

The Biting Tongue.
Slander attacks in the form of a bite is rarely felt unless it is malignant and persistent. Disease, too, often steals upon us through a vital channel. The air we breathe affects the lungs—if it be malarious it enters the blood, if it change too quickly in the temperature, it produces disease of the throat, &c. Whether Hotstetter's Stomach Bitters is taken to prevent or to remedy the various forms of disease produced by miasma, such as intermittent fever, dumb ague, acute or bilious remittent, it is and ever has proved to be an effective and thorough remedy—one which does not only ameliorate the symptoms of the malarious type, but eradicates their cause. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheumatism, bladder and kidney troubles are among the humanity-afflicting troubles which it promptly relieves and ultimately removes.
